Death of a Noted Character. Says the Halifax Chronicle: The list of obituaries this morning contains the name of F. A. Baker, well known in this city, who died at Hull, Massachusetts, on Thursday, Mr. Baker came to Nova Scotia something over twenty years ago, and for a time conducted the business of lobster canning on a large scale and was supposed to be possessed of considerable means.

The Rev. D. D. Currie's Case. A correspondent of the Telegraph writes: The case of the Overseers of the Poor of Canning (Queens Co., N. B.) as plaintiffs, against the Rev. D. D. Currie as defendant, was tried on the 22nd. The prosecution failed to obtain verdict by the disagreement of the jury. The case was dismissed without further recosts, the parishioners of Canning to pay costs. Certain judges, created by the action of a majority of a committee of the conference which recently had the subject involved under consideration, were the most powerful influences with which the counsel for the defence had to contend.

Exhibition. The annual stock show and ploughing match of the Northumberland Agricultural Society was held on Thursday last in Mr. H. A. Muirhead's field, Bink Bonnie, on the Station road. There was quite a heavy rain-fall in the early morning which continued until nearly eleven o'clock and, no doubt, prevented many intending exhibitors from putting in an appearance, yet there was a good gathering of farmer and a fair representation of stock of all classes, excepting, perhaps, neat cattle. There was some excellent horse-work shown as well as the sheep, and the interest manifested in the show was quite encouraging.

With exception of those for the ploughing match, were made up by mid-day, and the prizes were paid at the Canada House in the afternoon. The prize-winning exhibitors were as follows—
