FURNITURE EMPORIUM.

The Golden Ball Boot and Shoe Store is the oldest established in Miramichi. It is now fifteen years since we commenced business exclusively in the above line, and we can now point with pleasure, to hosts of patrons, who have invariably, purchased from us, during that length of time. The reason is plain. We buy entirely from the best manufacturers, consequently our goods give satisfaction. We might purchase cheap, shoddy goods (that are only meant to sell and not to wear) but by pursuing that policy, it would be impossible to retain our customers. The best goods are the cheapest in the end.

We have full lines of

Infant's, Children's Misses', Youth's, Boy's Women's and Men's Boots Shoes, Slippers, etc.,

at the lowest possible price compatible with good quality.

Also a large assortment of Trunks, Valises, and Hand Bags, Sole Leather and hoe Findings.

Seven years ago we opened our FURNITURE EMPORIUM, and have witnessed a steadily increasing business. A HIGHLY CONCENTRATED EXTRACT OF

RED JAMAICA SARSAPARILLA

AND THE

DOUBLE IODIDES

Space forbids the giving more testimony in this place, in favor of this great medicine. Is not one certificate, however, from an eminent and well-known Physician like Dr Bessey, of Montreal, sufficient to establish its superiority over the numerous mixtures called Blood Purifiers offered by Druggists and others?

T. C. STRATTON, Esq.

Montreal, Feb. 1st, 1877.

I cannot but regard the formula from which Dr. Channing's Sarsaparilla is prepared, as one of the best possible combinations to constitute an effectual remedy, for the cure of Blood Impurities. So far as my experience leads me with this remedy, I can testify to its great value in the treatment of all Strumous and Cachectic affections, as Glandular Enlargements, and a wide range of skin affections; as a reliable preparation for general use as a blood purifier, I know of none equal to it, combining as it does all the imputed virtues of Sarsaparilla, and several other valuable remedies, with the extraordinary alterative properties of the "Double Iodides," and of none that can be more highly recommended as safe, certain and reliable, and I have every confidence that such a remedy for general use, taking the place of the many worthless nostrums of the day, will be a great boon to suffering humanity, and its use will be attended with the most satisfactory results. It should be invaluable to persons beyond the reach of medical advice, and will, no doubt, become popular with Medical men throughout the country.

Respectfully yours,
W. E. BESSEY, M D
Beaver Hall Square.

NOTE.—Dr. Channing's Sarsaparilla is put up in large bottles, with the name blown in the Glass, and retails at $1.00 per bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars. Sold by Druggists generally, and most Country Stores. Be sure, and ask for Dr. Channing's Sarsaparilla and take no other. If not readily obtained in your locality, address the General Agent.

Foo Choo's Balsam of Shark's Oil

Positively Restores the Hearing, and is the Only Absolute Cure for Deafness Known.

This Oil is abstracted from peculiar species of small WHITE SHARK, caught in the Yellow Sea, known as CARCHARODON RONDELETII. Every Chinese fisherman knows it. Its virtues as a restorative of hearing were discovered by a Buddhist Priest about the year 1410 Its cures were so numerous and MANY SO SEEMINGLY MIRACULOUS, that the remedy was officially proclaimed over the entire Empire. Its use became so universal that for over 300 years NO DEAFNESS HAS EXISTED AMONG THE CHINESE PEOPLE. Sent, charges prepaid, to any address at $1.00 per bottle.

Hear What the Deaf Say!

It has performed a miracle in my case

I have no unearthly noises in my head and hear much better.

I have been greatly benefited.

My Deafness helped a great deal—think another bottle will cure me.

Singular and Startling Crime.

SHOOTING HIS BROTHER AND FRIEND FOR FUN.

One of the most extraordinary crimes of the year was committed in Calais, Me., on 20th ult., the principal particulars of which we were obliged to hold over last week for want of space. This week we have later developments and, therefore, give the story from the first.

Herbert W. Eaton's father was a money-getting and money-saving man who died a few years ago leaving a large fortune to his family. Herbert was the youngest son and as soon as he found himself in possession of an ample income, he commenced to live according to his own uninstructed ideas of making life happy. He soon became immoral and indiscreet. He drove fast horses and kept fast company. Seven miles below the city of Calais he set up an expensive summer residence at which he entertained his friends—at times acting the host to representatives of the "best society" of the city and not unfrequently surrounding himself with the fast and profligate of both sexes, until he was a recognized master of orgies which would have caused all decent people to shun him, had it not been that he belonged to a wealthy and well-connected family. It was his habit to spend the greater part of the summer season at his Red Beach residence, with a frail but fair companion and to go into winter quarters at Calais, where his brother and other relatives resided. These do not appear to have cut him on account of his immoralities, which were flagrant and unconcealed. It is, therefore, not to be wondered at that the public have been shocked by the recital of the following tale of crime, which we take from our exchanges,—

Calais, Me., March 21.—Great excitement prevails here to-day over a mysterious affair which occurred last night, and which may possibly result fatally to one and perhaps two of the most prominent citizens of Calais. Beyond the fact that Samuel Kelly, Jr., only son of Deacon Samuel Kelly, one of the oldest citizens, and Joseph E Eaton, owner of the largest planing mills on the river, were shot by Herbert W. Eaton, the latter's brother and junior partner in the lumber firm of Eaton Brothers, very little that is really reliable can be ascertained. It is generally known that the two brothers had laid aside business cares for the day, and were indulging in a little recreation with liquid accompaniment. During the afternoon they sought the seclusion which Jos. Eaton's stable office, in the immediate rear of his dwelling, affords, and probably intended bracing up, quietly assisted by the Chinese hostler, the latter a comical genius and the victim of the brothers' many practical jokes.

At or near supper time Mr. Kelly, who had just returned from his father's farm at Baileyville, passed the building on his way to his father's residence, accompanied by a friend. They were seen by the two brothers, and invited in to partake of an apetizer, which invitation they accepted. Kelly remained, and his companion left, so he says, a few minutes after entering. They had been laughing and joking for about half an hour when Herbert Eaton got up from his chair and walked over to his coat. No notice was taken of his action until he remarked: "Joe, I've had enough of your fooling," or words to that effect, when they became aware he had his revolver, a No. 38, self-cocking one, in his hand Before either could say a word or make a movement he pointed his weapon at his brother, and without further words fired, the ball striking Joseph in the left chest and passing directly through the body without touching a vital spot.

As he fired Kelly started to retire, but was stopped by a second shot from the revolver, which struck him in the left hip. Immediately after firing the second shot Eaton went into the main stable and harnessed his pair of horses. He was met on the road and he spoke pleasantly to at least two persons about 8 o'clock, and it is supposed he was on his way to his home at Red Beach, about seven and a half miles below the city. The hostler states he was called into the office from the main stable, but when he saw Herbert feeling in the pockets of his coat he suspected he was going to scare him and ran from the building. He heard him make the remark quoted above and immediately after heard the report of the two shots.

Joseph Eaton's wound is comparatively slight and the doctors state that his speedy recovery is almost certain. Kelly they are in doubt about. He suffers much pain in the bowels, and vomits frequently. It is thought that he will not live through the night.

Neither of them can assign any motive whatever for the deed. Nothing of an unpleasant nature occurred during the day, and Herbert had apparently been in one of his happiest moods. It is feared that he will do himself violence. Officers found him at his home at noon armed with pistols and the doors barred. He said he would never be taken alive, and would kill any one who attempted to arrest him. His brother, another member of the firm, and his business manager went down and tried hard to obtain his consent to quietly surrender, but they did not succeed. There is a strong guard outside the house to prevent his escape. His brother and Manager Bradley have become responsible for him and agree to produce him to-morrow morning.

CALAIS, Me., March 22.—Herbert W. Eaton, against whom a warrant was issued for assault with intent to kill Samuel Kelly, jr., surrendered himself to the authorities at nine o'clock last night, according to an agreement made by his friends. Court immediately convened at the office of Justice Whidden. Eaton pleaded not guilty, waived examination and insisted upon having bail fixed offering as sureties his brother, B. L. Eaton, and E. C. Gates, who were accepted in the sum of $7,500. A number of the leading physicians are now in consultation. It is rumored that they agree that Kelly cannot possibly live 48 hours. Joseph Eaton is very comfortable and not considered in any danger.

Samuel Kelly, Jr., shot by Herbert Eaton, on Tuesday night, died this evening. He refused to make any statement regarding the affair.

Soon after Kelly's death Eaton disappeared. A warrant was issued on Thursday night for his arrest and a posse of police went to his summer residence where through search was made but Eaton could not be found. A woman who was living at the house, a child and man servant, were there. The coroner has summoned a jury and they have held two sessions and adjourned until to-morrow. Kelly's funeral will take place on Sunday. He leaves a widow and daughter. The wound of Joseph Eaton is not dangerous. Accused has always had on abundance of money, enabling him to indulge in any taste or fancy. He drove the fastest horses his money could buy. He has had for some years an elegant summer residence on the river, seven miles below Calais. Here he entertained his friends in sumptuous style, and always kept a large force of servants who were usually dressed in uniform on special occasions. Eaton delighted in surprising his guests by dressing his servants in elaborate costumes representing the various Asiatic nations.

TRURO, N. S., March 29.—Eaton, the Calais homicide, supposed to be fleeing from justice, shot himself on the Quebec train yesterday between Truro and Amherst, evidently intending to commit suicide. He was brought to Truro and taken to the Prince of Wales Hotel, where he was attended by Drs. Muir and McKay. He had shot himself in the head five times. All the bullets have been extracted except one, which lodged in the head back of the left ear. This is a very serious wound. The other wounds are not very bad ones. He was arrested last night, and as soon as he is sufficiently recovered to be moved will be taken back to Calais to stand his trial. The poor fellow feels his position very keenly, and says he had no motive for shooting either his brother or Kelly. He admits that he was under the influence of liquor at the time and did not know what he was doing.

Eaton, it is said, passed through St. John a few days ago without falling into the hands of the detectives of that city, and after reaching Moncton took a train for the North, getting off at River du Loup, and there purchasing the revolver with which he attempted to kill himself. Detective Power, by whom he was arrested at Truro, arrived back at Halifax last night, having left the prisoner in charge of Truro officers. The friend accompanying Eaton, thought to be a second man who assisted in bailing him at Calais, resisted the entrance of the detective to Eaton's apartments to effect his arrest, threatening to shoot if an attempt was made to burst the doors. A magistrate was procured and the man was finally induced to allow Mr. Power to enter. Two of Eaton's brothers are expected to arrive at Truro to-day and an officer is expected to leave Calais for there this morning to take the prisoner back. Eaton appears willing to return home, and it is expected extradition papers will not be necessary.

Newspapers in 1883.

From the new edition of Messrs. Geo. P. Rowell & Co's American Newspaper Directory, which is now in press, it appears that the total number of newspapers and periodicals of all kinds issued in Canada is 596. There are no less than 74 daily papers, while the monthlies number 57. The weekly papers number 423. This is an excellent showing for the Dominion, though it cannot of course equal the United States and Territories, in which the journals and periodicals of all kinds now reach the imposing total of 11,196. This is an increase of 585 in twelve months. Taking the States one by one, the newspaper growth in some is very considerable. The present total in New York State, for instance, is 1,399—a gain of 80 in the past year. The most remarkable change has occurred in the Territories, in which the daily papers have grown from 43 to 63, and the weeklies from 196 to 243—Dakota being the chief area of activity. The number of monthlies throughout the United States grew from 976 to 1,034, while the dailies leaped from 996 to 1,062. Referring to our own journalistic growth, it is interesting to note that the newly-settled regions of our Canadian North-West are productive of newspapers as well as of wheat, for the number of journals issued in Manitoba was nearly doubled during the year.

Ex-Sergeant John A. Mason, of Battery B, Second United States artillery, now confined in the Albany Penitentiary, has just served one year of the eight he was sentenced to suffer for an alleged assault with intent to kill Guiteau, the assassin of President Garfield. Nine hundred thousand citizens of the United States have petitioned the President to pardon Mason, and it is said that if three times that number had asked for his pardon on the grounds almost invariably set forth in the words of the petition, no more attention would have been given the appeal of 3,000,000 than has been given to the request of nearly one million petitioners. The last batch of signatures was sent by the Garfield Club, of New York, in December last, and numbered 175,000 names.
