Municipal Council. The Municipal Council of Northumberland met in the Court house, Newcastle, on Tuesday, July 10th. The Councilors present were as follows: -

Chatham - D. Flanagan, D. G. Smith, Newcastle - D. Morrison, Warden; Lawrence Doyle.

Session - Ephraim Hayes, Hardwick - Geo. Fowle, M. Bransfield, Glenisg - Hugh Cameron, Wm. V. Ullock, Alvirick - Romana Savoy, Jas. Seymour, Jr., Northwick - Mrs. Ryan, Wm. Jones, Southwick - James Tozer, Murdoch Sutherland, Deputy - James Robinson, John Betts, Blackville - R. N. Underhill, Edward Hayes, Blissett - E. A. Bamford, Wm. Russell, Jr., Ladlow - John Campbell, Walter R. Price, Rogerville - Peter Tubbs, D. Arsenault.

The minutes of the last Session were confirmed. Constable John Cassidy was chosen to wait on the Council.

The Sec.-Treasurer said he had received notice that the County by-road grant had been placed at the disposal of the Council for appropriation.

Coun. Betts called attention to the falling off in the by-road appropriation, and asked the Sec.-Treasurer to say what it was, as there would be disappointment when it was divided.

The Sec.-Treasurer explained that while the amount in 1887 was $4750, and in 1888 $4900, when the Councilors had the distribution of the money before him, it was this year only $2,395.

Coun. Tozer moved, seconded by Coun. Smith, that a committee of five be appointed to look upon the question of disposing of the by-road grant should be referred.

Coun. Underhill said it seemed that the money had been divided among the parishes, and would be apportioned by the Councilors for each parish when they agreed.

Coun. Smith said it was not properly before the Council for discussion on its merits.

Sec.-Treasurer said it was done in this way - The Councilors of each parish brought in a resolution for each appropriation of the money, and it was passed.

Coun. Betts considered this the proper way.

Coun. Campbell said the Councilors formerly divided the money. In what better way could it be done? The Councilors could not better than any committee how to divide it.

Coun. Smith thought the matter could be disposed of more expeditiously by a committee. The committee would probably accept the recommendations of the Councilors for the several parishes. The money had been appropriated en bloc to the Council, and not to the Councilors.

One resolution from the committee could embody the appropriations for each parish instead of there being thirteen to separately dispose of.

Coun. Bransfield said a list would have to be passed before the Council, just as for the Commissioners.

Coun. Cameron said his idea was to let the Commissioners divide the bonds.

The motion was carried, and the following committee appointed by the Warden: Tozer, Smith, Betts, Cameron and Savoy.

Coun. Smith moved that William Fenety be appointed a scaler.

The Sec.-Treasurer said that County officers could only be appointed at January Session.

Coun. Smith said he would withdraw his motion and take the other course - have the appointment made by Coun. Flanagan and himself and the Sec.-Treasurer notified thereof.

The Sec.-Treasurer said it could be done in that way.

Coun. Smith said it seemed an absurdity of the law that the Council should not have power to make such appointments as this at July Session.

Coun. Doyle said that Mr. Alex. Cummings had heard in reference to his claim for a refund of taxes.

Ordered that he be heard.

Mr. Cummings explained his grievances. He claimed a recon of taxes on account of age, being over 60. One year he had been made to pay twice.

Coun. Smith said the subject should be left to the January Session for adjudication.

The Warden said the proper course was to bring it before the Council by petition.

Coun. Betts said it had been before the Council, exhaustive evidence had been taken, and a resolution had been come to. Adjourned for dinner.

AFTERNOON SESSION. On reassembling at 2 p. m. - Coun. Bransfield enquired as to whether the committee appointed in January to get up and circulate petitions for the repeal of the Soots Act were ready to report? Adjourned until 3 o'clock for Committee work.

On reassembling at 3 o'clock the following accounts were reported upon by committee -

John Cassidy, prisoners' board, $91.80; passed.

S. Thomson, Clerk of the Peace, $30. Dr. Dumont, cert. of lunacy, $4.67. W. T. Underhill, town clerk, $12. Co. Buildings, water closets, etc., $26. S. Thomson, filing school lists, $42. Mich. O'Brien, coroner, $16.70; passed, less 50 cents for house fees, the law making no provision for the payment of such fees.

Dr. J. Weir, cert. of lunacy, $4.67; passed.

Philip Jones, repairing public wharf, $10; passed.

E. P. Williston, auditor, $50; passed. J. L. Stewart, official reporter, $10; passed.

R. Robidoux, printing French report of Council proceedings, $30; passed.

J. Shirreff, Sheriff, $265; passed, certificates to be presented at January term. Wm. Damerly, District clerk, Chatham, $5; passed less $2 for chairman's services, the law making no provision for this item.

Dr. Wier, coroner, $16.80; passed less $1.20 for witness' fees.

John Cassidy, Co. Jail, $2. Thos. Carroll, taking lunatic to Asylum, $45; passed less $10, the committee finding excessive charges.

R. Arsenault, taking lunatic to Asylum, $20; passed.

Thos. Donahue, repairing the public wharf, $6.

Coun. Savoy moved that the Sec.-Treasurer pay over $6, the amount received from Vital Allen, commissioner of highways, Alvirick, to J. L. Robichaud, his successor. Carried.

Coun. Flanagan moved that $11.93 be paid to John Currie for repairing the pound, Chatham. Carried.

Coun. Bamford read a petition from Thos. Dunn, praying for exemption from taxation to Blissett. Referred to Coun. on Petitions.

Coun. Ryan presented the return of Andrew Metchett, surveyor of roads. Correct.

Coun. Ryan presented the return of John Shadwick, surveyor of roads, district No. 2, Northwick. Correct. Pay over $2.39 to successor in office.

On a basis of $2500. Referred to Coun. on Petitions.

Coun. Betts was called to the chair, the Warden desiring to bring some business before the Council.

Warden Morrison presented the report of the Jail Committee.

That the old jail, at a cost of $123.36 for repairs, had been changed to a dwelling house, which could be let to families, or as a boarding house, that it had been leased to Mrs. Haynes at $120 a year; they recommended that it receive new sills and two coats of paint, and a picket fence be built around it; that a new barn be built for the new jail and the jail be enclosed by a close board fence; and that the court house be repaired and painted.

Coun. Smith moved that the report be received and considered section by section. Carried.

Coun. Smith moved that the first section be passed. The committee had acted very wisely. Carried.

Coun. Smith asked what would be the cost of new sills, painting and fence, and how was the roof?

Warden Morrison could not say what the cost would be. The roof was in good condition.

Coun. Smith said the Council should have an estimate of cost instead of giving the committee carte blanche.

Warden Morrison said an estimate would not be much good, as even though they were expended fifty per cent, the Council would pay the bill. It might be necessary to put up a small kitchen, and thus fit the building for two families.

Coun. Smith moved in amendment that the committee be authorized to renew the sills and paint the building (two coats) provided the cost did not exceed $125, the matter to be deferred until January session unless the work could be done for that amount.

Amendment carried.

Coun. Flanagan moved, as a substitute for section third, that a paling fence be built around the building. Carried.

Warden Morrison urged the necessity of building a new barn for the jail. He said that should the Sheriff seize a horse the present barn was not in a sufficiently good condition to keep it in safety.

Coun. Smith thought there was no necessity for a barn to be provided at County expense as a place of custody for horses which might be seized by the sheriff. Such seizures were made under civil process - in private suits - with which the County had nothing to do. The jailer, as such, did not need a horse in the discharge of his duties. If he needed a horse it must be in connection with his duties as a civil officer - a matter with which the County was, in no way chargeable.

Warden Morrison considered it equally as necessary to provide for seized horses as arrested men.

Coun. Smith said, to save time, he would ask the Sec.-Treasurer to instruct the Council as to whether he or the Warden was right.

The Secretary-Treasurer said it was no part of the County's duty to provide a place for horses or other property which might be seized by the Sheriff.

Coun. Cameron thought it best to withhold any more money from the committee until it were seen whether they expended what had been given judiciously. Deferred.

Section fourth, new fence around the new jail, was adopted.

Section fifth, respecting the court house, was deferred until the January session.

Warden Morrison read the petition of Jas. H. Phinney asking for a renewal of a lease now held by him for 21 years at $34 a year. Referred to Committee on Petitions.

Warden Morrison moved that the public wharf committee be authorized to have such repairs made on the public wharf as may be necessary for the safety and protection of the property, a rubbish heap there being a source of danger.

Coun. Smith said there was no doubt about the rubbish that had been placed on the property referred to, being a source of danger to the locality, but the Public Wharf committee had neglected its duty in not preventing such rubbish from being placed there. The committee had the power but he understood that although its members objected to the place being made a dumping-ground for mill refuse they had gone so further. Instead, therefore, of doing their duty they came to Council and without giving any information as to the cost of the proposed "repairs," asked authority to spend what they pleased. He would inform the Council that there was not and never had been anything to repair, but it was simply a new wharf that was proposed to be built, and while it might be necessary to do that it was wrong in principle to give any committee unlimited power to expend County money in any locality. He, therefore, moved that the matter be referred until the January Session so that the Wharf committee might be able to give Council an idea of what they proposed to do and about how much the new wharf would cost.

Warden Morrison said the placing of rubbish there had enhanced the value of the property provided some necessary work were done. The place is dangerous at present. The cost would not be much.

The rubbish should be leveled, an embankment built, and the Customs House authorities induced to extend their drain.

Coun. Smith said he understood that the parties who put the rubbish there did it contrary to the expressed wishes of the committee or some of its members; at least a gentleman who now seemed to think it all right had shown him the place and complained of the parties interfering unduly with County property. He found, however, that same man had one story privately, outside of the Council, and quite a different one inside of it.

Warden Morrison said nobody had interfered with the depositors of the rubbish. The committee had taken no interest in it.

Amendment defeated by the casting vote of the chairman.

Warden resigned the chair.

The resolution was carried by the casting vote of the Warden.

Account of Geo. S. Stothart, $122.36, for repairs on old jail building; passed.

Account of J. E. Fitzgerald, pump for new jail, $35; passed.

Coun. Tozer presented the report of the By-road Committee.

The committee on by-road appropriations beg to report that they find placed at the disposal of the Council the sum of $2,395 for the year, which is not 50 per cent of the average sum annually received from the Legislature for this service in the County of Northumberland.

While the council, at its last session, affirmed the principle of the by-road appropriation being placed under the control of the Council, the committee recommended that Council express its decided opinion that for members of the by-road to expend more than one half of the annual grant and hand the balance over to this Council to be disposed of, is neither or consistent with the principle affirmed by Council nor conducive to the best administration of the important service concerned.

It is, however, the protection of the important interests involved does not admit of delay, we recommend the distribution of the portion of by-road appropriations at the disposal of Council be as follows: -

BLACKVILLE. Maurice Hayes, Lower Dist., $ 85 00; Albert Underhill, Middle dist., 100 00; Jas. Weaver, Upper dist., 105 00; $290 00

HARDWICKE. John B. Williston, No. 1, 40 00; Jos. B. Williston, No. 2, 40 00; John Nash, No. 3, 80 00; $200 00

GLENELO. Thos. Ullock, No. 1, $67 00; Lawrence Reinborough, No. 2, 67 00; Angus Russell, No. 3, 66 00; $200 00

BLISSETT. Michael Hannan, C. R., $40 00; Samuel D. Betts, Upper Dist., 40 00; Robert Aor, Lower Dist., 60 00; $140 00

LUDLOW. C. R. Whalen, $75 00

NORTHICK. Peter Russell, No. 1, $80 00; John O'Shea, No. 2, 80 00; John R. Allison, No. 3, 80 00; $240 00

SOUTHICK. John Murphy, (upper), $80 00; Jas. Park, (middle), 30 00; Wm. Taylor (lower), 40 00; $150 00

CHATHAM. To be appropriated as councilors may instruct, $200 00

NEWCASTLE. To be appropriated as councilors may instruct, $200 00

ROGERSVILLE. Philip Arsenault, $50 00; John McLean, 50 00; Hypolite J. Burke, 58 00; $158 00

ALVIRICK. John Bowie (upper), $ 30 00; John L. Underhill (middle), 120 00; Donald McEachran (lower), 100 00; $250 00

DEBRY. Levi Gerrish (upper), $25 00; Hugh Parker, (lower), 50 00; $75 00

NEELSON. Bernard Reynolds, No. 1, $ 90 00; Alex. Harper, No. 2, 80 00; John Sullivan No. 3, 80 00; $250 00

Coun. Tozer moved that the Soot Act bills laid over at the last session be paid pro rata as far as the fines on hand would go.

Coun. Smith said the money in the Secy. Treasurer's hands, accrued from Soot Act fines, could only be expended for the purposes of the Act and should be expended, but it should not be done without the exercise of a just discrimination. It was quite legal for any man to become a private informant and prosecutor under the act if it suited his taste to be active in that capacity. When, however, such an individual set the law in motion, as a volunteer for the work, he ought not to be considered as on the same footing as others who, by virtue of their official positions, the requirements of professional practice or of processes of law, were called upon to spend their time or give their services as the result of the action thus taken. It was a correct principle that witnesses, constables and counsel fees should first be discharged and the other parties considered afterwards.

To illustrate the unfairness of the pro-rata proposition he directed attention to the bills just read - all of which it was proposed to include in the pro-rata arrangement - amounting to $40, in cash, paid by counsel Thomson to the Attorney-General. Was it equitable that this gentleman should be obliged to receive back only a small part of this sum, which he had paid out in good faith in prosecuting the cases brought by the informant? He thought the Council would see the impropriety of such a proposition and, therefore, moved in amendment that the money in question in the Secretary-Treasurer's hands be appropriated to the payment of the bills presented in the following order: -

1st, Witness fees.

2nd, Constables' fees.

3rd, Counsel fees.

4th, other expenses of prosecuting the act.

Coun. Bransfield said the object of the amendment was, evidently, to prevent the private prosecutors from getting anything, and he could not support it.

Coun. Betts moved in amendment to the amendment that the matter be referred to a committee of five, to report in half an hour. Lost.

The amendment was lost, 11 to 13, and the original motion was carried by the casting vote of the Warden. Yeas - Price, Bamford, Tozer, Russell, Sutherland, Betts, Cameron, Fowle, Bransfield, Stymiest, Savoy, Doyle, Nays - Ryan, Jones, Campbell, Hayes (Northwick) Underhill, Robinson, Arsenault, Thibodeau, Hayes (Neelson), Flanagan, Ullock, Smith. Adjourned for supper.

EVENING. Council reassembled at 7.

Coun. Betts read the petition of Wm. E. Germaine, per F. E. Winslow, praying for a further lease of certain lots on the public wharf, Newcastle, for 21 years, at such rental as the reduced value of the lots warrants. Referred. Adjourned for committee work.

On reassembling - Coun. Savoy from the committee on petitions, reported on the petition of John Shirreff, for W. J. Fraser, that the matter lay over till January; on the petition of J. H. Phinney, that it be granted; on the petition of F. E. Winslow, that the leases be renewed for 20 years, at $7 reduction on one lease or $8 and the other after which the rent would be as agreed upon; on the petition of Thos. Dunn, that it be referred to the assessors of Blissett.

Coun. Tozer moved that $500 insurance be effected on the old jail on three years franchise law case in force, and what were its provisions.

Sec. Treasurer said he hadn't had time to look into it. He would get copies and give Councilors any information required.

Coun. Tozer moved that Councilors be paid the usual mileage. Carried.

Coun. Smith moved that the rent of the Chatham lock-up be paid for six months, $82. Carried.

Coun. Flanagan moved that Policeman Irving Cheam be paid his bill for prisoners' board on its being certified by the Police Committee. Carried.

Coun. Smith moved that Constable Cassidy be paid for attendance. Carried. Adjourned sine die.

Salmon Hatching. A Southwick correspondent writes under date of 4th inst. as follows: -

Editor of the Advance: of your paper you treated your readers to a startling piece of news, namely, the vast number of Salmon fry that was put into the different places of the Miramichi and its tributaries. May I respectfully ask you what becomes of the fish afterwards that are put in at the different places mentioned? The only conclusion I can come to is that they grow and they are thrown into the rivers and chub and eat them up in the course of the summer. The only parties who receive any benefit by the Hatchery or rather slaughter house, are those who have charge of it and those who haul up the water cans and sickly fry. Some years ago, before the rains when there were, I think, 3000 salmon in the hatchery, I netted 300 fish, and now I might fish for 30 days and not do well or catch as many.

In conclusion, I beg to say that if any honest man can show me that the Hatchery is not a curse, but a benefit to the country, I shall be silenced on the subject and I thank him for enlightening me. AN EX-FISHERMAN.

(Our correspondent seems to take an extreme view of the late James Thomson. There was in former times - when Inspector Venning was acting as overseer of the establishment - gross misrepresentation of its operations and quite a scandal arose out of his attempts to deceive the Department and public in that connection. Of late, however, similar complaints have not been made, and the presumption is that the establishment is more honestly conducted. In 1879 the Department was recommended to change its methods of distributing the product of the hatchery, viz., to deposit salmon in suitable streams a week or two before the hatching out period, so that the fry might emerge from the shell into their natural element and be able to take care of themselves. This proposition, however, was rejected on political grounds, and the old system of distributing, some time after the hatching out, was continued. The young fish, being thus accustomed to receive food from the hatchery keeper, learn to expect themselves to be fed rather than to take care of themselves in the natural rivers and, in that way, the best results are not realized.

There is no doubt of the benefits resulting from properly conducted hatcheries, although we are still of the opinion we expressed years ago, viz., that if the money were expended in properly conducting the hatcheries, it would be a great benefit in operation on it, it would be of greater benefit in maintaining the fishery.

As to the decline of the Northwest salmon fisheries, as proved by our correspondent's experience as a fisherman, it is hardly conclusive evidence against the hatchery. He is not a fisherman, and when both fishermen and dealers have conspired together to capture and ship bass of all sizes, is it any wonder that the fishery is a starting decline both in operation there, and in that way, the best results are not realized.

It is more reasonable to believe that the fishery is a starting decline both in operation there, and in that way, the best results are not realized.
