PERSONAL. -I. B. Oakes, Esq., Grammar School Inspector, is visiting the North Shore. He was at Chatham yesterday and goes to Restigouche to-day or to-morrow. His many old friends in Chatham were glad to welcome him among them again.

BODY FOUND.-The body of Wm Mahoney-who attempted to cross the Miramichi near Mr. Morrison's mill when the ice was forming last winter and was missing until Monday last-was found floating off the Marine Hospital, Douglastown, on Monday last. An inquest was held by Coroner Dr. Benson.

TAX-EXEMPTION .- As we go to press a meeting called by the Town Clerk on a citizens' requisition, is about to be held in Masonic Hall, Chatham, for the purpose of having the pulp factory property exempted from taxation for a number o years. A large majority of our people are is favor of this very proper encourageient of an important enterprise.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH FAIR is to be held in Chatham Skating Rink on Tuesday, 13th inst. In addition to the usual attractions, which are advertised in another column, there will be a promenade concert. The committees who have the arrangements in charge are working to make the occasion a success and they will deserve a large and general patronage.

THE ADVOCATE, "as in duty bound" and in fulfilment of the position assigned to it by "the party" in Newcastle, copies Rev. Mr. Richard's letters from the World. Love for the rev. writer or hatred for Mr. Smith may have something to do with its course, but the meekness with which it plays "second fiddle" to the Chatham organ is interesting. When the late editor left the paper he gave as a reason the mean treatment of it by "the party" and said no man with any pluck would put up with it. The portion of the "editorial" staff left has just the spirit that qualifies it to manage the "second fiddle."
