Miramichi Advance.

CHATHAM, MAY 17, 1883. Titles (St. John Globe) One of the newspapers at Fredericton is profoundly moved by an interesting question. That question is who are entitled to be called "Honorable"?

It would seem that the members of the late Government roamed wildly and loosely about the country calling themselves Honorable, and allowing other people to call them so, too, without the least justification for their conduct.

It would seem that the members of the late Government roamed wildly and loosely about the country calling themselves Honorable, and allowing other people to call them so, too, without the least justification for their conduct.

Business Notice.

Some weeks ago, with aching head, with hands burned, scratched and benumbed, I may think it is asking a great deal of her to expect that she shall pursue the even tenor of her way while she is working twice as hard as usual, and is subjected to the many annoyances unavoidable at this time.
