Although a work of fiction, it deals exclusively with facts that came under the writer's personal observation, and every character in the tale is taken from life. It is a scrupulously authentic and convincing argument in behalf of a reformation of the present condition of many of the Irish tenants. The authoress is an Irish Protestant lady, who has been for many years before the public as a writer of more than ordinary power. The book will contain 450 pages, on extra paper, and will be handsomely bound in cloth; price $1.50 by subscription only.
