Spoopendyke.

HE DICTATES A LETTER TO SPECKLEWOTTLE.

'Now, my dear,' said Mr. Spoopendyke, when his wife had propped him up in bed and stuffed some extra pillows under his shoulders; 'now, my dear, take your pen and ink and I will dictate a letter to Specklewottle. If you will play amanuensis I don't see why I can't be sick just as well as not.'

Mrs. Spookendyke sputtered around and arranged her writing materials. 'Shall I write on a card with a gilt edge or shall I take notepaper?' she asked.

'You'd better use paper,' replied Mr. Spoopendyke, severely. 'When I want to convey my ideas on a shingle, I'll carve 'em in with a knife. Now get ready, for I'm going to start, and don't you interrupt me or you will put me out.'

'All ready, dear,' murmured Mrs. Spoopendyke, dipping her pen into the ink and contemplating her husband seriously.

'Mr. Peter B. Specklewottle,' commenced Mr. Spoopendyke.

'Is his middle name 'B?' asked Mrs. Spoopendyke, resting her elbow on the table, her head on her hand, and testing her pen on the blotter. 'I don't think I like the name, anyway. Peter isn't nice.'

'If any other name occurs to you, put it in," observed Mr. Spoopendyke, with a growl. 'You don't need to have a man's right name in a letter. Put in anything and hurry up, will you? Going to keep me in suspense all day about who this letter is going to?'

Mrs. Spoopendyke plunged into her work and wrote hurriedly for a moment. 'Now, I've got him in, dear.'

'Got who in? Anybody I know? Am I dictating a private letter to a stranger? Got some particular friend you want this note to go to unknown to me? Who's in there? I'm going to know who's at the top before I put my name at the bottom.'

'Why, Mr. Specklewottle, of course,' said she, looking at him with wide open eyes. 'That's what you said. Now go on with the rest.'

'Have you got the date and 'dear sir' in, too?' asked Mr. Spoopendyke, peevishly, for he was trying to think how he should start his letter.

'No dear, you didn't say anything about those,' replied his wife. 'You only said the name, but I'll put the others in.'

'Will, will ye?' croaked Mr. Spoopendyke. 'Sticking on a great deal of credit to yourself for your kindness to the sick, ain't ye? Willing to yield your own preferences in favor of your suffering husband? Well, you can't fool me that much. Don't put 'em in; hear me?'

'But I've got 'em in,' pleaded Mrs. Spoopendyke.

'Then, strike 'em out!' roared her husband. 'S'pose I'm going to let you put those things in and throw 'em up in my face from the moment I get well till the day I die? Scratch 'em out, I tell ye! I don't propose to have my life made miserable by reminders of your kindness when I was fishing around in the grave with one leg! Now, what have you got?'

'Peter B. Specklewottle,' said Mrs. Spoopendyke, mentally satisfied there could be no mistake in that.

'Anything to show whether he's a man or a woman?' demanded Mr. Spoopendyke. 'Any 'Mrs.' or 'Esq.' hanging to it anywhere?'

'Certainly,' replied Mrs. Spoopendyke. 'It says 'Mr. Peter B. Specklewottle.' That's the way you told me to write it, didn't you? Now, go on with the letter.'

'Then put: 'I am dying, and I wish you——'

'Great gracious!' ejaculated Mrs. Spoopendyke, dropping her pen. 'You are not dying, dear; you don't want the man to think of that!'

'Why not?' squealed Mr. Spoopendyke. 'S'pose a man is going fourteen blocks out of his way to get the mail for a man who has only a cold in his head? You put it that I'm dying, or I'll drop over into that corner and write the whole letter with one application of the inkstand.'

'Go on, dear,' cooed Mrs. Spoopendyke, 'I've got it so; only he may think it strange that a dying man should write to him.'

'Then say, 'I want you to get my mail from the office, and tell them I will be over in a day or two.' Got that?'

'Yes,' giggled Mrs. Spoopendyke. 'Anything else?'

'What're you laughing at?' howled Mr. Spoopendyke, on whom the incongruities of his letter had begun to dawn. 'What have you got that measly mouth of yours stretched out like a dodgasted grave yard for?' Think I'm dictating a comic almanac? Got a notion that this is some kind of a rebus? Well, it ain't, and it ain't a minstrel entertainment with a funny man at each end! What're you laughing at? Anybody in this country know?'

'I wasn't laughing, dear,' murmured Mrs. Spooyendyke with a marvelously straight face. 'I was only sympathizing with you.'

'Was, eh?' grunted Mr. Syoopendyke. 'Well, when it takes the form of a visage like you screwed up a minute ago, I want to be hung, instead of being sympathized with. Another time you open your mouth like that, I'm going to put seats in it and start a church.'

And contemplating on this vast improvement of his wife's anatomy, Mr. Spoopendyke forgetting all about his letter, rolled over and went to sleep.

General Notes and News.

A remarkable case of insomnia—ninety days without sleep—is reported from Wheeling, W. Va.

Profitable investment. One dollar's worth of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders fed to a coop of thirty hens will yield a profit of three dollars, besides preventing all manner of diseases. Be sure to get Sheridan's. The large packs are worthless.

A Bad Case of Starvation.

To starve the lungs by a lack of vital food contained in pure air. If the lungs are obstructed by colds, remove the accumulated phlegm with that safe and pleasant throat and lung remedy, Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam.

A man just released from a Western penitentiary denounces another in St. Louis as a murderer and claims he went to prison for money to save the accused.

H. F. MacCarthy, Wholesale and Retail Druggist, Ottawa, writes: "I was afflicted with Chronic Bronchitis for some years, but have been completely cured by the use of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil in doses of five drops on sugar. I have also pleasure in recommending it as an embrocation for external use."

Ill-fitting boots and shoes cause corns. Holloway's Corn Cure is the article to use.

Danger Signals.

Reader, if you are troubled with pain, weakness, weariness and a dragging feeling in the small of the back with thick—high colored—slimy urine, then you have alarming signals of danger, and should resort to Burdock Blood Bitters, the grand kidney regulator and blood and liver cleansing tonic.

The English are preparing for an Egyptian campaign in the autumn; meantime it is probable that a conference of the European Powers on Egyptian finance may be held.

Mrs. D. Morrison, Farnham Centre, P. Q., writing about Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, says: George Bell used it on his son, and it cured him of rheumatism with only a few applications. The balance of the bottle was used by an old gentleman for Asthma, with the best results. It acts like a charm."

It Is Natural.

It is natural for some people to be bilious, being often a result of peculiar bilious temperament, which with high living, too greasy food, indigestion from inactive liver, is the frequent cause. The remedy, above all others, is Burdock Blood Bitters. It is highly curative for all biliary complaints, and far better than physic for inactive condition of the bowels.

Before the Natural History Society, St. John, on Tuesday, evening of last week Mr. M. Chamberlain delivered an admirable lecture on "Our Winter Birds." His descriptions were well written and showed him to be well acquainted with the habits of our native birds.

COLORLESS AND COLD.—A young girl deeply regretted that she was so colorless and cold. Her face was too white, and her hands and feet felt as though the blood did not circulate. After one bottle of Hop Bitters had been taken she was the rosiest and healthiest girl in the town, with a vivacity and cheerfulness of mind gratifying to her friends.

A Handy Surgeon.

As a dressing for all manner of flesh wounds there is nothing better than Hagyard's Yellow Oil. It cleanses, allays pain, subdues inflammation and heals without a scar or stiffness of the parts injured. It is equally valuable as a pain remedy for internal use.

At the annual banquet of the Iroquois Political Club, at Chicago, last week, a letter was read from ex-Governor Samuel J. Tilden in which he practically declared his intention to refrain from political leadership. This was accepted as a declination to become a candidate for the Presidency.

WEIGHED IN THE BALANCE, but not found wanting. Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure has been weighed in that just balance, the experience of an impartial and intelligent public. Both remedially and pecuniarily it is a success. Its sales constantly increase, testimony in its favour is daily pouring in. The question of its efficacy in Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Kidney Ailments, and for Blood Impurity, is decided.

Professor: "Gentlemen will please close their books."

After the lapse of a few moments observing that his polite commamd has not been obeyed by certain juniors on the back row, he adds:

"Those who are not gentlemen will please close their books."

A life saved for thirty-five cents! A lady in Boston had diphtheria and was almost dead from strangulation, but was instantly relieved and finally cured by Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. Every family should have a bottle ready for instant use.

Loss and Gain.

CHAPTER I.

"I was taken sick a year ago
With bilious fever,"

"My doctor pronounced me cured, but I got sick again, with terrible pains in my back and sides, and I got so bad I
Could not move!
I shrunk!
From 228 lbs. to 120! I have been doctoring for my liver, but it did me no good. I did not expect to live more than three months. I began to use Hop Bitters. Directly my appetite returned, my pains left me, my entire system seemed renewed as if by magic, and after using several bottles I am not only as sound as a sovereign but weigh more than I did before. To Hop Bitters I owe my life."

Dublin, June 6, '81. R. FITZPATRICK.

HOW TO GET SICK.—Expose yourself day and night; eat too much without exercise; work too hard without rest; doctor all the time; take all the vile nostrums advertised, and then you will want to know how to get well, which is answered in three words—Take Hop Bitters!

Late advices from Shanghai indicate that the Chinese Government is greatly exercised at the recent successes of the French in Tonquin, and persons in any way responsible for the reverses are being degraded and punished. Active measures are being taken to prevent a further loss of prestige. A general levy of men for the Chinese army have been ordered, and affairs at Pekin are represented to be in an extremely critical condition, as administrative changes of great importance are imminent.

I had severe attacks of gravel and kidney trouble; was unable to get a medicine or doctor to cure me until I used Hop Bitters, and they cured me in a short time.—A DISTINGUISHED LAWYER OF WAYNE CO., N. Y.

What! Never! No! Never.

It never fails that on the second Tuesday of each month the Great Drawing of The Louisiana State Lottery occurs with regularity and unimpeached honesty at New Orleans. The 166th took place on March 11th, last, and Gen'ls G. T. Beauregard, of La., and Jubal A. Early, of Va., sent to the destined parties large fortunes and small sums thus: ticket No 14,467 drew the first capital, $75,000, which had been sold in fractions, one-fifth of which was held by G. Goldsmith, a well-known Jewish merchant of Columbus, Miss., collected through the Columbus Insurance and Banking Co. of Miss., another fifth, costing also $1, to Henry Rivers, a well known citizen of Milwaukee, Wis., collected through the Marine and Fire Ins. Co., Bank of Milwaukee. No. 6,998 drew the second capital prize, $25,000, sold also in fifths at $1 each; James Wentzel, Port Carbon, Schuylkill Co., Pa., drew one piece, and C. M. McCormick, Charleston, Ark., were among the fortunate ones. Ticket No. 1,282 drew the whole third capital prize of $10,000 for $5, went to J. Kraimer, San Francisco, Cal. The next drawing takes place on Tuesday, May 13th, and M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., will give all information desired if applied to.

Every Spring.

HOW AN AFFLICTING ANNUAL VISITOR WAS DRIVEN FROM A WEARY WOMAN.

Plain and simple mechanics are not liable to get out of order. Complicated watches, intended not only to keep the time of day, but to mark the movements of the moon and stars, are certain to need frequent repairs. Husbands and fathers often fail to see that their wives and daughters are more delicately organized than themselves, requiring corresponding care when they are well and assistance when they are ill. Yet much better for woman's fine system is a trustworthy medicine, ready at all times for use, than a deal of tinkering by semi-educated local practitioners.

"Every spring," said the wife a well known employee of the Grand Trunk Railway, Montreal, "I have been for some years past troubled with nervous debility and weakness. It was the burden which so many women are called upon to bear, although none the lighter for that.

"Advice and dosing, to be sure, I had in plenty; still, on each returning spring my sickness came as regularly as the buds and blossoms.

"You seem better now."

"Oh yes; I consider myself almost or quite well, and it came about in thisway. A lady living on St. Catherine street this city, commended to my attention Sulphur and Iron Bitters. It gave me strength and life. My sister, living in Brockville, whose disease was nearly the same as mine, was equally benefitted by the same thing."

PLEASANT WORM SYRUP.

The most eminent Physicians are agreed that about Fifty per cent of all Children die before reaching the tenth year of life. Many children suffer from day to day—fretful, cross and peevish—and the cause of the trouble is not suspected.

A pallid and sickly countenance, irregularity of appetite, or great voracity, bad breath, foul tongue, great thirst, gradual emaciation, irritable temper, disposition to be picking the nose, are all symptoms indicating the presence of WORMS! If any of these symptoms are noticed, or the presence of worms suspected, procure a bottle of Pleasant Worm Syrup, which costs but 25 cts, and give it according to directions. If any worms are present they will soon be expelled and your darling restored to health again. If there are no worms present the remedy will do no harm, but will move the bowels gently and leave the system in a healthy condition.

PLEASANT WORM SYRUP requires no castor oil or other purgative medicine with it.

The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. READ PROOF BELOW.

Saved Him 1,800 Dollars!

ADAMS, N. Y., Jan. 30, 1882.

DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Gents: Having used a good deal of your Kendall's Spavin Cure with great success, I thought I would let you know what it has done for me. Two years ago I had as speedy a colt as was ever raised in Jefferson County. When I was breaking him, he kicked over the cross bar and got fast and tore one of his hind legs all to pieces. I employed the best farriers, but they all said he was spoiled. He had a very large thorough-pin, and I used two bottles of your Kendall's Spavin Cure, and it took the bunch entirely of, and he sold afterwards for $1800 (dollars.) I have used it for bone spavins and wind galls, and it has always cured completely and left the leg smooth.

It is a splendid medicine for rheumatism. I have recommended it to a good many, and they all say it does the work. I was in Witherington & Kneeland's drug store, in Adams, the other day and saw a very fine picture you sent them. I tried to buy it, but could not; they said if I would write to you that you would send me one. I wish you would, and I will do you all the good I can.

Very respectfully, E. S LYMAN.

From the Akron Commercial, Ohio, of Nov. 25th, 1882.

Readers of the Commercial can not well forge that a large space has for years been taken up by Kendall's advertisements—especially of a certain Spavin Cure. We have had dealings with Dr. Kendall for many years, and we know of some large business houses in cities near by who have also dealt with him for many years, and the truth is fully and faithfully proven, not only that he is a good honest man, and that his celebrated Spavin Cure is not only all that it is recommended to be, but that the English Language is not capable of recommending it too highly.

Kendall's Spavin Cure will cure spavins There are hundreds of cases in which that has been proven to our certain knowledge, but, after all, if any person confines the usefulness of this celebrated medicine to curing spavins alone, they make a big mistake. It is the best medicine known as an outward application for rheumatism in the human family. It is good for pains and aches, swellings, lameness, and is just as safely applied to men, women and children as it is to horses. We know that there are other good liniments, but we do believe this spavin cure to be far better than any ever invented.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

Hutchinson's Ranch, 12 miles north of Denver, Col. Mar. 5th, 1883.

DR. B. J. KENDALL, & Co., Gents:—For the past three years I have used Kendall's Spavin Cure. In every case of spavin, of which I have treated five, t has killed them all, and entirely removed three. In case of splint I find it has no equal, one case I had was of three years standing and the Spavin Cure removed it entirely. I had a cow get spavined and it entirely cured her. One year ago a two hundred pound block of ice fell out of a wagon striking my foot on instep and toes, it would be impossible to mash a foot worse without breaking any bones. I was taken home and carried into the house. I do not think amputation of the leg would cause any more pain. I sent for Kendall's Spavin Cure, it was all I used, and in six days I could walk around. About three weeks ago my team ran away and threw me out of the wagon, the hind wheel struck my knee. After applying several highly recommended liniments without obtaining any relief, I went for Kendall's Spavin Cure. My leg was drawn up and my knee swollen badly. In three days I was able to walk to the barn. I could go into details more fully and make this a very long letter, but will not weary you.

I am very respectfully yours,
OSCAR F. HUTCHINSON.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

Santa Rosa, Cal., Feb. 9th, 1883.

B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—I feel it a duty to others suffering with the piles and falling of the rectum to write you. I have had the piles and prolapsus of the rectum for five years, for the past three years I have suffered the most agonizing pain. Tried everything without relief, but after ten days use of Kendall's Spavin Cure I have not seen nor heard of the piles since. One who has not suffered as I have cannot comprehend the great joy that I feel at being cured of a disease almost worse than death. I had a valuable young horse that had a large bunch gather on his breast bone. I tried all kinds of liniments and had it cut open without any benefit. Saw your advertisement and bought a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and ordered my teamster to use as directed. In less than one week the lump had disappeared. Thinking that a liniment that would do what Kendall's Spavin Cure has done for my horse might benefit more. I tried it as a last resort.

With gratitude and best wishes for your success, I am faithfully yours, J. H. GLENN.
