Iter deciding to advertise more extensively than ever before, the following plan has been adopted by us: FOR FIFTY CENTS will enter your name on our subscription book and mail TKE POULTRY KEEPER regularly to you ONE YEAR and immedialy send a numbered Receipt, which will entitle the holder to one of the following presents. SEND TEN SUBSCRIBERS WITH $5.00 and we will send you 12 subscriptions and 13 receipts.

DAYS ONLY I This offer will hold good until February 22 only, as we shall limit the number of new subscriptions at an early date THE POULTRY KEEPER lation of 60,000 copies, and requires only 40,000 more to have the desired number it contains sixteen pages, beautifully illustrated. Tells how to make poultry pay.

500 STEM-WINDING WATCHES FREE.
In order that we may positively get the 40,000 more subscribers required by the 22d of February, the publisher has bought Stem-winding Watches, and these 500 Watches will be given away to the first 500 people who answer this adsement. If you send us 50 cents you will be entitled to one of these old, well known and reliable watches and one receipt vertisement. If you send us 50 cents you will be entitled to one of these old, well known and reliable watches and one receipt good for one present. These watches are warranted to be good time-keepers.

We will print in full in the February issue of THE POULTRY KFEPER the names and addresses of the winners of the 500 Stem-winding Waterbury Watches. This offer is bona fide and will be carried out to the letter. Send now, don't wait.

THE POULTRY KEEPER is well established, having already 60,000 subscribers, and is backed by ample capital, so could not afford otherwise. Undoubtedl some who read this new departure will think an offer to give away $30,000 in presents is most unreasonable and unprofitable; but let us say to all such persons that it costs anywhere from $25,000 to $150,000 to secure a large circulation to a paper. We know of a publisher that spent $50,000 in one week in giving away free copies and advertising his papers, and the money was well spent, for it secured for him an established circulation that paid good interest on the investment. Publishing nowadays must either be done on an extensive scale or not at all. It costs just as much for matter, and just as much for illustrations, electrotypes, editorial services, rent, and for setting up the type for a of receipts as they may direct. OUR OLD PATRONS AND SUBSCRIBERS, whom we number by thousands, should go to work at once and help us to increase our list, by this grand and generous offer.

ONLY 50 CENTS Secures THE POULTRY KEEPER one year and one receipt good for one present. The poultry of the paper is worth double the subscription price. As to our reliability, we refer those who do not know us to any Bank or Mercantile Agency.

REMEMBER these are Presents to our Subscribers given to them absolutely Free.

(2-Cent Postage Stamps taken.)

Soney in sums of 21 or less may be sent in an ordinary letter at our risk; larger sums should be sent by Registered Letter or Postal Note, and addressed to THE POULTRY KEEPER, 89 Randolph St., Chicago, III.

Lines on the New Year.

Eccl. 1. 9-2 Cor. v. 17.

Bereft ones of the year gone by, For the loved friends who sleep the sleep Of all our race, the destiny The aged fallen, as withered leaf, And some cut down in manhood's day, And many a heart has bitter grief For those like flower-buds snapt away. "New Year" we name it, but Death still His empire ever over men will hold Like hope, dread, gladness, sorrow fill their hearts as in the years of old.

The New Year comes and sadly weep

Time speeds along, and unconfined, Deem not the old continued, new, Tis in eternity we find The new-the holy, happy, true. Yet all things here may become new, And old things here may pass away When the soul lives by faith's clear view,

In light of the eternal day. C. H. S. M. Miramichi, Jan. 1st, 1885.

The Bad and Worthless are never imitated or counterfeited. This ;s especially true of a famlly medicine, and it is positive proof that the remedy imitated is of the highest value. As soon as it had been tested and proved by the whole World that Hop Bitters was the purest best and most valuable family medidine on earth, many imitations sprang up and began to steal the notices in which the press and the people of the country had expressed the merits of H. B., and in every way trying to induce suffering invalids to use their stuff instead, exp cting to make money on the credit and good name of H. B. Many others started nostrums, put up in similar style to H.B., with variously devised names in which the word 'Hop" or "Hops" were used in a way to induce people to believe they were the same as Hop Bitters. All such pretended remedies or cures. no matter what their style or name is, and especially those with the word "Hop" or "Hops" in their name or in any way connected with them or their name, are imitations or counterfeits Beware of them, Touch none of them Use nothing but genuine Hop Bitters, with a bunch or cluster of green Hops on the white label. Trust nothing else. Druggists and dealers are warned against dealing in imitations or counterfeits.

Mme. Clovis-Hugues Acquitted. PARIS, Jan. 8 .- The trial of Madame Clovis-Hugues for the murder of her traducer opened this morning. The court was crowded. Many diplomats and other distinguished persons were present. During the reading of the indictment Madame Clovis-Hugues seemed to be affected, but she replied in a firm tone to the questions-She admitted that the shooting was pre meditated, and declared that since May 25 she had been resolved to kill the clared she had offered Morin to apply for remission of his sentence if he would retraducer. Interrogatives as regards the facts leading to the shooting developed nothing new. Madame Clovis-Hugues detract the calumnies he had circulated about her. Morin returned an insulting reply. In concluding Madame said, "If you believe me guilty condemn me; if you can understand the moral tortures I have endured acquit me." These words were uttered in a firm and energetic tone. She appeared to make a favourable impression on the jury. In reply to a re- sibly exist or resist its power, and yet mark by the judges that murder was unjustifiable, especially after fifteen months premeditation, she said, "You would not reason so coolly if you had suffered as I have," and the prisoner proceeded to un-
