Mile. LeGrand as Camille.

Mile, Engenie Le Grand, the young French actress, who was so favorably reei.ed at the Park Theatre in the early part of the past summer, began a brief ngagement at the Windsor last evening efore a very large audience. She appeared as Camille in an excellent En 1 sh veron of Dumas' well-known "Dame aux Camelias," and met with marked success. Her interpretation of this role has been so recently commented upon in these columns hat it is only necessary at this time p ak of it in general terms. It is wellsons dered and intelligent, finished and raceful, and proves the lady to be possessed of no little emotional power. She had the sympathy of her auditors from he first, and her efforts were rewarded with liberal applause and several calls before the curtain. She was presented with a beautiful floral design at the end of the fourth act .-- Boston Herald, Dec. 12,

The Montreal Star says-"The role of Pauline in the "Lady of Lyons" does not afford Mile. Legrand as good an opportunity for the display of her talents as that of Camille, yet her interpretation of the heroine last evening at the Windsor Theatre was artistic and pleasingly tender al took place at the Butibogue Church in the love passages, while in the more passionate scenes she displayed her powlargely attended by representative men er and magnetism very effectively, being of all classes in the community. AN EXHIBITION TO BE HELD AT NEWCASTLE ON 28TH INST.

The Directors of Northumberland Agri cultural Society met at the Waverley Hotel, Newcastle, on Tuesday afternoon. The President, B. Stapledon, E.q., occupied the chair and among the other mem hers present were the Vice President, ohn O'B ien, Esq., of Nelson; the second Vice President, Jas. Fish, E.q., of Newcastle: the Treasurer, John Gailoway, E q of Napan; the Secretary, D. T. Johnstone. E.q., of Chatham and Messrs. John Johnstone, Wm. Martin and Wm. Searle, of Napan; Dr. Baxter and D. G. Smith, of Chatham; Wm. C. Stothart, Moorfields: Wm. Falconer, Senr., of Newcastle and John Baldwin of Douglastield.

The object of the meeting was to consider the matter of holding an exhibition of Grains, Dairy Produce and Domestic Manufactures during the present month and it was decided that such exhibition take place at Newcastle on the last Thurs' any (28th) of the present month.

The duty of preparing a suitable premium list was entrusted to a committee consisting of Messrs, Wm. Martin. Wm Searle, Jas. Fish, John Baldwin and

Dr. H. A. Fish and Messrs. Wm. Fal coner, Senr. and John O'Brien were choser, as a committee to procure a prope place in which to hold the exhibition and make other necessary arrangements there-

There was some discussion as to whether premiums should include the price of prize exhibits or not. It was held by few that they should, but the majority was decidedly in tayor of allowing all exhibitors the privilege of selling or retaining their exhibits as they, themselves, might determine and it was so determined. The list of premiums will be prepared next week and will include prizes for Grain. Dairy Produce and Domestic Manufactures, open to all members of the Society. The members of the Premium Committee, above named, will be glad to receive any suggestions which intending exhibitors may have to offer before Tu s day of next week, when they are to meet and make up the list of priz s. The matter of procuring a Percher n or Clydesdale stock horse was discussed and It is also pro' able that the Directors, at | so favorably entertained that Messrs. J. B. Snowball, Chas. Sargent and John Galloway were appointed to enter into correspondence and make enquiries with a view of the Society investing about $1,000 in a suitable animal. The success of "Victor Hugo" and the fine stock raised and being raised from him has made the Norman-Percheron stock very popular The gas fittings and fixtures are being and a pure blooded animal of that breed

Christmas Decorations St. Peter's, Derby, as usual, wore a very cheerful and festive appearance; although there had not evidently been so much labor bestowed upon the decorations this year as on other occasions, The doors and windows were heavily draped with wreaths of fir, cedar and hemlock. The sanctuary, prayer desk, and lectern were decorated pretty much as usual. The pulpit, in addition to its accustomed wreaths, bore on its arched panels St. George's crosses in gold bordered with dark brown, with a white centre displayng in scarlet the monogram for Christ Jesus, viz, -- X P. and I. H. S. At the back of the altar a large reredos was displayed—the most prominent feature of the decorations. Across the top was the inscription " Light of Light" in large blue and scarlet Gothic letters. The lower part was qually divided into three panels separated by ight violet borders. The central panel bore the sacred mono. gram in blue and scarlet, surmounted by golden crown edged with scarlet. At the bottom of the panel was a trefoliated St. George's cross. The lateral panels bore each a star in gold bordered with dark brown, having, as it were, flames of fire is-uing from the centre. Around them were the legends-" A star out of Jacob," and "Bright and Morning Star. ground of light marble.

ow, "Alleluia," in white antique letters | run. on a scarlet ground bordered with a heavy chancel bore 'God manifest in the Flesh.' over the doors to the right and left of this, "Immanuel" and "Glory to God." ST. ANDREW'S, NEWCASTLE.

The Advocate says, - The decorations in tis Church are very good and effective, und reflect great credit upon the ladies and entlemen who so willingly took them in hand. No one, on entering the church, e u!d fail being struck with the general b ight and cheerful appearance of the sacred structure. Soldom, perhaps, has the taste of the congregation been shown to better advantage. As usual, especial pains have been taken with the chancel which looks exceedingly wel'-especially when the church is lighted np-from the further end of the nave. On the East wall-resting immediately upon the Super Altar-is a beautiful and striking Reredos. It is divided into three panels by means of hemlock trimming, each division tapering up into a point -the two side divisions being of blue with a double triangle of white in the middle -the middle one being of red having upon it a most exquisitely shaped I. H. S. in white. The triangles formed on the top are respective. The fact that Skip DesBrisay's rink ly of white and blue-relieved by gold turned the tables so completely against the and scarlet stars. On each side of the be the least like y of any in play to come Over the East window is a heavy wreath, and the candle standads, and other furni-

The rood or chancel screen has had a great amount of pains expended upon it and nothing can exceed the artistic taste displayed upon its decoration. It has a most striking effect from the body of the church. All the different divisions have a double trimming of very fine hemlock upon a scarlet foun lation, relieved at intervals with whit everlastings, while the three several arches into which it is divided bear the text, of white lettering upon a scarlet foundation-"He came not to do His own will, but the will of Him that sent Him." The whole is surmounted by a handsome cross made of hemlock, encircled by a crown of white everlastings. Suspended from the chancel arch is a heavy wreath festooned off to the sides of the church, while around the arch itself is the text, in green lettering on a white ground, with a bordering of green-"The word was made Flesh-and dwelt among us " In either side of the arch are two -hields of scarlet and blue respectively. The Lectern displayed a circle of most exqu site flowers imported for the occasion, with a wreath of smilax festooned round the stem, and was much admired. floral cross is set in the alcove behind the Pulpit, conspicuous amongst its flowers being a beautiful Calla Lily. All the win dows are wreathed in green, and around the whole nave of the church in six divis ions in letters of scarlet upon a white foundation, with a green bordering, is the text-"Unto you is born-Th s day-In the City of David-A Saviour-Which is -Christ the Lord." The window sills are covered with moss, and upon the moss white letters are placed forming the text -"Thou art the King of glory, O Christ."

On the front of the Organ is the verse-"Glory to God in the Highest." Under the West window are the words, in gold lettering on a red ground, "Emmanuel. God with us. Heavy wreaths are suspended from the principal rafters and festooned to the sides of the church, and finished off at the corbels with circles of green. -Various double triangles are tastefully placed at intervals throughout the Church Great pains have also been expended in the decorating of the Font,-being the first object to catch the eye on entering the church. It is surmounted by a cover conical in form, resting on a foundation shaped to fit the Font in eight divisions. each of these panels having a background of red with green sacred emblem in the centre of silver. The whole is crowned with a beautiful cross covered with gold paper, and wreathed with a slight circle of green. White everlasting flowers are tastefully placed here and here to relieve the evergreen trimming. The whole has a very fine eff. ct. The first of the Chris'mas services was held on Sunday evening at 6 30 p. m., -the morning service of that day having been held in the School Huse. There was a large congregation and the Rector, taking for his text-"Re joice in the Lord alway, and again I say rejoice," pointed out to the congregation what should be the nature of their rejoicings on the Feast of the Lord's Nativity. The hymn, "While Shepherds watched their flocks by night," was sung at the COAL HODS close of the service. Three services were held on the day itself. The first at eight in the morning consisting of a celebration of the Holy Communion-and was partly choral the Kyrie, the Sanctus and Gloria in Excelsis being sung, beside a hymn after the consecration. There was a large number of communicants. The second service was at 11 a. m., when the seating capacity of the building was tested to its greatest extent. The Rector again preach d from the words (Isaiah XL., 9)-"Behold your Go i." A second celebration followed and was largely attendedfifty-two having made their communion throughout the day. The third service was at 3 p. m., consisting of evening and appropriate hymns. The Christmas offertory was a large one, and worthy of the congregation. The singing throughout the day was remarkably good, -all the services being rendered in a very hearty In detail the music was as fol-MORNING. Hymn 61, A & M. Hymn 59. A & M. Venite-Gregorian Te Deum, Stephens. H. mu 62, A. & m. Sar etus. Benedictus, Greg'n. Hymu 313 A.& M. Hymn 60 A. & M. Gloria in Excelsis.
