

The Papal Rescript.

MANIFESTO OF THE PARALLELITY—THE WOMES OF IRELAND SET FORTH—THE CHURCH POWER OF EXTERIOR LAWS—THEIR EXERCISE THE CHIEF CAUSE OF CRIME.

DUBLIN, May 17.
At the meeting of Parallelity M. P.'s to-day a sub-committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. D. Sullivan, T. D.
Sullivan, O'Brien, Redmond, Healy and Harrington, with Messrs. Kenny and Clancy as secretaries, to draw up resolutions on the principles agreed to in reference to the papal rescript. The meeting prepared a manifesto to the following effect:

Being aware that the papal rescript is being used by enemies of the holy see and of the Irish people to the prejudice of the Irish cause, to estrange the people and their spiritual guides, and to increase the dangers which threaten the people, and being mindful of our obligation to the holy see and our duty as constitutionally elected representatives, we have deliberated together and adopted the following resolutions:

That the allegations of fact put forth in the circular are, to our knowledge, unfounded, and could not, we venture to affirm, have been promulgated under the authority of the holy office if statements so prejudicial to the Irish people had been tested by reference to the Irish prelates and the elected representatives of the people. That the assertion that freedom of contract prevails in the Holy See.
Moreover, partisans of the landlords predominate in the courts, and rents continue to be fixed upon tenants' improvements.
That no provision is made for a reduction of arrears of rents which are now declared by the courts to be excessive.
These arrears enable landlords, by threats of eviction, to prevent tenants from applying to the courts, from which large numbers of tenants are still shut out.
With regard to the statement that rents have been extorted and deposited with unknown persons, we affirm that the tenants freely lodged their rents with persons whom they knew, to be held as an insurance fund against eviction, and they were invariably returned, without deduc-tion, at the request of tenants.

That the unjust and cruel exercise of the legal powers of eviction for generations have blighted the lives of the Irish people and banished millions of them from their country, and as the legal power of eviction is armed with new facilities by an act passed in 1887 in the Legislature controlled by landlords, who are devoted to the present moment to the destruction of thousands of families, together with the appropriation of their legal interest in the ownership of the soil, we solemnly declare that the merciless exercise of this power has been and is the one great cause of the civil passions, conflict and crime in Ireland, and that the public feeling, which, in extreme cases, has resulted in a denial of social intercourse, is a feeling excited in the minds of the people by their love for justice and desire for christian charity, which should mould the law of the land and prevail in the relations of life.

Second—That we repudiate the assumption that the status of Irish farmers is that of mere tenants-at-will, and assert that not only in equity, but in law, the dominant interest in holding belongs to those making improvements, and we attribute much of the prevailing discontent to disregard of our constant protests against the imposition of rent on improvements.

Third—We cannot refrain from expressing our regret that the holy office is silent regarding the source and provocation of the evils and disorder afflicting the Irish people.

Fourth—This silence is the more to be deplored, in the interests of religion and of our mutual causes because it has enabled enemies to misuse the name of the Holy See, and because the admission of the rescript was against the systematic violation of justice and charity committed by way of attack upon our homes and the property of our people.

Fifth—That the demand of the Irish people for agrarian reform and political liberty is dictated by necessity, sustained by natural justice, and conducted by modes of action and methods of organization prescribed or allowed by the constitution to which the Irish people owe whatever they have won of civil and religious freedom; that the force of this national movement against unconstitutional coercion and organized calumny will continue to be exerted until we shall have achieved success.

Sixth—While unreservedly acknowledging the spiritual jurisdiction of the Holy See, we, as guardians of those civil liberties which our Catholic forefathers resolutely defended, feel bound to solemnly reassert that the Irish people can not recognize the right of the holy see to interfere with the Irish people in the management of their political affairs.

The Cork national league has endorsed the manifesto recently given to the public by the Parallelity members of parliament.
The London Chronicle says the Pope will issue a brief reply to the letter of adhesion from the Irish bishops and will explain that the Vatican does not disapprove of the Irish national aspirations within legitimate bounds.

Bishop O'Dwyer, of Limerick, has caused a sensation by sending a letter to the Mayor of Limerick giving warning to Catholics who attend league meetings, announcing to take place on Sunday, that they will be guilty of a grievous sin, in view of the admonitions of the papal rescript.
The Bishop regrets that the national organization should be risked for the sake of upholding the plan of campaign, which is condemned by both Gladstone and Parnell.

The Star (Thomas Power O'Connor's paper) commenting on Bishop O'Dwyer's letter to the Mayor of Limerick, in which he gave warning that Catholics who attended the league meeting on Sunday would be guilty of a grievous sin in view of the papal rescript, says: "Bishop O'Dwyer has rendered the National League a service by forcing the fight. There can be no doubt of the result for a moment. The overwhelming majority of Irishmen will support their representatives against both Gladstone and Parnell."

DUBLIN, May 26.
The people of Limerick have resolved to hold a league meeting to-morrow in spite of the warning of Bishop O'Dwyer.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 26.

The recent order for a meeting of members of the executive committee of the Irish Land League to be held in Cleveland June 12 has aroused the anger and some dignitaries of the Catholic church.
The object of the meeting is not given, but it is undoubtedly in regard to the action necessary in the face of the Pope's rescript which has created so much discussion in league circles in this city, the headquarters of the league. Bishop Boncompagni resident Bishop, has inaugurated a system of boycotting the officers of the League, refusing Secretary Sutton, Mr. Egan and others admission to his presence on account of resolutions passed at the recent League meeting at the instance of President Fitzgerald. These resolutions declared the Pope had no right to dictate politics to the National League or interfere with its plans, and further promised to the Irish parliamentary members continued support of the National League in America to the plan of campaign as followed by the Irish leaders.

NEW YORK, May 28.—A special from London says: Reports of the speeches by Irish members in Ireland, yesterday, show careful rhetoric towards the Pope, but not towards Bishop O'Dwyer, to whom Wm.
O'Brien was very bitter. The Bishop of Cork has warned his congregation against being drawn into the use of words disrespectful to the Holy Father.

LONDON, May 28.—The Times despatch from Rome says: "Archbishop Walsh left Rome last night. He had a final audience with the Pope in which he was assured that the church had no intention of taking part in political matters, but that the decree will have to be obeyed by all good Catholics. While the Vatican will not make conformity needlessly difficult, it will not modify the decree in the least, nor release the bishops from their obligations. In high ecclesiastical circles it is felt that the bishops committed a serious error in neglecting to publish it before the politicians had taken it up. Archbishop Walsh had expressed his determination to endeavor to stop meetings on the subject and bring about submission and tranquility."

LONDON, May 28.—A despatch from Rome to the Daily News says the number of cardinals opposed to the papal rescript is larger than expected. The majority on the other side are doing their utmost to diminish the importance of the Irish demonstrations against the rescript.

ROME, May 30.
It is announced here that the Pope will send a friendly and comforting letter to the Irish bishops, expressive of his constant purpose to abstain from anything which could in the least check the true interests of the Irish national movement.
The Propaganda considers the conduct of the League and the Tablet (the latter is the organ of the English Tory Catholics), in misconstruing the papal rescript for the purpose of irritating the Irish, extremely blameable.

DUBLIN, May 31.—The Irish Catholic Archbishops and Bishops have issued an address, declaring that the Pope's decree relative to Irish affairs affects morals only, and does not interfere with politically. They warn the people and the league leaders against speaking with irreverence of the Pope, who has assured them that he does not intend to injure the Irish national movement, but desires to remove the obstacles in its way. United Ireland prides the declaration.

The Rome Tribune states that the Pope is preparing a brief for transmission to Ireland explaining his rescript.

The Rome correspondent of the Daily News learns that the Pope, through the English bishops, repeatedly asked the British government to mitigate the rigor of its measures in Ireland to facilitate the conciliatory object of the rescript.

The following cablegram has been received from the Boston Plot's special correspondent at Rome:

CHICAGO, June 1.
Undoubtedly the largest and most enthusiastic meeting of Irish Americans ever held in Chicago, and probably the greatest ever witnessed in America, was one which assembled last night to protest against the papal rescript, condemning boycotting and the plan of campaign in Ireland.
That nineteen-twentieths of the audience, as one of the speakers claimed, were Catholics as well as Irishmen, seemed very evident. In the throng were scores of leading citizens of Chicago. Resolutions were adopted declaring the Irish people have been the natural and moral right to protect themselves by every species of honorable combination and resistance; that as Catholics, true to their religious teachings of the Holy See, they refuse to recognize the right of Rome to create ex post facto offences on ex parte testimony by coercion of the people; they respectfully recommend to the court of the Vatican the realm of England as an exhaustive field for the reformation of moral conduct and emphatically protest against the offering up of Ireland as a vicarious sacrifice for the sins of their oppressors; that while wishing earnestly to avoid controversy with the venerable head of the Catholic church and his advisers, they cannot permit the right of the Irish people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness to be sacrificed to diplomatic ambitions or alleged political necessities of the court of Rome.
The Irish Catholic members of parliament are endorsed for their manly and noble stand and are pledged moral and material support and in this they invite the alliance and active co-operation of all lovers of liberty of all creeds and all races throughout the world. Many stirring addresses were made.
