NORWEGIAN BARQUE, "HITTERO." In reply to a letter written by Mr. Snowball, of Chatham, to the Meat Cove Operator, in reference to the lumber-laden vessel wrecked there, the Operator, who appears to have taken a great deal of Hiramichi and the North trouble in ascertaining all available facts, has sent the following letter, which reached Mr. Snowball yesterday.-

COVE, CAPE NORTH, C. B., Nov. 27th.

J. B. Snowball. Esq., Chatham, N. B. Dear Sir,—In reply to yours of 20th inst., referring to the wreck here, I beg to say, the deals are all spruce. They are marked "J. B. S." with red paint and the letters are an inch and a quarter long. I saw one plank marked.

I could find no other widths There was no other lumber of any kind to be seen among the wreekage. I found two letters of the ship's name among the plank-an H and a T on two separate bieces of board.

Hoping you will find the above satisfac-

The Loss of the Minnie Gordon. CAPT. MCILGORM SUSPENDED FOR ONE

At 12 o'clock on monday Capt. Scott, Marine Court Commissioner, delivered judgment as follows in the case of the barque "Minnie Gordon":-

In obedience to an Order in Council directing the undersigned to hold a Court to investigate the circumstances which led to the stranding of the barque "Minnie Gordon" on the North Point of Prince Edward Island, a Court was convened on the 30th of November and sat all that day and part of the next.

In this investigation I have been assisted by two old and experienced shipmasters, Capt. Joseph Prichard, of the Board of Examiners of Masters and Mates, and Capt. William C. Robinson, holding a Canadian Master's certificate of competency, No. 566.

DURABILITY OF TIMBER. -Beneath the foundation of Savoy Place, London, oak elm, beech, and chestnut piles and planks were found in a state of perfect preservation, after having been there for 650 years. While taking down the old walls of Tunbridge Castle, Kent, there was found in the middle of a thick stone wall, a timber curve, which had been enclosed for 700 years. Some timber of an old bridge was discovered while digging for the foundations of a house at Ditton Park. Windsor which ancient records incline us to believe were placed there prior to the year 1306. The durability of timber out of ground is even greater still. The roof of the basilica of St. Paul. at Rome, was framed in the year 818; and now, after more than a thousand years, it is still sound, as the original cypresswood doors of the same building, after being in use more than 600 years, were, when replaced by others .- Timber Trades Jour-

An Awkward Kind of Boarder.

Mr. Editor,-No little surprise wa occasioned on Wednesday last among certain ladies and gentlemen to find a report in the World detailing portions of conversations which were carried on in a certain Chatham hotel, to which some outrageous additions were made, the whole appearing as an editorial in that paper. It seems to me that it is a vulgar abuse of social decency for any man to make public use of conversations which he may hear and which, if he were capable of understanding the commonest courtesies of life, he ought to know were private. The facthat a man has charge of a paper ought not to excuse him for doing what would make An encouraging feature in connection any other man deserve to have his nose pulled, and were it not that there are some men who are so thoroughly contemptible that their very appearance almost disarms even contempt, I, for one, would like to on the "Penny Reading" idea, but as they | see the offender in question kicked for his are taking a wider and more popular vulgarity and meanness in retailing the conversations of his fellow-boarders. with the popular demand, and it is prob. In referring to the ADVANCE I fail to notice much news from this locality and trust it will not be out of place to send you a few items. -

There was considerable interest manifested in the election for Councillors for he Parish of Ludlow, owing to the number of candidates in the field, and the great interest the different parties took procuring votes for their favorites. Before the poll was declared opened Councillor Cameron, in a very eloquent speech in his own behalf, tried to exonerate himself from all blame in securing the reduction of the Co. tax of a certain estate at the last January sitting of the Co. Council: however his explanations were rather too thin to go down with the ratepayers present who knew the whole circumstance. and who, in casting their ballots, left Mr.

Cameron a defeated candidate The crops here this season have been over the average, except oats, which did not turn out, in bushels, as was expected, but in weight excelled any previous years the lowest weight per bush, being 36 lbs... and the highest, 44 lbs. Lumbering is on the decrease here this season and what is being done is carried on in a very unsatisfactory manner. The cut will not be over one half of that of Government in consequence of the ten years' lease of timber land, as it creates monopoly to large operators and capitalists and gives the small operator no chance whatever. [See editorial note.] Mr. David Stewart of this Parish has been very unfortunate in having his house destroyed by fire on Friday night of last week. He had just completedhis new ouse and intended moving into it on Mon. day when this unfortunate occurrence took place. He lost everything he had and the inmates of the house hardly escaped with their lives, he is now left in very destitute circumstances.

The last Gazette contains notice of the appointment of Moses A. Davidson, of Pleasant Ridge, as Justice of the Peace. A more fitting or necessary appointment could not have been made.

I forgot to mention the names of the candidates and the number of votes polled at the Councillors' election. The candidates were K. Cameron, J. Campbell, J. S. Pond and Abel R. Pond. The voting was as follows. -

PLEASANT WORM SYRUP.

The most eminent Physicians are agreed that about Fifty per cent of all Children die before reaching the tenth year of life. Many children suffer from day to day-fretful, cross and peevish—and the cause of the trouble is not suspected.

A pallid and sickly countenance, irregularity of appetite, or great vorocity, bad breath, foul tongre, great thirst. gradual emaciation, irritable emper, disposition to be picking the nose, are all ymptoms indicating the presence of WORMS: If any of these symptoms are noticed, or the presence of worms suspected, procure a bottle of Pleasant Worm Syrup, which costs but 25 ets, and give it according to directions. If any worms are present they will soon be expelled and your darling restored to health again. If there are no worms present the remedy will do no harm, but will move the bowels gently and leave the system in a healthy condition.

PLEASANT WORM SYRUP requires no castor oil other purgative medicine with it.
