Miramichi Advance,

CHATHAM, N. B. - - JANUARY 12, 1888.

NOW.

BY SUSAN COOLIDGE. When our dead are taken From our sight,

Vanish quite. All the little discords, All the fret, All the moods and puzzles,

All their faults and follies

We forget, Nothing but their sweetness We recall-

How they served us, pleased us, That is all! Only tender memories

Come to mind, Love's dear recognitions Sure and kind: Fair as are the angels Unto men

Shine those vanished faces To us then.

When our dead have left us What avails? Can they hear our voices? Thick the veils

Drawn 'twixt sense and spirit, Who can know If our love may follow Where they go?

All our bitter yearning Is in vain, Though to pierce the darkness We are fain,

Love has but its minute. Its brief day. Nor for any grieving Will delay.

Ere the cruel spoiler Disallow. If you love your loved ones, Love them now.
