The Stock Farm. The Sun has, apparently, grown ashamed of its position on the Stock Farm question and handed over the work of misrepresenting the subject to some of its "contributors." Its effort of Monday last in reply to our paragraph of last week shows that, like the Telegraph, it is convinced against its will that the joint choice of the Government and Board of Agriculture is right and, as such, meets with the approval of the Province as a whole. If the present farm is a failure and its manager has not had fair play in working it, let the Sun be honest enough to lay the blame where it belongs, viz,--on the shoulders of the late Government, who selected the farm in the face of the Board of Agriculture's protests and who "managed" the manager until the farm, like their own corrupt organiza-of the Murray Farm and the report of the Committee of the Government and Board in reference to it. We are bound to believe that the gentlemen who made the report and those who selected the farm are much more capable of arriving at a right decision of the matter, than the Sun, which is so painfully afflicted with Blair-phobia, or the Telegraph, whose horizon seems to be limited within the boundaries of the aggressive and irrepressible County of Kings. The Sun is good enough to say that the ADVANCE comes to the rescue of Mr. Blair, but, at the time we expressed our views on the subject Mr. Blair was not in all our thoughts. We considered only the question of the Stock Farm-its removal from the place where it has been a failure to a place where the experiment would have the best chances of succeeding. We believed, from the evidence before us that the choice made was a wise one and had Mr. Blair thought differently we would have opposed his views just the same as we have those of the Sun. It is a matter of regret that, in such a matter as this, the Sun is incapable of rising above its local and personal preiudices.

Cape Ray Anchorage and Light.

There are, perhaps, some instances of neglect of duty on the part of Light Keepers along our coasts, and it is important that such neglect, when established by proper evidence, should never be permitted to go unpunished, for th interests involved are far too important to be trifled with. Life and property are always depending on the faithful performance of the Light Keeper's duties, and when he fails in then through carelessness he is a constructive criminal. We are, therefore, glad to publish the letter of the Cape Ray, Nfld. Light Keeper, Mr. Robt. Rennie, who is quite well known to many of our readers, and who was, evidently, wronged by the report of the 1st officer of the American barque Norway. Professional Boat-Racing.

Last year a number of citizens of Newcastle subscribed largely to a fund intended as an inducement to bring a lot of professional oarsmen together on the Miramichi. The regular Miracomparatively small cost, we feared the larger races proposed would not only spoil the local ones but, by bringing upon the community the usual consequences which come to small places with great professional contests, we spoke out veryplainly in opposition to the scheme. We said .-While we would not make any effort to election. interfere with our neighbors in the exercise of their right to spend their money as they please, it will do no harm to say a word or two on the subject of having a match race between famous professional oarsmen take place on the Miramichi. We take the ground that it is not desirable, for a good many reasons. Such events, while they bring together a very large number of entirely respectable sight-seers, also attract hundreds of the sporting fraternity and others. Citizens would not open their houses, gener-ally, as they might if the occasion were an event such as an exhibition, or a great railway opening, because of the doubtful character of the guests offering, and the result would be a moving, never-resting, drinking population as many in number as the regular inhabitants, which no available police organization would be sufficient to regulate and no respectable citizen would ever wish to see in the comvictors shoot better." munity again. he had no further use for them. The same man would go up to an intimate friend while weeping over the dead body of a beloved son, and after tapping him on the shoulder with his finger, whisper in h is ear, "bury him cheap," being the highest and only consolation that his mean and sordid soul was qualified to give. And if, in his latter days, this rich mean and sordid money grubber, to appease the romorse of conscience " which makes cowards of us all, " were to build and endow a church as a penance for his "manifold sins and iniquities " the ministry of a truly christian sect would refuse to receive it, on the ground that like Judas's thirty pieces of silver, it was built with "the price of blood. FACTS.

Married Folks Would be Happier If they tried to be as agreeable as in courtship days. If they kissed and made up at once after every quarrel.

If each would try and be a real support and comfort to the other.

If household expenses were always proportioned to receipts. If women were as kind to their husbands as they were to them when lovers. If each remembered the other was practically a human being, not an angel.

If men were as thoughtful for their hearts.

If both parties remembered that they were married for worse as well as for better
