MAP AGENTS wanted; see advt. FOR THE LADIES.—Mr. B. Fairie's new advertisement.

EX NEW BRUNSWICKER's letter is held over until next week.

NAPAN BRIDGE contract has been secured by Mr. Jas Carter at $325.

MR. RUBENSTEIN is to skate at the Newcastle rink to-morrow, Friday evening.

AN ATTRACTIVE entertainment is to come off in the Johnstone School House, Napan, on next Tuesday evening.

The World says the ice at the Chatham Rink was "black with people" last Saturday night. It wasn't. The people were all white.

FANCY SKATING in its perfection, by Mr. Rubenstein, will be seen at the Newcastle rink on Friday evening and at the Chatham rink on Monday evening.

AT REST.—Mrs. Alex. Marshall, of Chatham, mother of Robert Marshall, Esq., of St. John, died on Tuesday morning at the age of 76. She leaves a large circle of relatives and friends.

STOCK IN TRADE.—Mr. Jas. Fairie, Auctioneer, Newcastle, advertises an auction sale of the stock in trade of the late Mr. Joseph Hays, whose establishments at Newcastle and Napan were so well known. The sale ought to be a great attraction to buyers generally.

PERSONAL.—Arthur Handard, Esq., of Ceylon, formerly of Fredericton, is visiting his relatives—the family of F. E. Winslow, Esq., of the Bank of Montreal—Chatham. He arrived from England by the last English steamer at Halifax.

A SAFE has been placed in the new Inland Revenue office. It is better than none, but could not the Department have given us something better than a second-hand old-fashioned affair? Mr. Jas. Desmond had charge of the work of placing the safe and did it quite successfully.

THE PATRIOTS appeared at the Chatham Skating Rink last Saturday night and there was a large number of spectators to witness their performances. The skating by Axel was not quite so good as that of last year, while that of his brother was the more graceful. Altogether the exhibition was not up to public expectation.

THE LOCK.—A time lock has been placed on the safe of the Bank of Montreal, Chatham. The object of the device is to make it impossible for any person to make it open the safe until a given time after it has been locked. It happens that burglars are daring enough, sometimes, to raid bank buildings and by torturing those who know the lock-combination force them to disclose it and thus secure large amounts of money. The time lock is a perfect security against robbery of this kind, as even the bank manager himself cannot open the safe until the time for which it has been locked has expired.

DR. GAYSON, lately of Portland, St. John, has located for the practice of his profession at Debec. The St. John Globe, speaking of Dr. Gayson in a late issue, calls him a man of solid acquirements. We welcome the Doctor to Carleton County and predict for him a successful career as a physician and a surgeon.—Carleton Standard.

Last week, our man about town who had often been instructed and amused by the Doctor's literary attainments, witty conversation and ringing laugh, felt that he had committed something approaching a misdemeanor when he neglected to congratulate the Doctor and his fair bride. He now hastens to do so, and has no doubt that numbers of persons in this city and its environs will unite with him in wishing the happy couple all the felicity which is said to be attached to the matrimonial life when there are "two souls with but a single thought; two hearts that beat as one."—Freeman.

The management of the Chatham Skating Rink has been so fortunate as to secure a visit from Mr. L. Rubenstein, the champion fancy skater of Canada and the United States, who is to give a competitive exhibition at Chatham on Monday evening next, the prize being a valuable medal. Mr. Rubenstein's grace and skill as a skater are unsurpassed and persons who have witnessed his performances say they are much more attractive than those of the Paulsens, as each figure is different from that preceding it—no two being alike. Our young men, who wish to learn how the figures of fancy skating are done will never, perhaps, have a better opportunity to do so than on Monday evening, and Mr. Rubenstein's practice is to afford young skaters every opportunity to learn from him.

Among the figures skated by Mr. Rubenstein are the following:—Plain Skating.—Forward; backwards; outside edge, forwards, backwards; inside edge, forwards; backwards.

Cross Roll.—Outside edge forward and backward and inside do.

Three.—From outside forwards to inside back; from inside forwards to outside back; from inside back to outside forwards.

Plain eight.—Done with both feet, using each alternately. On outside forwards; on outside backwards; on inside forwards; on inside backwards.

Plain eight.—entirely on one foot. On outside forwards and inside do, also back and inside back.

Double eight and eight with loops, as above.

Double nine.—Ordinary single, do. double scissors do.; single Philadelphia; double do.

Scissors.—Plain and half.

Spins.—On one foot and both feet, outside and inside, forward and back; pyramid spins, cross foot do.

Rocking Turns.—Inside forward to outside back, outside do, outside do; inside back to inside forward, outside do, outside do.

Cross Cut or Anvil.—outside and inside, forward and back.

Plain Figures.—locomotive steps, double forwards and backwards.

Specialties.

There will be races between the fancy skating feats as follows:—Snowshoe race barrel and hurdle do. and backwards race.

Don't forget the date—Monday evening next.

Temperance Entertainment.

The members of the North'd Division, Sons of Temperance, and their invited brethren and ladies of Newcastle, Douglas-town, Nelson and other local centres, enjoyed a very attractive entertainment, in the Chatham Temperance Hall, on Friday evening last. The programme appeared to have been devised with a view of realizing all the enjoyment possible in the time available. It was as follows:—

Chorus.—Choir. Address by Mr. John Galloway. Music.—Orchestra. Reading.—D. P. McLachlan. Music.—Orchestra. Dialogue.—"A Sea of Troubles"—R. Anderson, D. P. McLachlan, Carruthers, Wm. Ellet, Albert Sweeney, Miss C. Nelson, Annie McLean and Annie Polley.

Duet.—Misses M. A. Haviland and C. Strang. Recitation.—Miss Magie Mowat. Music.—Orchestra. Dialogue.—"Love, Purity and Fidelity"—Laura Morrison, Sibla Haviland and Irene Strang. Music.—Orchestra.

Address.—Mr. R. H. Weeks, and Rev. Messrs. Chapman and Waits. Music.—Orchestra. Reading.—M. O. Thompson. Address.—Messrs W. Russell and D. Fairie. Music.—Orchestra.

God Save the Queen. The chair was ably filled by Mr. Geo. Stothart.

The orchestra was composed of Messrs. A. H. Johnson, leader, Albert Patterson, J. Gray, John Johnson, John Templeton, George Johnston, Ernest Haviland and Willie Gray and the music was pronounced the best ever heard at Miramichi on entertainment. Miss Bertie Haviland was organist and it is needless to say that she acquitted herself very creditably indeed. The supper was an excellent one. The Hall decorations reflected great credit on the good taste and industry of the Committee who may take to themselves the credit of having provided a most successful and pleasant fraternal reunion.

field of operations the contest was more exciting. Skip Miller was the only one who saved his side from a total rout, though skips Thompson and Brittain made an even thing of it, so that really the visiting men had only two rinks as winners. The crowd was very large and has scarcely been greater this season at any match. The score is appended:—

Chatham. John Frie, 1. H. DeVeyer, 2. A. Johnston, 3. D. G. Smith, skip, 20. R. Murray, 25. Geo. Watt, 30. E. Hutchinson, skip 19. Thos. Crimmins, 1. W. Gilispie, 2. D. McLaughlin, 3. Jas. Laggie, 4. Alex. Miller, skip, 10. 17. D. Desbray, 1. A. J. Laggie, 2. H. P. Marquis, 3. Geo. Brittain, skip, 20. J. H. Thomson, skip, 30. Totals, 75 57

Eighteen ends were played in the afternoon as in the morning.

DINING THE CHATHAMITES. A dinner was given at the Dufferin, after the morning play, to the Chatham club, the hosts being both local clubs. There was an excellent bill of fare, which the party evidently enjoyed. Mr. Andrew Malcolm, press of the Thistle Club, presided. When the viands had been discussed, Mr. Malcolm offered the first sentiment.—"The Queen, which was received with the usual honors. Mr. A. O. Skinner proposed the health of the Chatham club: Messrs. Hutchinson and Smith made very pleasant responses. Mr. Hutchison gave the toast, St. Andrew's and Thistle clubs, which elicited replies from Mr. S. F. Matthews and Mr. Andrew Malcolm. As the guests had to buckle on the armor again, the event was concluded at an early hour.

The News says,—"The Chatham Curlers defeated the St. Andrews club in the morning and threw in the Thistles for good measure in the afternoon. The visiting team is a very strong one and won the game on its merits. The rinks commanded by skips Johnston and Brittain were considered the strongest of the visiting team, and the programme of the Thistles was to hold their own against them if possible on the Thistle ice, and their conferees on the St. Andrews ice made away with skips Smith and Hutchison.

The first chance in the indictment prevailed; but alas! "the best laid plans of men and mice gang at a gale." Skips Thompson and Miller fought an up hill battle during the afternoon, and finally they collared their adversaries and came out three points ahead in the total. But their spirits fell two flights of stairs below zero, when they heard of the sad fate of their phalanx at the St. Andrews rink. Their grief was too sacred to be laid bare by the remorseless paragrapher and we draw a veil upon the scene.

Skip Smith was fortunate enough to get the biggest end of the day, six points while skip Johnston scored a five ender. Skip Courtney, the hero of Montreal, the great untamed shooter from the sea, had the honor of achieving eleven goose-eggs [thirteen is the correct number—Ed.] in his contest with skip Hutchison. The greatest interest was taken in the match and at the close visitors and vanquished exchanged hearty cheers.

[We may add to the above, on behalf of the Chatham men, the expression of their appreciation of the fair and thoroughly fraternal spirit in which they were met and treated by their opponents of both the St. John clubs; not only so, but the spectators present seemed to enter into the spirit of the players and while they, no doubt, would have preferred victory for the home clubs they showed their appreciation of good play, irrespective of the side it counted in favor of.]

The five skips, a number of sub-skips and other members of the Chatham Club, who did not participate in the matches at St. John, have made up four rinks and challenged the rinks that played at St. John. The odds are in favor of the challenging rinks.

Alnwick Meeting. Mr. Editor.—A notice calling a meeting in Negus was posted up after the stage passed here on Friday, 22nd ult., so that the news would not get to Chatham. The meeting was held on Saturday night, the 23rd. Mr. Adams, M. P. P., attended and abused you and the other Chatham men for coming down to Lower Negus a short time ago. We were, however, patient with him, when we could easily have closed up his mouth, having a large majority at the meeting against him. He was not happy in his speech, for he saw he would not be popular if he spoke against the Valley Railway, so he confined his remarks to matters connected with his political career. While Mr. Adams was speaking some resolutions were passed to the Chairman who read them and "yes," "yes," was repeated ten or a dozen times by three or four friends of Mr. Adams. Several ratepayers asked that a vote be properly taken and the Chairman refused to do so and the meeting broke up in disorder. I believe the resolutions were to the effect that the action of the Alnwick Councillors in voting as they did on the Railway question be approved.

EXTRAVIDES ON NEGUS. [We have also a report of the above meeting from the Chairman, Mr. Vital Allan. It differs in some respects from our correspondent's account of the affair and from accounts we have heard from other reliable persons. We, therefore, do not publish it.—Editor.]

Bay du Vin Entertainment. The fourth Entertainment took place at Bay du Vin on Monday evening, the 25th ult. The storm of Saturday and Sunday kept many away, as the roads were almost impassable, except on snowshoes. One or two teams, however, came down from Black Brook and there was a very fair attendance. The following was the programme:—

1. Instrumental. PART I. 2. Song, "I'm Over Young to Marry Yet," George Williamson. 3. Dialogue, "Lochia's Warning," (in costume) Minna Carmichael and Bessie Carroll. 4. Reading, Miss Bessie Carmichael. 5. Recitation, Minna Carmichael. 6. Round, "How Lovely is the Evening." 7. Dialogue, "No such word as Fall," Joseph Bacon and Wood Willison, Sydney and Miss Bessie Carmichael. 8. Chorus, "The Fox." 9. Tableau, "Cherry-ripe." PART II. 1. Duet, "Jeannette and Jeanot," Minna Carmichael and Bessie Carroll. 2. Dialogue, "Elizabeth's Curses," Minna and Miss Carmichael and Miss Ketchum. 3. Chorus, "Gentle Winds." 4. Reading, Miss Ketchum. 5. Song, "Katie's Letter." 6. Dialogue, "Indignation Meeting," Several little girls. 7. Tableau, "The Sleeping Beauty." 8. Recitation, Rev. W. J. Wilkinson. 9. God Save the Queen.

Between the various parts, Mr. Sydney Carmichael and Miss Carmichael entertained the audience by playing the violin and organ. At the close of the Entertainment Rev. Mr. Wilkinson thanked those who had taken the trouble to attend, notwithstanding the bad roads, and regretted that those who had come from a distance had missed nearly the whole of
