Mellie's Present.

It was near Curistinas—only two days before the world's holiday and the show windows of all the village stores were gay with beautiful Christmas gifts. It was really worth one's while to stroll leisurely down the principal street, and look at the pretty things so temptingly displayed, and dream of the joyous groups gathered in the many homes at Christmas tide.

So at least thought Mr. Wells Howard, a tall, fine-looking gentleman, who leisure, but no home. KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE. Santa Rosa, Cal., Feb 9th, 1883. B. J KENDALL & Co., Gents:- I feel it a dut to others suffering with the piles and falling of the rectum to write you. I have had the piles and pro apsus of the rectum for five years, for the past three years I have suffered the most agonizing pain. Tried everything without relief, but after ten days use of Kendall's Spavin Cure I have not seen nor heard of the piles since. One who has not suffered as I have cannot comprehend the great j y that I feel at being cured of a disease almost worse than death I had a valuable young horse that hed a large banch gather on his breast bone. I tried all kinds of liniments and had i cut open without any benefit Saw your advertise ment and bought a bot le of Kendali's Spavin Cur and ordered my teamster to use as directed. In less than one week the lump had disappeared .-Thinking that a liniment that would do what Ken dall's spavin Cure has done for my horse might benefit more. I tried it as a last resort.
