CHATHAM, N. B. - DECEMBER 20, 1888 The Lumber Interest and the Government. Representations having been made to members of the New Brunswick Government on the subject of the continued damaging effects upon the North Shore lumber industry of the existing high Stumpage rates exacted by the Crown Lands Department, the Hon. A. G. Blair, Attorney-General, in a communication addressed to H. S. Miller, Esq., of the New Brunswick Trading Company, on 4th inst., signified his willingness to meet the lumbermen at Chatham on Wednesday evening of last week, to hear what they might have to present on the subject. A committee of the lumber trade consisting of J. B. Snowball, D. & J. Ritchie, John Sadler, N. B. Trading Co., Scott Fairley and Geo. Burchill & Sons, issued a circular note, acquainting the leading lumbermen in the four Northern Counties of the intended conference with the Attorney Gener al and inviting them to be present -the meeting to take place in Temperance Hall, here, on the evening of the day named. Quite a representative gathering assembled, pursuant to the notice, and shortly after eight o'clock F. E. Winslow, Esq. was elected Chairman and Mr. D. The Sackville-West Episode Not G. Smith Secretary of the meeting.

Mr. Miller read the letter he had received from the Attorney-General on the subject of calling a meeting, which had led to the formation the committee and issue of the call for the present meeting.

Mr. Snowball said he had ascer tained by telephone that owing to the storm, and acting on suggestions of members of the Committee and others in Newcastle, the Attorney General had decided not to come to Chatham that night, but he had signified his readiness to meet the lumbermen in Newcastle next day or to visit Chatham, accompanied by the Surveyor General and, perhaps, the Provincial Secretary, on some day the next week. He had also informed Mr. Snowball that he would remain at his hotel during the evening, so as to be in communication with the

On the suggestion of Geo. Burchill Esq., and motion of J. P. Burchill, Esq., M. P. P., it was ordered that a committee of five be appointed to put the views of the lumber interest of the North Shore in the form of a memorial as a basis of conference to be held next week with members of the Government as suggested by the Attorney General.

Some discussion was carried while Messrs K. F. Burns and J. B. Snowball retired to communicate by telephone with the Attorney General at Newcastle, and, on their return, they reported that he would visit Chatham and attend a meeting on the next Tuesday evening, accompanied if possible, by other members of the Government, should that pro position meet the views of those

It was then resolved to accept the Attorney General's proposition-the meeting to take place in the Temperance Hall at 7.30 p. m. on the day

The memorial Committee, under Mr. Burchill's resolution, was then ap printed as follows: Geo. Burchill, J B. Snowball, K. F. Burns, H. S. Mil-

On motion of Mr. Miller Mr. D. G. Smith was requested to act as Secretary to the Committee and the Committee was given power to add to their number. Brief speeches were made by Messrs. Miller, L. J. Tweedie, Geo. Burchill, F. E. Winslow and K. F. Burns, after which the meeting adjourned, to reassemble on Tuesday evening, 18th.

Tuesday brought with it a big snow storm, but it did not deter many of the leading lumbermen of the North Shore meeting the members of the Government. K. F. Burns, Esq., M. P., of Bathurst, Geo. Moffat, Esq., M. P., of Dalhousie, Messrs. R. O'Leary and J. P. Mowatt of Campbellton, Messrs. George and Wm. McLeod and James F. Atkinson of Kent Co., Scott Fairley, B. N. T. Underhill and others were amonest the number, while a strong Newcastle contingent were waiting teleconsiderable disappointment when the N. & W. train arrived about six o'clock without them. It became known, however, that the Attorney-General had telegraphed Mr. Miller in the forenoon that the Surveyor-General and he had started with the intention of coming to up with respect to Lord Sackville becomes Chatham, but turned back on account of the storm. Mr. Miller, we understand, telegraphed asking the Attorney-General to name another day when he and his colleagues could come and keep the engagement with the lumbermen, but up to yesterday evening he had received no reply.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14, 1888. I called at the State Department to-day to ascertain, if possible, what was the present status of the controversy now going on between our government and that of Great Britain concerning Lord Sackville's dismissal. There is not the slightest probability of the correspondence healing the breach which the summary removal of Lord Sackville has caused.

Assistant Secretary Rives said there was not one word to be added to what he had already said on the subject and which was printed in to-day's HERALD. He did not think the attitude of the administration was properly presented in the report from London, for such a thing as our government insisting upon another government sending it a Minister was absurd.

I am told by one who speaks with ful knowledge of the affair that it is not conceivable that the government of the Unitcd States would protest in terms against Lord Salisbury's delay in nominating an envoy to the mission at Washington; since, in the first place, there has as yet been no unreasonable delay in fixing upon a successor to Lord Sackville, and in the second place, it is a matter entirely within the pleasure of one sovereign Power whether it shall or shall not maintain a diplomatic representative at the court or near the government of another. From the circumstance, as stated in the House of Commons by the Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, that the latest communication from Mr. Phelps has been referred to Lord Sackville for his remarks thereupon, it is evident that the discussion of the propriety of his dismissal is still going forward between Mr. Bayard and Lord Salisbury, and in that state of the case it is simply impossible that a new Minister to Washington should be appointed, unless it shall please Mr. Bayard to construct a very broad and inviting passage over the chasm of his own creation, or unless Lord Salisbury shall come around to the improbable view that the act of the President in dismissing Lord Sackville pending an exchange of views with his government concerning his conduct, and the action to be taken by Her Britannie Majesty thereupon, is excusable, if not justifiable.

So long as Lord Salisbury retains the views last expressed publicly by him, touching the conduct of the government of the United States, he cannot, with propriety, accredit another envoy to that government, except until after a modus vivendi shall have been devised, or, in plain language, a reconciliation. Taking now the other side, if Mr. Bayard shall adhere to the propriety of the President's conduct and shall not tender nor hold out a friendly hand to a reconciliation, it will be incumbent upon him, as a matter self-respect on the part of the American government, to withdraw Mr. Phelps by indefinite leave of absence or by recall as soon as he shall learn authentically that the British government has no immediate intention to restore its diplomatic representation at Washington. This he can conveniently ascertain by instructing Mr. Phelps to inquire informally what the from gathering with the expectation of purposes of Her Majesty's government are in that particular, or he can act upon any information or conclusion satisfactory to

Mr. Bayard seems now to be at the divergences of the road; he must soon de cide whether he shall make or meet advances looking toward the mutual obliter ation of the past or whether he shall maintain the position taken up as a necessary consequence of the dismissal of Lore Sackville and order Mr. Phelps back to the United States as a counter move to men of the Government. There was the action of Lord Salisbury in prolonging the diplomatic rupture. Apart from natural obstinacy Mr. Bayard is in a difficult situation, it being incumbent upon him to keep open the way to a dignified retire ment of the President from his great of fice, and the weaker the position taken by lapse of time and the disintegration by discussion the greater the necessity for throwing the cloak of firmness over the last acts of his administration.

It makes not the difference of a button to Lord Salisbury whether a republican ad ninistration succeeds a democratic one. or vice versa, but the importance to him of the defeat of Mr. Cleveland for re proachment can be made without loss of dignity or self-respect on either side. It should be understood that the demand by Mr. Bayard for the recall of Lord Sackville was reasonable and proper in every view of the case, but equally unreasonable and improper was his rude dismissal while the demand for recall was under advisement, and a virtual understanding subsisting between Lord Salisbury and Mr. Phelps that the former should be supplied with some additional information before further procedure should be taken.

CAIRO, Dec. 14, 1888 .- In the letter received at Suakin from Osman Digna, and which is supposed to have contained the announcements that Emin Pacha and a white traveller (presumable Stinley) had fallen into the hands of the Madhi, were enclosed copies of a despatch from a dervish leader at Lado to the Khalifa, giving the date of Emin Pacha's surrender as October 10, and a letter to Emin Pacha from the Khedive which the latter handed to Henry M. LONDON, Dec. 14, 1888. It is rumored that Osman Digna in his letter expresed a willingess to surrender Emin Pacha and his white companion provided Egypt would agree to abandon Suakin. If this proposal is not accepted it is believed that both captives will be killed.

With his letter Osman Digna sent several Snider cartridges, which, he alleged, were taken from the white traveller. The Zanzibaris in Stanley's expedition were armed with Snider aifles, but there were none in possession of the dervishe.s

In the house of commons this afternoon Mr. W. H. Smith, the government leader. replying to Sir Wilfred Lawson, said that so far as was known to the government the letter written by Osman Digna announces the surrender of Emin Pacha and a white traveller. The government had no means of knowing whether these allegations well were founded.

The Emin Relief Expedition Committee are doubtful of the genuineness of the Osman Digna letter, They suggest that the Khedive's letter may be a copy stoler at Cairo, but they think more likely that Stanley sent on runners to Emin with letters, and that these runners were captured. In any case, they are hopeful that even if Emin is a captive Stanley is still Osmen Digna's letter was a reply to Major Rundle's request of last Angust for news of Emin Pacha. The latter asserts that the Madhi has conquered the whole of the Equatorial provinces. The Lado letter stated that one white man escaped. BRUSSELS, Dec. 14, 1888 .- The King of the Belgians is agitated by the event and is receiving a great many despatches regarding it. He admits having been the largest subscriber to Stanley's expenses. The Independence Belge says that England will doubtless do everything possible to liberate Stanley, and that Mr. Gladston too bitterly regrets the abandonment of General Gordon for Lord Salisbury to abandon Stanley and Emin Pacha.

Opposition to Annexation.

(Dispatch to Boston Herald) WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 13. Friends of commercial union between the United States and Canada are very much astonished over the course of Re presentative Butterworth, in introducing to-day a preamble and resolution, empowering the President "to invite negotiation looking to the assimilation and unity of the people of the Dominion of Canada and the United States under one Govern ment." There is absolutely no desire shown in either branch of Congress for immediate annexation. There is a strong sentiment in favor of commercial union, and Mr. Butterworth has heretofore been looked upon as the champion of this idea because of his course in speaking for commercial union, not only in this country, but in Canada, and because of his previous resolutions having that object in view. Those who know something of the sen timent of the political parties in Canada say that Mr. Butterworth could not have more effectually injured the commercial union idea if he had tried to do so, and that the commercial unionists have been compelled to answer the claims of their opponents that commercial union was simply a synonym for annexation.

Fortunately, however, for those who favor commercial union, the Butterworth resolution is not likely to receive cordial support in Congress. In fact, it is doubt ful if it will ever be heard of again, unless Mr. Butterworth should introduce its duplicate in the next house.

A great deal of pains has been taken, since it became known that the Cincin nati congressman intended to take this step, to ascertain the sentiment toward the idea of annexation in both houses. Senator Ingalls, President pro tempore for the senate, expressed the opinion last night that it would take this country 25 years to educate itself up to the annexation point. Mr. Ingalls said he favored commercial union, and would support any proposition having this object in view. but he was not inclined to favor any scheme for political annexation between the two countries at present.

Senator Evarts of New York. Chandler of New Hampshire, Hale of Maine, Dawes of Massachusetts, Stockbridge of Michigan and Allison of Iowa all expressed opposition to the Butterworth scheme. Mr. Hitt of Illinois, who will probably be chairmau of the committee on foreign affairs in the pext House, was outspoken in his disapproval of the idea. He thought any movement toward annexation should be initiated on the other side of the line. and that it would be as much out of place for the United States to take the initiatory step in this direction as it was for Lord Sackville to interfere in American politics. This interference in the political affairs of a country by outsiders would naturally be resented every time, and the proper way to bring the two countries to-
