TEMPERANCE MEETING .- The Temperance Hall was literally packed, Monday night, to hear Mr. J. R. Pidgeon. Mr. Wm. Kerr was called to the chair. The meeting was opened with prayer by the Rev. James Thompson. After music and reading by Mr. A. D. Smith, Mr. Pidgeon took the platform and spoke with great earnestness and power for fifty minutes on | sr. the evils of intemperance. His arguhearers were familiar. Several persons Daigle. went forward, in response to his appeal, and signed the pledge. Miss Haviland sang, a collection was made, and in reply to the question from Mr. Wyse, Mr. Pidgeon said the Scott Act had not been enforced here because the Temperance | people had not found the funds for conducting the prosecutions. Mr. Pidg-on had perfect attention from the young and old of both sexes, and was frequently applaud.

At the close there was a business meeting, at which, after the subject of enforc- lities and limitations to which Canadians ing the Scott Act was talked over, a are subject. Now, in the first place French Canadians are not the typical Canadians. They are alien to the British Canadians-who make up the great mass of the people-in too many respects. I s more than likely that the Province of Quebec is more of a detriment to the Dominion than otherwise and that she may be in the future as great a "thorn in the flesh" to Canada as Ireland is to England or the old Canannites were to the Children of Israel, And one reason is on account of her ignorance. But even i were English Canadians, what would prove with reference to the two countries? Are there no populations of ignorance in the United States? The Ex N. > The great likeness among all these Refugees who advise Annexation is on their ignorance of their own country and their ignorance of the United States. If they happen in a favoured locality they think the conditions there spread out and widen till they embrace the whole coan ry. More than one American Statesman who knew thoroughly the conditions and Institutions, the strong-points and the weaknesses, the promises and the dangers of his own country, and also something of Canada, has advised the Dominion to keep to her own path and "work out her own salvation." And Canadians who have been there for a number of years do likewise, but these latter know something of their own country and do not stare at you with laughing incredulity, when you tell them the number of miles of railway in operation in New Brunswick, as I have een some of the Annexation New Bruns wickers do.
