EVENING SCHOOL: - A competent and experienced teacher is desirous of opening an Evening School, if sufficient encouragement offers. Will parties desiring such an opportunity please apply at once to me at the Manse, Wellington St. N. McKAY. Chatham, 23rd Jan., 1889.

THE CARNIVAL AND RACES at the Newcastle Rink, which were to have *come off on Monday evening last, and were postponed on account of the storm of that day, will take place tomorrow, Friday evening. The preparations being made for the event warrant the anticipation of a most enjoyable evening. Don't miss it!

A CONCERT-ENTERTAINMENT by the ladies of the Church of England, Dalhousie-assisted most kindly by members of other denominations-was held in the Mechanics' tall in that town on Thursday evening last, 17th inst It was preceded during the afternoon by an Apron Fair, which was quite a success. The evening en ertainment was however the great attraction and was very successful. It consisted of charades, tableaux, singing and instrumental music. All the parts were well sustained, and merited and received great praise, the whole entertainment | field. being highly spoken of by those who witnessed it.

It is, we believe, the intention of the ladies to repeat it at Campbellton this (Thursday) evening, and we trust they will meet with deserved success.

"THE BANK TRAGEDY" is the title of serial story of great power, written by Mrs. Hatch, author of "The Upland Mystery," which was published in the Transcript two years ago, which has since then had a sale of about 106,000 copies in book form. The new serial is a detective story, the plot of which is constructed guessing the plots of half-read novel-The scene is laid in northern New Hampshire, but some of the tragic and remantic incidents of a recent famous bank case in Maine are worked into it. The sory is being published in the Portland Transcript, beginning Jan. 2d. The publishers offer several premiums for the best guesses the plot sent in by subscribers before Feb. 20th. A Richibucto correspondent writes :-This community has quite recently been called upon to mourn the loss of one of its most respected and useful members, in the person of Thomas Wetmore Bliss, Esq., who died at an early hour on Friday morning, 18th inst., aged 68 years. Mr Bliss resided in this County for upwards of thirty-five years. For a short time he held the office of High Sheriff, and, in 1864, he was appointed Registrar of Deeds and Wills, which office he held till the day of his death. He was also Sti pendiary Magistrate and Parish Court Commissioners. For a quarter of a century he was Secretary of Lodge St. Andrew F. & A. M. As a temperance man he ever took a prominent part in the affairs of the order, always being closely identified with its workings, and in many sections of the Province his name had, in this respect, become a household word. He was a warm f iend, a kind neighbor, a just judge-tempering mercy with justice and a prompt and efficient officer. His death has left a vacancy in business and liam and Stratton, are in Montana, and the remaining two, Upham and Carman, residing at the homestead. The funeral on Sunday afternoon was the largest that has been known in the town for many years. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Robert Hutchinson, C. J Sayre, J. D. Phinney, Isaac W. Doherty William Bowser and W. D. Carter. The Masons of Lodge St. Andrew, the mem bers of Richibucto Division S. of T. and the cadets of Campbell Section preceded ed the remains to their last resting place A short but able funeral sermon was preached in St. Mary's Church by Rev. D. V. Gwilym.
