Hop Bitters are the Purest and Best Bitters Eyer Made.

They are compounded from Hops, Malt, Buchu, Mandrake and Dandelion,—the oldest, best, and most valuable medicines in the world and contain all the best and most curative properties of all other remedies, being the greatest Blood Purifier, Liver Regulator, and Life and Health Restoring Agent on earth. No disease or ill health can possibly long exist where these Bitters are used, so varied and perfect are their operations.

Remember, Hop Bitters is no vile, drugged, drunken nostrum, but the Pur-

Invalid's Friend and Hope," and no person or family should be without them. Try the Bitters to-day. An Irishman once called at a drug store to get a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment for the Rheumatism; the druggist asked him in what part of the body it troubled him most, "Be me soul said he

How Boys Succeed. A few years ago a drug firm in New York city advertised for a boy. The next day the store was thronged with applicants. Among them was a queer-looking little fellow accompanied by a woman who proved to be his aunt, in lieu of faithless parents, by whom he had been abandoned. Looking at this waif, the proprietor said, "I can't take him : besides, he is too

"I know he is small," said the woman. "but he is willing and faithful, and never drinks, uses tobacco or profane language." There was a twinkling in the boy's eyes which made the merchant think again' A partner in the firm volunteered to remark that he did not see what they wanted with such a boy-he wasn't bigger than a pint of cider. But after consulta. tion the boy was set to work. A few days later a call was made on the boys in the store for some one to stay all night. The prompt response of the little fellow contrasted well with the reluctance of the others. In the middle of the night the merchant looked in to see if all was right in the store, and presently discovered his youthful protege busy scissoring labels.

"What are you doing?" said he. "I did not tell you to work nights." "I know you did not tell me so, but] thought I might as well be doing some-

In the morning the cashier got orders from the merchant to "double that boy's wages, for he is willing." Only a few weeks elapsed before a show of wild beasts passed through the streets. and very naturally all the hands in the store rushed to witness the spectacle. A thief saw his opportunity and entered at the rear door to seize something, but in a twinkling found himself firmly clutched by the diminutive clerk afore. said, and after a struggle was captured. Not only was a robbery prevented, but valuable articles taken from other stores were recovered. When asked by the merchant why he stayed behind to watch when all others quit work, he replied :

"You told me never to leave the stere when others are absent, and I thought I'd stay." Orders were immediately given once more, "Double that boy's wages; he is willing and faithful." To day that boy is getting a salary of $2,500, and next month will become member of the firm .- Illustrated Christian
