Mr. Tweedio's Mistakes.

NEWCASTLE, 19th April, 1886. The Editor of the Miramichi Advance. SIR-I was present at the political meeting in the Masonic Hall this after. noon, and was igreatly disgusted at the Scripture remarks made by Mr. Tweedie which were decidedly uncalled for. think if Mr. Tweedie would stick to poltics and leave scripture alone it would be a good deal better for himself. I noticed another instance of the deception practised by him, he, turning round asked Mr. Burchill if he was in favor of the stumpage tax; then turning to the audieuce he silence that he was. But Mr. Burchill was absent, having left at the close of his speech, though the audience, on account fitted to be a representative of the "FAIR PLAY.
