Municipal Council.

Council was called to order at 10, and minutes of yesterday's proceedings were read and confirmed. Coun. Adams presented petition of Joseph McKnight, praying for a return of amount paid by him, and for which he was over taxed. Referred to committee on petitions. Coun. Morrison brought up the matter of exemption from taxation of Archibald Wright of Newcastle. He was exempted by resolution of this council last year from poll tax and tax on income, but the amount of $2.47 had been collected from him. He moved the following resolution, which was seconded by Coun. Watt : -Whereas, The council in July last ex mpted Archibald Wright from poll tax and tax on income, amounting to $2.47. Therefore resolved. That this sum be refunded to Mr. Wright and applied towards paying his taxes. Coun. Tozer, as last year's chairman of Com. on Petitions presented a petition of R. R. Call, which was presented last year. The resolution of last year left it to the committee to take such action as they might think fit after examination, such action only to have effect for one year, and Itch in a few days, cures Salt Rheum, the committee not having been able to Chapped Hands, Scald Head, Obstinate meet Mr. Call, he having been engaged at the time they appointed to meet him, he
