FISHERMEN—will do well to take Mr. Cassidy's advice and go to the factory for their barrels. They will save time and money and get a good article.

TORGUING.—A meeting is to be held in Dr. Cates' office, Newcastle, this evening, with a view of organizing a Tobacco and Snuff Show Club. We have no doubt it will result in the formation of a strong organization.

R. E. CURCH.—Rev. Mr. Winfield will conduct service in the Reformed Episcopal Vestry, on Monday evening 6th inst. at 8 o'clock, and there will be a social entertainment on Tuesday evening at the same hour.

THE HOLIDAYS are coming and our advertisements will, no doubt, announce the attractions they have to offer. Mr. McKinnon places some reasonable articles below the plain in his store, West end of Commercial Block, Chatham.

RICHIE'S CHURCH.—Rev. D. W. Gwynn, of Campbellton, was unanimously elected rector of St. Mary's church, which was held in his home at Saturday with his Lordship the Metropolitan will approve of the appointment, as the parish has been without a rector since last August.—Sun.

A BIG DAY'S WORK.—The roof of the basement of the Roman Catholic Church at Bathurst was covered on Saturday with the well known Statham Fire Proof Cement, under the superintendence of Mr. J. J. Miller of Deby. The roof measures 137 feet by 62 and the work gave entire satisfaction to the committee of the church. Mr. Miller had a force of 22 men employed.—Advocate.

ACCIDENT ON THE I. C. R.—On Saturday forenoon, Brakeman Gould had the middle finger of his left hand badly smashed while coupling a locomotive to cars at the station. Dr. Pedolin dressed the wound and he was taken to his home at Moncton. Ferguson, mentioned elsewhere as walking off the car in his sleep, was going to Moncton to take his Gould's place after the accident. —Advocate.

IN DANGER.—Running ice on Saturday last almost carried away the temporary supports from under the choral union. The span of the new bridge was slowly but surely forced over the Southwest at Nelson. Fortunately sufficient of the supports were left to sustain the choral union, although they were left on Saturday with the work has now been secured and it is hoped no further trouble will be experienced.

"THE HOOD."—The Advocate, under the head of Chatham items says, "J. Ferguson & Co. grocers have been closed up by the sheriff after a few months' business career." The auction business is booming. Mr. Wyse sold out the Griffin furniture on Monday, the Purdy stock on Tuesday and the H. P. Marquis stock on Friday.

It takes a Tory party to discover a "hoon" in connection with four bankruptcies under the N. P.

ALL-HEM.—The Advocate which is edited by the Grand Worthy Patriarch says:—"Three gentlemen from Newcastle took a trip to Lunenburg last week on a freight train. Through their ignorance of the Branch's time table, and delay by the train of Frank Jarvis' goods conversation, they missed the train and had to walk a considerable distance before they obtained a horse to convey them home. When they visit the branch in the future they had better carry a time table with them."

A THIRD OF A CENTURY.—To mark the accomplishment of a third of a century in business together, Messrs Hall and Fairweather of St. John have presented their friends with a sum of $1000, which will be distributed to the poor of the city.

AGENTS WANTED.—Clement & Co., of 48 W. Franklin Street, Toronto, or 51 St. Francis Xavier Street, Montreal, want a General Agent for the Province of New Brunswick, who will be able to sell their celebrated Patent Cake Griddle, the Celebrated Emery Knife Sharpener (known as the "Carver's Friend"), the Emery Scythe Sharpener, and other Specialties. If you want to make money, write to them at once for an outfit, and to secure what territory you can handle.

ROWDYISM PUNISHED.—We are glad to learn that a number of rowdies who created a scandalous disturbance at Newcastle Railway station a few nights ago have been made an example of. The Advocate says:—"Officer Rankin, of the I. C. R., came up from Moncton on Monday and arrested a number of the young men on a charge of disorderly conduct and interfering with the discharge of their duties. Jas. Wheeler, David Dunlop, David Mahoney, Angus McKay and James Jones, were brought before Justice Nevin on Tuesday and fined $6.00 each."

THEIR STYLE.—"Blake's tool," "the tubber Angin," are terms employed by the Belleville Intelligencer and copied into the Tory Moncton Times, in referring to the Hon. T. W. Anglin.—Globe.

When the standing and character of Mr. Anglin are compared with those of men whom the Times delights in honoring, the employment of the language quoted can have but one effect with decent people. The Times and its Tory allies are nearly all alike in their faith in calling names. We are unfortunate in having supplied the same Tory style on the North Shore.

WHY HE WAS HONORIFIED.—A case of horse-whipping occurred at New Glasgow a short time ago. It appears that a number of leaders of a certain private boxing house, decided to change their lodgings. This was done, and no reason given for the change. The young lady of the house wrote a polite note to one of the young men asking for an explanation, and he said, he sent back a very ungentlemanly reply. The young lady's brother armed himself with a whip, and meeting the young man in the street, gave him a severe whipping. Moral: Don't write impolite notes to young ladies with big brothers.—Hullfax Herald.

LEO VENTRO, the fraudulent showman, has been taken in, in a case of horse-whipping, and is now in the hands of the law. He was taken in by a large and enterprising man named "Maurice Leland" in his new territory and an entertainment to be given by him at New Hill, Cumberland County, was advertised.

MAURICE LELAND HAS RETURNED (Case of Necessity) etc., and at the bottom of the bill there was a postscript, "Don't expect to be admitted unless you come yourself." It seems, however, that Leo could not be kept straight, even by an Amherst constable. After giving a performance at Spring Hill on Wednesday night of last week and promising a show on Thursday night, he failed to appear on Thursday afternoon, after borrowing money from the landlord of the hotel at which he stopped and also from the constable who was in charge of him. He was pursued to Athol and re-captured.

ASKING TOO MUCH.—The Advocate thinks that the Newcastle Police ought to do duty at the I. C. R. Station of that town. It says:—"Some roughs gathered at the station of the I. C. R. very disorderly manner. They upset the coal bin, turned out the lights and tried to take possession of the room. Disturbances often occur round the station at night while passengers are waiting for the train, and it would be well if our policemen would occasionally 'drop around' that way."

The station is quite a distance from the town proper, and if the policemen were there the town would be left unprotected. It would be quite proper for town policemen to go to the station if summoned to act in case of a disturbance arising, but not otherwise. If disturbances about the station are the rule, as the Advocate indicates, the Railway authorities, and not the town should be responsible for enforcing order.

INGRATITUDE.—The local Tory organ in Chatham seems to take it for granted that Mr. Mitchell is not to be chosen by his friends as their candidate in the pending Dominion election. It says:—"Mr. Mitchell has been down river this week, calling on the electors. This probably a farewell tour. He has served the county well in the past, and would have the opportunity of doing so again if he had not turned his back on the Government. He has just returned from a tour of his old friends had been fighting for twenty years."

Mr. Mitchell is in the same attitude to day so far as Sir John A. Macdonald is concerned. He has visited Mr. Adams and Mr. Adams visited the public meeting held on that occasion Mr. Adams declared that so long as Mr. Mitchell desired to offer for the representation of the North Shore he would not oppose him, but should Mr. Mitchell retire, he (Mr. Adams) would then take the field. Has the organ gone back on Mr. Adams and his pledge?

THE SMOKE FISHERY.—The statement having been made to one of our reporters that smelts have been shipped from the North Shore ever since the middle of October, in defiance of the law on the subject. Fishery Inspector O'Brien was interviewed. He stated that the law permits smelting by hook and line at all times of the year, but prohibits net fishing until after 1st December. The seizure of smelts which he made the other day—and the only one which he has made this season—was because the shipment was so large that it was scarcely possible for the fish to have been caught in any other way than by nets. The fishery department is aware, he says, that fish have been caught in violation of the law, but stringent measures have been adopted, and a great deal of the netting has been stopped. Several of those who have been engaged in violating the law have signified their intention to take out licenses.—St. John Globe.

WALKED OFF IN HIS SLEEP.—Among the sleeping passengers on the Quebec express to Moncton yesterday morning was a young man named Jas. Ferguson, belonging to New Mills. When about two miles from Moncton, a brakeman, in accordance with the custom, went through the train and made the usual announcements. Ferguson, being aroused from sleep, did not grasp the situation, but he did grasp his grip sack and with it made the platform of the car and leaped off. The train was then on a down grade, going at full speed, and the shock of alighting on the frozen ground and bushes was very severe. Ferguson's face and head were badly cut and bruised and he received injuries about the body, the most serious being internal injuries of the chest. He complains of great soreness about the lungs. On his arrival at Moncton Station Dr. E. B. Chandler was sent for and he has since received every assistance. It is impossible to tell the result of the injuries, though it is hoped they are not lasting. Ferguson was himself a brakeman but was coming to Moncton as a passenger.—Times 27th.

RIOT AT SALEM, MASS.—North Shore people are interested in anything that affects the tanning industry of Salem, in which so many of our hemlock bark is used. The tanners there are now crippled in their operations by a strike and on Thursday last week there was a riot. Simon K. Yeaton and Joshua Yeaton, brothers, the former a non-workman and the latter proprietor of a non-union boarding house, were pursued on the street by a mob of 500 strikers, who followed them to K. H. & Ryan's yards, where the pursued men were protected by two police officers, who closed the gates. The mob tore down the fences and terribly assaulted the Yeaton brothers. Simon Yeaton then fired his revolver into the mob, the bullet striking John F. Halpine, one of the rioters, in the side. Halpine was taken to the hospital severely wounded, and the Yeatons were finally safely escorted to the police station by the officers. The mob were ordered to arrest, smashing it to pieces. They then savagely attacked Andrew Ferguson and Andrew Bowser, non-union men, and they too were badly beaten. Next the mob visited Foot's boarding house, where two more non-union men were assaulted and badly beaten. By this time a large body of police had arrived on the scene, and the mob was dispersed. The leaders have been arrested.

Choral Union A good beginning was made on Monday evening last at the meeting called to consider the desirability of forming a Chatham Choral Union. A committee, consisting of Mrs. Snowball, Miss Fairley, Miss Anderson and Miss E. Winslow was appointed to solicit the interest of the musical people of the community, and to meet to complete the organization and to be held on Monday evening next at 8 o'clock in the Temperance Hall. There ought to be a large attendance, for the object is one in which all classes can unite and work together.
