Marriage preliminaries are a much more elaborate business in Germany than in America. In the first place engagements are intimated by the clergyman, to whose pastoral charge the parties belong, at the close of the regular Sabbath morning service, and prayer is then offered for the contract. ing parties. Notices of engagements are also posted up in the district police office, and published in the daily papers.

The attorney general said no such corespondence was had with or applications made to the government as to the appointment of a provincial fishery overseer. There was no appointment of Hon. W. M. Kelly as a fishery overseer, or correspondence relating thereto. All amounts paid the inspector, Mr. Phair, for the year 1884 will be found in the auditor general's report of that year, and all similar payments made in 1883 will be found in the auditor general's report of that year.

Mr. McManus moved, seconded by Dr. Black, which was carried :-

Resolved. That a committee consisting of five members of this house be appointed to investigate the claims of Robert Ellis, of Bathurst, for arrears due him on account of certain lumber seizares made by him in the county of Gloucester in the year 1873 and that said committee shall exercise all the powers conferred by the act of assembly 33 Vic., cap 33, intituled an act for the attendance and examination on oath of witnesses before the legislature or committee thereof.

Messrs. McManus, Black, Park, Perley and White were appointed a committee under the resolution.

Mr. Wetmore moved the appended resolution, seconded by Mr. Park :-
