On motion, the ex-Warden, Jas, Robin. son, Esq., took the chair.

On motion of Coun. Jared Tozer, seconded by Coun. Flanagan and others, Coun. C. E. Fish was appointed Warden, and, on taking the Chair, expressed his thanks to the Council for the honor conferred upon ACCOM'DATION

> Coun. Baldwin asked the Secretary-Treasurer if all present had filed their qualifications and the oath of allegiance. The same question was asked by Coun. Tozer, whereupon the Secretary-Treasurer read the names of all who had done be paid for keeping David Troy, pauper, qualifications should be filed each year. Coun. Stewart said the law was positive on the subject and should be properly regarded, or business could not go on when so many Councillors had not qualified. Coun. Smith said he did not think it was well to split hairs on this question. When a councillor was elected it was a pretty good expression of opinion that the Council had assembled. The matter thereupon dropped. On motion, Constables Wm. Dalton and John Cassidy were appointed to attend Council, and, after several motions and some discussion, their pay was fixed at $1.10

On motion of Coun. Tozer, seconded by Coup. Smith, J. J. Anslow was appointed official reporter.

Coun. Ryan said there was only one lutely required on the County Accounts | the school assessment reached that amount.

The Sec.-Treasurer explained that when Some further discussion followed, which he first took office he gave a bond to the was declared by the Warden to be out of Council for $5000. When he revised the bye-laws last year of his own accord he Coun. Smith asked leave of absence, gave bond for an increased amount, $8000, which was apparently satisfactory to the Council took short recess for committee | Council. He thought that bond was sufficient for all purposes, but he was in > the hands of the Council if they entertain. ed a different opinion. He would be willing to cancel the old Bond and give a new one for say twelve or fifteen thousand dollars as it did not seem worth while to have two bonds. At the same time he admitted that legally the bond could be demanded. Coun. Betts thought a new bond was fault list 1885. Passed. unnecessary, as he knew for a certainty, that the Sec.-Treas. seldom had a large amount of school funds on hand, it being usually paid out as fast as received.

Coun. Ryan said the Secretaries of School districts did not generally have Road commr. for Ludlow parish, having much money in their hands, and yet they were required to give bond much larger than the am't they generally had in hand. Coun. Cameron thought the See.-Treasurer's proposal to cancel the old bond and give a new bond for a larger amount eught to be satisfactory to the Council. Sec. Treas. said Councillor Ryan's in. > Coun. Smith read bye laws relating to bond given by the Sec. Treas. and asked that officer what was the maximum amount of School and other County funds in his hands now was in the vicinity of $12,000. This however was an exceptional year, provision having been made to meet the expenses of the new valuation. This am't would be materially reduced in a few days, as the valuation accounts would have to be paid forthwith. -Usually, the maximum amount in his hands would not exceed $8000 for all purposes. The maximum amount of school funds held by him was in the vicinity of

Coun. Smith said that while it was right that security should be held for the County funds, the Council should deal reasonably with the Sec. Treasurer. It would be competent for the Couucil Michael Hays, Coll'g Justice. Has to reduce the amount named in the bye paid Sec. Treas. $29.00 since meeting of law from $8000 to say $4000, and take a law from $8000 to say $4000, and take a bond of $8000 to cover the school funds. Referred to commttee on petitions. Coun Stewart moved, that

Whereas the owners of several tracts of marsh nds located in lower Tabusintac Bay in the County of Northumberland, are put to expense and inconvenience in protecting their several lots with fencing on individual account, and are desirous of becoming incorporated for the purpose of jointly protecting said property in a more thorough and economical manner, Therefore Resolved, That this Council hereby approves of a Bill to be sent to the Legislature for the purpose stated, and pray that the same may pass and become law.

Coun Smith, in seconding the resolution. explained to the Council that such a bill would be a great advantage to the persons interested. Similar incorporations were to be found in other portions of the Province, enabling owners of such lands to fence the same more economically than if tion, the people themselves could move in the matter when the bill came before and four in the front cells-who had no complaints to make, and appeared to be as comfort able as their position as prisoners could permit them to be. The keeper showed the committee over the Jail, and appears to attend properly to his duties. The committee would recommend that when the Jail accommodation is improved, provision be made for the employment and exercise of

Coun Whalen asked what action Council intended to take upon the report submitted to the Council last year with Sec-Treas read report of Mr McDonald

on the repairs needed to the Jail, the cost of said repairs estimated at a little under Coun Robinson, Chairman of the committee on the jail matter, said the sum estimated to make the necessary repairs was very much less than what the actual cost would be. This was the opinion of practical mechanics. The work would cost a thousand dollars or more, and it would be money wasted to spend so much in repairing the building. Then the sum proposed for a new building ($3000) was sufficient to erect a jail such as the County required, and suitable plans for a new building could not be obtained for the paltry sum allotted there-Duncan Morrison, dist. clerk.
