Tea Importations.

ST. JOHN, N. B., 22nd Oct., '85 To the Editor of the Sun:

SIR-In the advertisement in this mornings Telegraph, Mr John Mackay claims to have imported into this port from 1st January to 30th September, 1885, more than one fourth of all the Tea imported from Great Britain, China and United States.

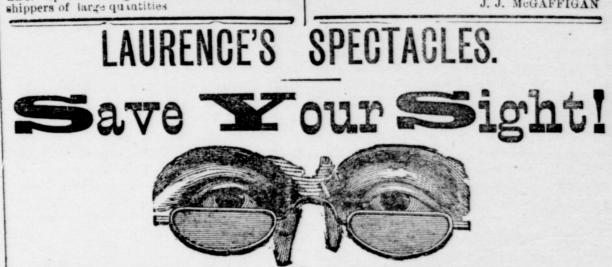

This statement is not true, and to back my assertion I will deposit the sum of One Handred Dollars in any bunk in the city, Mr. Mackay to deposit a like amount, and the loser to pay his hundred dollars to any charitable object that may be

I may further state that during the time men-Tickets good for one passage between any of the tio led I have imported and sold more Tea than above intermediate points, viz, Chatham to Dougastown, or Kerr's Mill, or vice versa, Doug- Mr. Mackay; and I claim to be the largest imporastown to Nelson or intermediate points, or | ter of Tea in the maritime provinces.

Yours respectfully,

J. J. MCGAFFIGAN.

far removed from the lion. It is found The elephant escaped with unimportant scratches and bites in its trunk.

It is well to be advised from the record of the past as to future action. Now let any one read that at New Orleans, La., Tuesday, (remember it is always Tuesday,) October 13th, 1885, the 185th Grand Monthly Drawing of The Louisiana State Lottery came off with this return to the investors: Ticket No. 15, 291-sold in fifths ed in breaking the hold of the elephant, which then, maddened by scratches and Teemer, who recently worsted Hanlan bites of the lion, strove to break down the strong cage in which its enemy was confined, and twice the elephant renewed its hold. Finally the men, reinforced by other workers in the museum, succeeded in binding the little elephant with ropes and chains and securing him at a place
