CHATHAM, N. B. - - APRIL 15, 1886

The American Humane Association directs the attention of the public to the barbarities and abuses continually being practiced in various portions of the country, and oftentimes in localities and cities which are deemed very highly civilized. In order that the friends of the defenseless and helpless may know the extent of this evil, and devise measures for their relief, mention is here made of some of the EXISTING CRUELTIES: Animals in freezing and starving condition, in exposed localities on the Western plains, in the winter season.

Animals so horribly burned on their bodies, through careless branding, as to make wounds that never heal. Animals severely wounded and tortured by clubs and long, sharp iron prods, when being loaded on stock-cars.

Animals so cruelly crowded, trampled, starved, and kept without water, when transported long distances by rail to market, as to make their meat unfit for food. Horses compelled to endure excruciating torture by the over-check and other high check-reins, through the ignorance and pride of thoughtless drivers.

Dogs and cats driven to desperation and madness from want of water. Horses ruined in health and through being overloaded, lack of food and improper feeding. Old, galled, crippled horses ill-fed, over-loaded, and generally abused by hard
