This old and rehable line increases in favor with the travelling public every year.

THE "RIPPLE".-R. R. Call, Esq., left Newcastle on Saturday night for Queboc, to take over the steamer Ripple from h r ing her down.

The people of Chatham and Newcastle, Nelson and Donglastown, will be glad to welcome the Ripple, as their steam service will then, no doubt, be much im proved. A route so well patrouized ought to be provided with a first class boat, which we are told the Ripple is.

PERSONAL .- Mr. John M. O'Brien, who after passing a very creditable examination, was lately admitted an attorney, intends, we believe, to practice his profession at Bathurst. Mr. O'Brien is a young man of much ability, who, we have no doubt, will very soon take a high position at the Bar. His clients may rely upon his careful attention to their business and his entire devotion to their interests .- Free.

APPEAL. - The conviction in the case of the Escuminae school teacher against Trustee Sullivan, was up for review be fore Judge Botsford at Moncton on Tuesday last. Mr. Robert Murray, jr., of Chatham, counsel for the complainant, tork objection to the affidavit on which the order for review was granted, and his objection being sustained, the appeal was dismissed, His Honor deciding that the cause had not been properly brought before him. The conviction by Justice Lewis, therefore, stands good. Mr. G. P. Thomas of Moncton appeared for the defendant.

BAD FOR THE "REPORTER,"-The Local Government has adopted a regulation which is likely to reduce the circulation of the Fredericton Reporter by one half, It orders that in future only one copy of every local paper shall be paid for out of the public chest, and that that copy shall be sent to the Public Works Department. Of course the Reporter is ugly over this, and sneeringly says that "the Chief Commissioner should hereafter be the best read and best informed member of the Government." It by no means follows. Tae more papers like the Reporter the Chief Commissioner reads the less he will really know .- Globe.

OBITUARY - Many of our readers in the County of Gloucester, as well as on the Miramichi knew Mr. Thomas Robert Rivers, whose death is recorded in another column as having taken place on 4th inst. at the ripe age of 85 years. Mr. Rivers came to this country nearly sixty years ago, and resided in the Parish of Pokemouche almost ever since. He was esteemed by all who knew him for his strict honesty and charitable and peace-loving disposition. His death removes another of the old-time, sturdy farming class, who have done so much for the North Shore of New Brunswick, and whose memory is honored long after they are

AN IMPORTANT MATTER was before

Police Magistrate Blair in Chatham on creditors, and having duly advertised the same proceeded to sell it. Included in the property was a piece of land off St. John Street which the Sheriff was to sell on Saturday afternoon. At the appointed time he appeared and postponed the sale and upon announcing the postponement, Barden approached him in an excit d and aggravating manner, threatening that it it at the time named, at the same time shaking his hand very near the Sheriff's face. The latter waved Barden off and was proceeding towards the Post Office to put up a notice of the postponement. when Barden followed him along, still ad dressing him offensively, and the Sheriff. who had intended to get clear of him before, now reached out and went to arrest him. Thereupon Barden struck the Sheriff who defended himself but received two slight marks from which the blood flowed, Barden being final y held and sent away by some bystanders. The charge of assault upon the Sheriff for preliminary hearing on Tuesday and the facts above stated came out in evidence. At the solicitation of the prisoners' counsel the Sheriff requested the Court to proceed summarily, saying he but of rather good circumstances-He had no desire to pe secute Mr. Barden or hurt the feel ngs of his family, but he felt he must be protected by the law in | ion. Nothing in the pockets, the d scharge of his duty. It was in his own interest and the interest of those who might succeed him in the office he this assault punished. He had trea ed Mr. Barden kindly and considerately all through his business troubles and had been badly treated by him in return. The Magistrate said he would consent to proceed summarily. He dwelt on the necessity of upholding the law and protecting those charged with its administra tion from violence. Knowing Mr. Barden and the fact that he had always, heretofore, teen a peaceable citizen and for his family's sake, he was glad he was not called upon to send him up for trial to a higher Court as the evidence would war. rant him in do ng. He therefore imposed a fine of $20, which would include costs. drowning was rendered. L. J. Tweedie, Esq., for complainant :

part last Thursday evening to witness the popular performance of Mr. T. F. Gorman's Company. It was decidedly the best entertainment given here in some time, although it differed considerably from what was expected. The play bills gave the idea that the whole performance would be a burlesque or roaring farce, whereas there was a large amount of the more sterling and artistic order; and at the same time enough of the ridiculous to keep the audience in shouts of laughter. Messrs. Ryan and Gibson's representation of Irish peculiarities, in the characters of Muldoon and Mulcaney, was good all through : the acting was natural, the jokes fresh and witty, and the songs and dances first class. Mr. Ellwood, as a burlesque prima donna, was the best we ever saw ; he sang "When the leaves begin to turn," and "Blue Alsatian Moun small token of our appreciation of your | tains," in a manner that would have done credit to a lady singer, and took the highest notes with an ease and clearness that was wonderful : no one would have suspected his sex from seeing him on the stage. Miss Isabel Ward gave an exhibition of her skill in producing sweet and correct music from a wooden dulcimer, common glass bottles, bells, &c., that was worth the whole price of admission, and could not be excelled. The other performers also did their parts well. It is safe Mexico. #### Challenge Accepted reply to your challenge I beg to say that I can prove every one of my statements in reference to my stallion. Abdallah Messenger. Your Island Chief is not an im ported horse, as you seem to want people to believe, nor yet his sire, and there is no comparison between Abdallah's stock and Island Chief's. The latter is only mongrel bred. Now, sir, where do you want to trot the matches you propose? Is it on the railroad track, in the woods, or on the Queen's highway? Your challenge gives no particulars. Mr. Scott, in whose hands you say you have placed $50, is a stranger to me-no doubt a gentleman; but this is no time to make matches for stud horses. If you are anxious for the matches you propose I will put $100 in the hands of Thomas McCarvill, Esq., of Lot 27, Somerset, P. E. I., that Abdallah Messenger will beat Island Chief, and that Abdallah's stock will beat any stock your horse has sired, the matches to be trotted on Somerset Park the 20th of next August (I have sent my cheque for this amount to Mr. McCarvill, a gentleman you know very well.) On the 18th of last August a half sister of Island Chief's, owned by Mr. Essery, trotted on the Somerset Park against my Abdallah Maid, and Bunting's Abdallah, both sired by my Abdallah, and was distanced and ruled off the track. In November, at the Somerset races, a half-sister and halt-brother of Island Chief trotted against Capt. Irvine's three-year old Abdallah, and were badly beaten. A

There was another match race between Malone's Abdallah filly and Hugh Mc-Kenna's Chief colt, and Abdallah won.

Our Bathurst correspondent gave some facts last week connected with the finding of a man's body on the beach at Clifton, Gloucester County. A correspondent of In the meant me he became impatient and the Advocate gives further and fuller par-

As you probably have seen-a body of a man was found last week at Clitton Beach, and as he does not belong to this County and there is no clue to his identity I think it advisable to give you the follow-Tuesday. It appears that some time ago ing au hentic facts as to his condition the Sheriff seized the property of Mr. when found, so as, if possible, to afford an Nicholas Barden at the instance of several opportunity to establish his identity, and which it would be well to publish with Everything showed that the body was washed ashore in a northeasterly storm during the making of the ice last fail He measured six feet one inch in height, and would probably weigh over two hundred. From what little hair remained on his head, (it be ng worn off by the sea), his complexion was sandy and he was judged to be about 35 years of age. He had on, when found, a pair of light co'ored would take a better man than he to sell cloth pants (nearly new), and a pair of brown overalls, a pair of high laced boots. knitted drawers and linder and white shirt. The s eeves of the shirt were gone except one cuff in which there was a steel sleeve link, at the throat of the shirt was a gold plated collar stud and in the bosom was a gold stud with a pearl in it and three laws engraved on it (the emb em of Oddfellowship.)

An inquest was held by Francis Scott 14, -Zuleima, Arentsen, Oran, deals, R. A. and Je emiah Fitzpatrick, J. Ps., and a verdict of death from drowning returned. He was buried in the English church burial ground. The studs and sieeve link are now in the possession of Francis Scott. As it is more than probable the man belonged to the Gaspe side of the Bay, and it is possible he may have friends or re atives oven there who would like to while in the discharge of his duty was up know what became of him, I think you will see with me the advisabil ty of giving the above the advantage of your large

Fitzpatrick, on the body of a man found trozen in the shore ice at Cl.ffton. There were no marks of violence on the body. It was believed that the body was driven ashore last fall and got frozen in among the shore ice. The deceased was a large man about 6 ft. 2 m. in height and apparently about 30 years of age. He wore a kuit linder, drawers and white snirt, a pair of gray pants and a pair of black pants outside. He wore on his feet a pair of laced gaiters (new) and home made socks. The shirt studs had ivery front marked with three links and one large sleeve button marked with emblems of base ball, crossed bats, ball and cap which are now in possession of Francis Scott. ed. A verdict of accidental death by

Early on Saturday morning last, the Water Mill on the Newcastle side of the river, nearly opposite the lower end of the MR EDITOR. - Permit me to ask through town of Chatham, was discovered to be on danger of being destroyed. In a very short time steam was got up on the St. George, whose powerful fire-pump is calculated to do great service in such emergencies, and with about forty men on board, she left for the fire, stopping at the Loggie mill wharf to take on board some of the Chatham Fire Department hose. The Opera House was filled in every she reached the fire just in time, for one side of a large scantling pile was already burning and a board pile partially destroyed, others being scorched. Mr. T. Crimmin, one of the Chatham Firewards-and the only one on hand in response to the alarm-assisted by Mr. DesPrisay and others, had attached the hose to the teamer's pump on the way down and a siamese being placed on the hose as it was un out on the wharf, two effective streams were soon playing on the burning lumber and a part of the mill. In a short time all danger was over, the men working hard meantime, in pulling down and scattering the lumber that was threatening to proong the fire. Mr. Thomas Haviland, with his usual willingness on such occasions, next took one of the town hand-engines to the scene with additional hose and, thus, furnished means for assuring the safety of

up. The first water-wheel was of 20 feet diameter and was of wood and iron. It was replaced, in 1853, by an iron wheel of 25 feet diameter, which gave greater power and increased the mill's cutting capacity. The lumber cut in the river when the water mill started in 1830 was pine, exclusively, and the "feed" then thought sufficient was one-eight of an inch o'clock, p. m. to each stroke of the saws. Up to that time deals were cut by hand in the saw- W. H. Buck, pit or by single saws in small water mills and the new Gilmor & Rankin mill was MR. Its work became the envy of the rival Cunard firm on this side of the river, who determined to outdo their opponents, so, six years after, the Canard steam mill-which at first ran five gangs, and was burned in 1880-was built-About seven years ago the water mill was sold to Wm. Richards, Esq., and at the Men's White Dress Shirts, t me it was burned it was owned by that gentleman and Messrs. Guy, Bevan & Co. We understand it was insured for $12,000. The disaster will throw a good many men out of employment and while this will be a great hardship for those in the vicinity, who have always found work Working there, the loss will also be felt in Chatham. for the mill brought considerable business to the town in different ways.

Cherished hopes of other years. Though she passed from earth so early, Put these facts in your pipe and smoke Quickly as a fleeting sigh, from a world of grief and sorrow To a brighter world on high. Death came for her in the morning when the day had just begun, Bore her from her loving parents To a land beyond the sun. Though you cannot meet the glances Of her childish loving eyes, Think the soul that made them lovely Hath returned unto the skies. Though you miss her childish prattle, Though you miss her ford embrace, Do not wish her back from heaven, From her quiet resting place.

She is landed safe forever On the bright eternal shore Where no grie, nor pain, nor sorrow Shall heave that little bosom more. Now beside the gentle shepherd Who the tender lambs doth guide

For you on the other side. When the Master comes to call you From this world of grief away, lust beyond the shining portals You shall meet your darling May.

Pedigree, etc of Abdallah Messenger Abdallah Messenger is by Jupiter Abdallah, bred Peter Vandervier, Esq., of Flatbush, Long high and weighed 1,200 lbs at 4 years old. He trotted a mile in 2.30, and was never trained. He was sired by Jupiter Abdallah, he by old Jupiter, he by Long Island Black Hawk, he by Andrew Jackson, he by Bashaw, he by Imported Bashaw. All of Jupiter Abdallah's blood runs back te Imported Messenger, except the Bashaw, which is considered the best stock of trotting blood in the country. Abdallah Messenger's dam was sired by Hogland's Grey Messenger-the sire of the New York Ledger Privateer, Young America, Stonewall Jackson-raised and owned by James Weaver, Esq., Long Island-Blonde and many other celebrated There is not a better bred horse in the country than the Abdallah Messenger; he traces back to and Messenger. While we do not wish to question the qualities of other good horses, we are correct in aaying that the bl od of Abdallah Messenger together with his fine size, symmetrical formation and of the best and first stock horse for all purposes that now stands in America Abdallah Messenger's Colts have made the fastest trotting and he has sired more trotters than any other horse imported to P. E. Island of the same age. He came from Long Island, New York, May 14th, 1877. Captain Ivring's colt, 2 years old, took first money Somerset Track last fall and John O'Ronaghan's mare also took first money, and John Dobson's colt, 2 years old, took first money on fryon ice last winter; several other of Abdallah Messenger's colts have taken first money in races and also at several of our exhibitions on P.E. Island. They cannot be beaten for style, muscular power and speed. The Abdallah Messenger's stock has taken and is taking higher and more prizes than any other stock that can be produced on P. E. Island. JOHN O'RONAGHAN.

Owner of Abdallah Messenger, Somerset Lot 21, JOHN O'RONAGHAN, Esq. DEAR SIR .- As I thought you would like to hear ow Abdallah Messenger stock is turning out, I night say I purchased one from George Cudmore Esq., which is a credit to Abdallah and his owner. He is rising four years old and can trot a mile inside of three minutes, has never been trained, and the is properly handled he will make one of the fastest horses ever raised on P. E. Island. His weight is about ten hundred pounds; color, dark brown. There are several other colts around here sired by Abdallah Messenger which give every prospect of fast tretting and I consider Abdallah Messenger stock the best for speed on P. E. Island
