The Lime-Kiln Club.

(From the Detroit Free Press) I desiah to inform de members dat we hev a visitor dis eavenin' in de pusson of Hon. Shakenback Johnson, said the President as the meeting opened. He has arrove heah from Halifax to adress us on de fisheries dispute, an from what I hev seen of him I ar satisfied dat he ar a statesman wid a large breadth of stomach an a huddle of brains placed whar dey will do de moas good. He desings to remain heah saberal days an I would obsarve dat any ob de members who lend him money mus do it at Street, Fredericton, on TUESDAY the 7th Day of deir own peril. His watch chain may have a watch at de end of it or may not. De $50 bank bill which he exhibits on certain occashuns may be all right or de bank may hev busted ya'rs ago. We will treat him wid courtesy bekase, but when it goes beyand dat I should advise you to take security. De Tready for the weighing of Hay, Coal etc. Its make it convenient to the public. statesman will now be brung in.

The Hon. Shakenback proved to be 6-16. a very black and polished gentleman of great breadth of beam, being about 45 Northumberland Co. Liberal years of age, built after the ancient style of architecture, and having a voice which reminded one of a woman trying to sing bass. He was formally introduced, and when he had made his hear he had made his her he had made his he had made his her he had made his her he had made his he had made

My frens, I am quite oberrun by dis unexpected. I invited myself heah dis eavenin to address you on a subject of Black Clyde Stallion and Canady. I would also menshun dat I am makin a grand farewell tour of de United staits at de present time to seil my Excelsior soap, which is used for cleanin tinware an removin tar angrease. If not found as repressent de money will be refunded. Ten cents a cake or three for a quarter, and doan buy no odder

Now, in de fust place, de Lawd made fish. He made em long 'bout de time Adam an Eve war driv' outer de garden. Duke of Wellington! He msde 'em to swim in de lakes, an' rivers an' seas, an' for man's use. It was de intenshum dat any man could catch fish any whar he wanted to. Den Columbus he come ober heah an' dis kibered American, 'an arter awhile de Yankees took de United states an' de British took Canady. De fish was increasin' all de time, an' nobody purtended to own 'em.

If anybody wanted to go out befo' breakfast or arter breakfast an' catch fish dere was nobody wanted to say a word. (Great applause.)

All of a sudden somebody got mad. Den somebody else got mad. Dey forgot all about dat de Lawd made de fish an' de Yankee he said he owned 'em all. An' de Kanuck he said de Yankee was a liar. [Excitement, during which whale bone Howker kicked Trustee Pullback] Den dey boaf went home mad an' begun to pass laws. De Yankee said de Kanuck shouldn't sell his fish in the United States onless he paid a big dooty, an' de Kanuck said de Yankee shouldn't fish widin three miles of his sho' nohow. Dey made up faces at each odder an' dey kept gittin' madder all de time, an' finally de biler busted. [Excitement] Dat ar't, dey begun to pitch in, an' at de present date de two kentries hev spit on deir hands an' dared each odder to fight. (Great uproar, during which Samuel Shin his

Stepback Taylor on the neck.]

My frens, continued the speaker, after swallowing a large quantity of water and mopping off his forehead, de stait of affairs am shameful. We are two setts ob children by de same fadder. Ober dar in Canady we want Yankee plug terbacker, poker chips, pink-cull'd suspenders, co'n salves an' jack-knives. On dis side you want our produce an' good will. Dar am kentry nuff for all of us. Dar ar' mo' fish dan we all know what to do wid. Why, sah, I kin go out an' sit down on de dock at St. John any day in de summer an' git six bites right along witout spittin' on my bait, an' I reckon it's de same anywhar' long de New England coast. (Sensation.) I hev come ober here to see if dis queshun can't be settled widout war. I hev not bin to for the erection of School House of Brick or Wood on the grounds belonging to the Highland congress nor to de state legislachurs, nor hev I interviewed de leadin statesmen. I have come d'rectly to dis Limekiln Club to lay de matter befo' you an ask you to consider it in all its phases an' come to a decishun. When a cat gets her back up nuffin' but a brick bat will take it down. When a nashun gits its back up it mus' be argued wid. De Kenuck am not a bad man. De Yankee am a first-rate feller. Dey has simply had a lettle fallin' out about gwine a fishin', and as a matter of pride neither one wants to give in. De result am dat de two kentries ride down hill on the same handsled.

What I ax' of dis Lime-kiln Club ar to take hold of dis queshun an' settle it to de satifaxium of boaf parties. It this date as follows can be did, an' de club kin do it, an' when de harpstrings of peace once moa echo deir glad chords ober all Americ' your reward shall be great. (Cheers.) In conclushun, I would remark dat my Excelsior Co'n Salve has been used in all climates an' by all ciasses of people, an' has nebber yet failed to give imme. SOLAR diate an' permanent relief. Why suffer when you kin be cured fur de small sum of 10c—de tenth part of a dollar? The speaker retired amidst hearty applause, and when he had gone points named,

Brother Gardner observed: Dar' was considerable sense an' a good deal of co'n salve in dat address. Let us think it over in a serious manner befo' takin' any decided steps. We STR.
