THE FROZEN PIRATE.

BY W. CLARK RUSSELL. [Continued.] CHAPTER VI. AN ISLAND OF ICE.

I had to approach the coast within two miles before I could countenance northwards. satisfy my mind of its nature. and then all doubt left me.

It was ice! a mighty cresent of it—as was now in a measure gatherable, floating upon the dark blue waters like the new moon upon the field of the sky. For a great while I had struggled with my misgivings, so tyrannically will hope lord it even over conviction itself, until it was impossible for me to any longer mistake. And then, when breakwater, whose stilling in- the heavens to satisfy myself on I knew it to be ice, I asked myself what other thing I expected it should prove, seeing that this ocean had been plentifully navi-gated since Cook's time and no land discovered where I was; and I called myself a fool and cursed the hope that had cheated me, and, in short, gave way to a violent outburst of passion, and was indeed so wild with grief and rage that, had my ecstasy been but a very little greater, I must have jumped overboard, so great was my loathing of life then, and the horror the sight of the ice filled me with. In places the coast ran up to the height of two or three hun- it as in the boat. ## SUTHERLAND & CREACHAN.

NEWCASTLE AND CHATHAM.

We wish respectfully to acquaint the people of Miramichi and the surrounding Country that the ever-increasing demands on our business, especially from Chatham and the lower parishes of this County, warrant and necesitate a wider scope and extension of our trade in that direction. We have, herefore, in order to meet the wants and convenience of the public, purchased the store and prem-

FIRST-CLASS DRY GOODS WAREHOUSE,

ON SATUR., 1st DECEMBER, under the supervision of our MR. SUTHERLAND York, Boston and Montreal, buying for prompt Cash, Scaples and Novelties for our Christmas and Winter Trade. This will be a splendid opportunity for House-Keepers, Traders and Store-Keepers, in Chatham, as well as Newcastle, to get goods from first hands as we treat directly with Mann-facturers. Everything New, Stylish and Durable, will be kept, that is found in a First-Class Store, No cheap catch-penny, 3 cent grey cotton will meet the discerning eye, but, a systematic, SWEEPING AND GENERAL REDUCTION, will permeate every line of our immense 3tock—SILK AS WELL AS COTTON.

Comparison, Competition and Judgment are a test of merit. We place WORTH OF MERCHANDISE at the energy of buyers and point with pleasure to the confidence we have gained for foir trading and low profits for the past 15 yeras, during which time we have been making deadly atticks on high prices and trash; bills and now respectfully solicit a continuance of the kind appreciation of the public. Sutherland & Creaghan, - Wholesale & Retail, Direct.
