The Toronto Telegram asks ----"How many Reform members would care to stump Ontario on the ground that Riel was a marty; and Sir John Macdonald a murderer for hanging him? Not many, we imagine. They would argue, of course, that this was not the issue, and him by his absence. He left a vacancy | that with the quarrel between Sir John and the Bleus they had nothing to do. But we all know that Sir John will take precious good care to have a direct vote taken on the issue as to whether he was istified or not in allowing the law to take ts course in Riel's case. How many Re form members from Ontario could conscientiously hold up their hands with the Bleus on such a vote ? Could Mr. Blake ?

And the London Advertiser replies :-

The year has seen continual advance No Reform member intends to take the stump in Ontario for any such purpose as that set forth in the paragraph which we have here quoted. No Ontario member says that Riel was a martyr; no one proposes to accuse Sir John Macdonald of being a murderer because Riel was hanged, It is not the liberal party of Canada which is making the trouble over the execution of Riel. It is the Conservative party, the friends of Sir John, the French Canadian supporters of Mr. Bowell, the men who have for years maintained a win the charms of Atalanta, we lose the Conservative advistration in Canada.-
