ITCHING ACONIES

Every Night I Scratched until the Skin was Raw. Body covered with scales like spots Of mortar. An awful Spectacle. Doctors useless. Cure hopeless. Entirely cured by the Cuticura Remedies in five weeks, I am going to tell you of the extraordinary change your CUTICURA REMEDIES performed on About the 1st of April last I noticed some red pimples like coming out all over my body, but thought nothing of it until some time later on when it began to look like spots of mortar spotted on, and which came off in layers, accompanied with itching. I would scratch every night until I was raw, then the next night the scales formed meanwhile, were scratched off again. In vain did I consult all the doctors hope of recovery, I happened to see an advertise notice that the scaly eruptions graduall droped off and disappeared one by one, and have been fully cured. I had the disease thirteen months before I began taking the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and in four or five weeks was entire cured. My disease was eczema and psoriasis. ecommended the CUTICURA REMEDIES to all my vicinity, and I know of a great many who have taken them, and thank me for the knowledge of them, especially mothers who have babes with scalp eruptions on their heads and bodies. I cannot express in words the thanks to you for what the CUTICURA REMEDIES have been to me My body was covered with scales, and I was an awful spectacle to behold. Now my skin is nice and clear as a baby's.

The U. S. General Assembly and Temperance.

It appears that after the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States had, at its session in New York, passed the amendment declaring for temperance generally in preference to its committee's report in favor of prohibition, the prohibitionists -by pleading that the action taken would injuriously affect the then pending vote in Pennsylvania on the adoption of the constitutional amendmentinduced that body to pass the following :-

"That we hereby reiterate the deliversympathy with the widespread popular the laborer of this part of Canada movement now in progress in favor of the complete suppression of the traffic in intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and we bid all wise and popular methods to secure this issue a hearty God-speed."

The General Assembly, in reaffirming the deliverances of former Assemblies on the subject of temperance, calls particular attention to the deliverance of 1883, as

Canadian Militia Clothing. [The Broad Arrow, June 29, 1889.]

Sir Adolphe Caron's organ, the Canadian Militia Gazette, is still very irate at

"Canadian's" letter published in our issue of 27th October last. This letter raised the important question of the administration of the Militia Department, and after a great deal of discussion in the Canadian press, in which "Canadian's" views were upheld with singular unanimity, agitation ended in the matter being all the Newest Shades. Also, brought before the House of Commons by Mr. Mulock, member for North York, Covers, Carriage Wraps, Piano Ontario, who moved on the 25th April, it collapsed and disappeared from "That the administration of the Depart. ment of Militia and Defence at Octawa as at present constituted, is unsatisfactory The air ship and its two occupants to the militia force of Canada, and does not command public confidence." There was a long discussion, which ended in a strictly party vote, supporting the Ministhe debate some interesting facts came out regarding contracts. Mr. Jones. member for Halifax, and formerly Minispointed out that Mr. Sandford, of the Sandford Manufacturing Co., Hamilton, who, by the way, is a Senator, received orders for the supply of clothing, which was of proved inferior quality as compared with that furnished by Mesers. Webb. England, who for many years supplied the Canadian forces to the entire satisfac that the Sandford Company actually received 55 per cent. more than the contract price offered by Messrs. Webb. Cavalry tunies, which could be imported for $5.00. were supplied by the Sandford Company at the rate of $7 01 each. clothing, which was offered by Messrs. Webb for $3.83, cost, by the Senatorial contractor, $5.89 each. Artillery tunics. which could be imported for $3,92, cost $6.04. The intantry scarlet tunic, which Webb & Co. offered to deliver at $3.21. cost $5.00 by the Sandford contract, and so on. These facts Sir Adolph Caron dice not attempt to deny, but he went off the N. P. and all the side issues he could raise, justifying his action and the policy of the Government on the ground that he Esq., on the order of the Department at | was not going to spend the money in a "foreign" country. If the Canadians are content to have themselves taxed in this benefit of a member of the Upper House, known at Ottawa, but he had so often set the Department at defiance and inwell and good, but we doubt it. The Canadian Militia Gazette, in its duced it to condone his offences, that we issue of the 6th inst., remarks on the re production in a number of Canadian sion. Even now, we haven't the slightpapers of some severe comment on the est doubt that he will be whitewashed. management of the Militia Department, based on letters written to the English half, that he knows enough to make it Service journals, and expresses surprise worth his superiors' while not to push that the Broad Arrow, which published and commented on one of these, had such ing disclosures. We shall see whether unbounded faith in the honesty of th the results in their dealing with his statements contained in the letter signed with the "dishonest nom de plume," "Canadian." The Canadian Militia Gazette, after having already made several bad shots, now discovers that "Canadian" is no Canadian at all, but a British officer who had been disappointed in certain expectations in Canada. We wish at once to assure the Canadian Militia Gazette that he is wrong. "Canadian" is a true ersigns was struck.
