A SAD AFFLICTION. - The obituary list in to-day's News records a very sad as well as very singular case of affliction. On the 21st inst., Mr. Frank N. Beattie, of this city, employed in Jardine & Co.'s grocery store, learned that his brother John B. Beattie had died from consumption of the lungs at Newcastle, where his parents reside, after a long and painful illness. To day the intelligence reached him from S . Johns, Fiorida, that another brother, Wm. H. B. attie, had died there on the 21st-the same of as his brother at Newcastle-of committion, on account of which complaint he had gone to Fiorida last November. The double affliction is indeed a sad one to the pa ents and friends of the family. Capt. Beattie and family formerly lived at Fredericton.-News of 29th ult.
