Lawson.

"Who is that sad-looking man whom I saw sitting in the next room, as I came through?" said Mr. Jones to the managing editor.

"That? that is Lawson, our substitute editor."

"What is a-What are the functions of that kind of an editor?" "Why, you know, we employ Lawson to shoulder disagreeable consequences of all kinds. When we 'go for anybody' until outraged nature can no longer stand it, the injured man calls and we show him in and let him kick Lawson."

"But I don't exactly understand how"-"Why, you see, the man comes here and asks to see the managing editor. The boy at the door knows, from the fire in his eye, what he wants, and he turns him into Lawson's room. There is a brief scrimmage and about a quarter of an hour later Lawson saunters in here with his handkerchief to his nose to say that his salary really must b raised. He is a very useful man. By concentrating all the storms on him the regular staff is allowed to have perfect peace and security. He is cowhided once or twice a week, and knocked down even oftener. We have the floor in there padded on purpose to make it as comfortable as possible. He don't mind an ordinary flogging so much, but the man has a strange disinclination to be shot at; possibly because he has three bullets in his legs and a two-ounce slug encysted somewhere in his interior department.

"But Lawson don't mind his ordinary duties as much as you would think We turn in all the bores upon him. He commands a large salary because he deaf as a post, and a bore who would set me crazy leaves him in a position of unruffled calmness. All the poets who come here are sent to his room. One of them'll sit there and read to Lawson a poem in forty-two stanzas, and Lawson'll sit there smiling blandly, just as if he heard it all, and then he'll compliment the writer and bow him and his manuscript out with charming grace and ease. He makes mistakes someman read him a speech which the man paper. Lawson thought it was a poem, and he told the man, in the usual forwas pressing us so just now that we couldn't oblige him, and the man went up the street and published it in the Herald. A dead loss to us of about forty dollars; but Lawson is too valuable to be discharged for a single blunder like that.

"Whenever there's an excursion on a dangerous part of a new railroad, or a trial trip of a steamboat that we are doubtful about, we always send Lawson to represent the staff. He has been blown up twice on the river and has been dropped eight times through a defective trestle-bridge, besides participating in a couple of boiler explosions. He receives all the champion cabbages, gigantic turnips and remarkable eggs that are sent here by subscribers for notice, and he tests all the giant cucum. bers and early watermelons that come in. We could hardly run this office safely if we didn't have Lawson."

"He struck me as looking rather low-spirited."

"So he is. He has naturally strong constitution; but he is gradually have no word to say. Each knews what breaking down under the strain, I am is in the heart of the other; distance canafraid, and is going to die early. It not separate those two. weighs on his mind. He had a terrific fight with an indignant politician last summer just after he had tested a basket of rather unripe cantaleupes, and I here noticed that he has been somewhat gloomy ever since."

Just then the subdued noise of an altercation was heard in the adjoining room; there was a pistol shot and bullet came whizzing through the partition, passing close to Mr. Jones's

"What's that?" asked Jones. "Lawson's having a tussel with Mc-Ilvaine, the Democratic candidate for Common Council. We cut McIlvaine up in to-day's issue. I thought he'd call. Boy !" exclaimed the editor. "run for a policeman!"

Rise and Fall of Judges.

A PRACTICAL JOKE THAT LEADS TO A

TEMPERANCE REVIVAL. Judge William Carter, of Sheboygan, Mich., and Judge Caswell Marks, of remain in Newport until Saturday. Selma, Ala., were both natives of Lexington, Ky. In boyhood they had jammed the same cat's head into the same milk pitcher, stolen peaches from the same tree, got trounced by the same farmers, and were otherwise enviously

Later in life they parted, and rose to sublime honors in their daughters are more delicately organized separate places. Last January they met for the first time since their parting, in Lexington, and brewed a convivial bowl in honor of the event. About midnight full of affection and enthusiasm, they retired in the same bed. It was a huge affair, standing in the middle of the room, and capable of being drawn up by ropes to the ceiling while the room was being cleaned. It was a very cold night, and they placed "Advice and dosing, to be sure, I had their clothing on the foot of the bed.

that his honorable brother was drunk. "Down here. Fell through a trap. Don't get out on my side of the bed." "All right." And Judge Marks, springing out on his own side, turned three somersaults and landed on the small of his back. Both were now convinced they had fallen into a den of thieves and were possibly to be murdered. The jokers had closed the shutters so no light could enter and removed all the furniture. The Judges groped around on hands and knees, nearly frozen to death, and only at daybreak discovered the bed, climbed into it and got warm enough to talk the thing over. There were recently two temperance societies started under glorious auspices. The head-quarters of one is at Selma the other at Sheboygan.

It is the goodbye of victory rather than defeat.

GOOD-BYE.

IT IS AN ADMONITION. The words say plainly to these lovers: Be true," "remember me," "until we meet again." They may not salute each other as even strangers may do at parting. They must be oblivious to the ceremonies of even ordinary friendship. Their love is too new and sacred a thing to be brought out to the public gaze. They can only clasp each other's hands, and look into each other's eyes, and stammer one passionate, regretful, longing good-bye. "But the heart feels most when the lips

BAY-SIDE HOTEL, KENDALL'S THE Proprietor of the above well known House L begs to announce that it will be open during SPAVIN CURE the Summer season of 1884, for Summer Boarders and Tourists.

The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. READ PROOF BELOW.

DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents: Having used a good deal of your Kendall's Spavin Cure with great success, I thought I would let you know what it has done for me. Two years ago I had as speedy a colt as was ever raised in Jeffer-son County. When I was breaking him, he kicked over the cross bar and got fast and tore one of his hind legs all to pieces. I employed the best far-riers, but they all said he was spoiled. He had a very large thorough-pin, and I used two bottles of your Kendall's Spavin Cure, and it took the bunch entirely of, and he sold afterwards for $1800 (dollars.) I have used it for bone spavins and wind galls, and it has always cured completely and left the leg smooth.

It is a splendid medicine for rheumatism. 1 have recommended it to a good many, and they all say it does the work. I was in Witherington & Kneeland's drug store, in Adams, the other day and saw a very fine picture you sent them. I tried to buy it, but could not; they said if I would write to you that you would send me one. I wish you would, and I will do you all the good I can. Very recpectfully, E. S. LYMAN.

From the Akron Commercial, Ohio, of Nov. 25th, 1882. Readers of the Commercial can not well forge that a large space has for years been taken up by Kendall's advertisements—especially of a certain Spavin Cure. We have had dealings with Dr. Ken-dall for many years, and we know of some large business houses in cities near by who have also dealt with him for many years, and the truth is fully and faithfully proven, not only that he is a good honest man, and that his celebrated Spavin Cure is not only all that it is recommended to be. but that the English Language is not capable of re-commending it too highly. Kendall's Spavin Cure will cure spavins. There are hundreds of cases in which that has been proven to our certain knowledge, but, after all, if any person coufines the usefulness of this celebrated medicine to curing spavins alone, they make a big mistake. It is the best medicine known as an outfamily. It is good for pains and aches, swellings, lameness, and is just as safely applied to men, women and children as it is to horses. We know that there are other good liniments, but we do believe this spavin cure to be far better than any ever in-Kendall's Spavin Cure.

DR. B. J. KENDALL, & Co., Gents:—For the past three years I have used Kendall's Spavin Cure. In every case of spavin, of which I have treated five, t has killed them all, and entirely removed three. In case of splint I find it has no equal, one case had was of three years standing and the Spavin Cure removed it entirely. I had a cow get spavined and it entirely cured her. One year ago a two hundred pound block of ice fell out of a wagon striking my foot on instep and toes, it would be mpossible to mash a foot worse without breaking any bones. I was taken home and carried into the house. I do not think amputation of the leg would cause any more pain. I sent for Kendall's Spavin Cure, it was all I used, and in six days I could walk around. About three weeks ago my team ran away and threw me out of the wagon, the hind wheel struck my knee, After applying several highly recommended liniments without obtaining any relief, I went for Kendall's Spavin Cure. My leg was drawn up and my knee swollen badly. three days I was able to walk to the barn. I could go into details more fully and make this a very long letter, but will not weary you I am very respectfully yours, OSCAR F. HUTCHINSON,

P. O. Lock Box, 2362, Denver City, Col. KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE. Santa Rosa, Cal., Feb. 9th, 1883.

B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:-I feel it a duty o others suffering with the piles and falling of the rectum to write you. I have had the piles and prolapsus of the rectum for five years, for the past seen nor heard of the piles since. One who has not suffered as I have cannot comprehend the not suffered as I have cannot comprehend the great joy that I feel at being cured of a disease almost worse than death. I had a valuable young horse that had a large bunch gather on his breast bone. I tried all kinds of liniments and had it cut open without any benefit. Saw your advertisement and bought a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and ordered my teamster to use as directed. In less than one week the lump had disappeared .-Thinking that a liniment that would do what Kendall's Spavin Cure has done for my horse might benefit more. I tried it as a last resort. With gratitude and best wishes for your success,

I am faithfully yours,
