An Error Corrected.

A correspondent directs our attention to the fact that Mr. Alams was considerably astray on nomination day in stating that the recent electon was the first single. handed contest for the local legislature in Northumberland since the Williston-Satton election. He says,

"There was a contest between Hon. R. Hutchison and Davis P. Howe for the seat made vacant by the death of Robinson Crocker; and when Hon. Wm. Kelly accepted the office of Chief Commissioner of Public Works, he had to be reelected and was opposed by P. J. O'Connel of Nelson. I am surprised that Mr. Adams should fall into the mistake he made and a'so that he was not corrected on the spot" We may say that Mr. Adams' remarks closed the volunteer speeches of the day, and the occasion was not one on which anybody was particularly anxious to entertain the audience. Besides, the correcwould be expended on it,
