Owing to the neglect of many of our Subscribers to pay their subscriptions, we have found it necessary to adopt the rule of hereafter rigidly adhering to our published terms, viz., to make the price of the Advance $2 a year to all who do not prepay their subscriptions.

We therefore, give notice that from the present time all who are in arrears will be required to settle at the rate of $2 per year.

Subscribers who are now in arrears will—if they pay before 5th January—be settled with at the advance rate of $1.50.

INCORPORATED.—Cambridge will this year have two incorporated towns. Springfield has probably the larger population but much less wealth than Amherst. —Telegraph.

Twenty years ago there was an almost unbroken forest where Springfield stands. As to its wealth it is far ahead of that of Amherst, for it has, lying almost beneath it, a series of the heaviest and best coal seams in the world.

PERSONAL.—Mr. W. A. Kerr, who spent the holidays at home, has left for Minneapolis, Minn., where he expects to complete his studies for the legal profession. THERE HAS RECENTLY BEEN SHIPPED from Smith's Falls, Ont. to Boston a trainload of turkeys worth no less than forty five thousand dollars, and although the shippers were fined four thousand five hundred dollars for shipping these padded Canadian birds into the United States, they were able to pay the farmers more for them than the market dealers in Ottawa. Here is an opportunity for the restrictions to prove that the farmers who sold these turkeys to Americans instead of to Canadians were traitors to their country, and that Canada would be ruined by making such transactions free. —Montreal Witness.

A NEW INDUSTRY.—It is not generally known, perhaps, that a considerable quantity of spruce gum has been shipped within a year or so from Nova Scotia to the United States. During the past month or so over a thousand pounds were shipped from Shubenacadie station. It brings a dollar a pound in the Boston market, it being chiefly used in the manufacture of the fine quality of rubber goods. The gum pickers get fifty cents a pound for it from the local dealers. It is one of the few things that the American tariff makers have forgotten to deal with and it is admitted free. It did not elude the vigilance of the sagacious Canadian statesmen, as our tariff imposes a duty of 20 per cent. ad valorem. It is to be hoped that the American government will not retaliate, for in that case the spruce gum trade will be "up a tree."

A BIG WORK.—We presume that few, who hang their Ayer's Almanac on their mantels, from year to year, have any idea of the vast number of these pamphlets issued annually by the publishers, Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., of Lowell, Mass., manufacturers of the famous Ayer's Sarsaparilla and other standard remedies. We are assured that from thirteen to fourteen million copies of Ayer's Almanac, in as many as ten principal languages, are printed every year. To accomplish this stupendous work, the publishers use a machine which prints and folds, ready for the binder, a hundred thousand almanacs daily, turning off at the rate of a hundred and eighty thousand a minute, and consuming about twenty-five miles of paper each day! These astounding facts and figures are given in the preface to a neat volume of the Almanac for 1889, containing specimen copies of the several editions in English and in nine other languages, also pages of pamphlets in eleven additional languages. This book, which the publishers will please accept our thanks, will, we have no doubt, be appreciated by many as a rare literary curiosity. Your druggist can supply you with Ayer's Almanac in the usual attractive form.

Masonic Funeral.—The remains of the late Henry Cope were interred in St. James' Church burial ground on Friday last at Masonic ceremony. Deputy Grand Master E. Lee Street officiating. There were several members of Miramichi Lodge as well as other visitors present. The members turned out in force to perform their melancholy duty. Brother Cope was 77 years of age, and was one of the oldest masons on the roll of Northumberland Lodge. —Advocate.

Notice and Warning.—Subscribers will please note that our object in placing the date at which their subscriptions expire on the colored address slips, which they always see pasted at the top of last page, is in order to inform them of the time at which it is their duty to pay their subscriptions.

Finding most of them indifferent in the matter, we are, at times, obliged to send them their bills, which ought not to be necessary, when the position in which their accounts stand is made known to them each week as regularly as they receive the paper.

After they get up to the trouble of making up the bill, and paying postage thereon to them, far too many pay no attention thereto, but continue to receive and read the paper, without apparently realizing that they are treating the publisher very shabbily.

When a paper is mailed week after week to a subscriber, and he knows, all the while, that he is shirking the duty of paying for it; and when, after the publisher has been obliged to pay postage to remind him of his neglect he still withholds what is due, simply because he may think the sum is not large enough to pay a collector to go, personally, after it, becomes necessary to resort to more effective and unpleasant methods of collection.

A notice at the top of the first column on this page is particularly addressed to our tardy friends, and as our business interests make prompt collections necessary, we intend, at the beginning of the new year, to charge up all overdue subscription accounts at the uniform rate of $2 a year and place every one of them in the hands of our attorneys for collection.

We prefer to have the relationship between ourselves and our subscribers pleasant and agreeable, but cannot afford to send them the ADVANCE every week and pay postage on requests for payment and be utterly ignored, without getting out of patience. When those that are now shirking payment find the lawyers after them, and have to pay at the rate of $2 a year, with the costs added, they will wish they had been considered enough to settle at the rate of $1.50 when they had the opportunity to do so.

Delinquent subscribers are particularly notified that after Jan. 5th, when their accounts are placed out of our hands, they will have to deal with our lawyers, as we do not propose to then interfere with the process of summary collection of the full amounts due, and costs. Every one of them—save those who have other business besides our books—can inform himself as to what he owes by consulting the pink date-slip on the top margin of the first page.

Farmers' Association.

The Annual Meeting of the Provincial Farmers' Association for 1888 will be held in Fredericton on the 16th, 17th and 18th inst.

Mr. F. P. Sharp, the well known fruit grower and nurseryman of Woodstock, will read a paper on Fruit-culture, and the various papers will be on hand for its discussion.

Professor Saunders, Director of the Dominion Experimental Farms, and Colonel Blair, Manager of the Martletown Provincial Farm, will explain fully the work and aims of the Experimental Farms.

Dairying will be presented with skill and variety by several prominent practical dairymen from Nova Scotia and Maine, as well as from New Brunswick.

Sheep-handling will have its supporters and much valuable information may be expected on this subject.

Professor Bailey, of the University of N. B., will give a paper descriptive of "The Conditions of Farm Life in New Brunswick."

Another interesting and extended programme will be presented and the meeting deserves the attendance of all practical progressive farmers in the Province. It is held at a time when many of the County Councils are holding their Annual Session, and doubtless the practical information on subjects of the highest importance to them in their calling.

Fishermen's Association.

A very largely attended meeting of the Salmon (Net) Fishermen of the Parish of Durham, Colborne and Kent, was held at River Charlotte on Thursday, 27th December, for the purpose of discussing the desirability of forming an association of Fishermen and others to protect the interests of the net fishermen of the county.

Charles Stewart, Esq., of Dalhousie, was chosen chairman, P. Hamilton, Jr., Esq., of Colborne, secretary of the meeting.

The whole question of the rights of the fishermen, Government Regulations, restriction of the use of nets, and the regulation of fishing in connection with license, as well as the question of rod fishing in the River Restigouche, as practised at present were fully discussed. It was decided that as many as possible of the fishermen of the lower parishes would be invited to a meeting to be held at Campbellton on Thursday, 3rd January next, when a county organization would be perfected and such measures taken as would bring the whole question fairly and fully before the government.

It was further decided that the whole question requires more than the ex parte statements of local fishery officials to determine what is an equitable settlement. Judging from the influential standing of the men who attended the River Charlotte meeting some satisfactory solution of the vexed questions of the regulation of fishing, regulations of the Department of Marine and Fisheries and justice of the regulation of the Local Government with reference to the frontage of land to be granted for settlement on the river, may yet be arrived at in the near future.

Presentation.

A number of the lady members of the Sewing Circle in connection with St. James' Church, Newcastle, recently presented Mrs. Wm. Atkin, with a very beautiful silk engraving representing a shipwreck—rich and suggestive in idea. Amid the awful confusion—the ship broken and the angry waters seething and boiling around it—you can see contrasted with this, a noble and self-sacrificing calmness depicted on every countenance as the command is given to transfer to the Life Boat "Women and Children first!" The picture is very large, set in a broad massive frame of rich gilding and edged with plush. It is in every respect a masterpiece of art, and the names of the ladies interested in the presentation, Mrs. McLagan, Mrs. Stables, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Stoddard, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Frank Morrison, Mrs. Donald Morrison, Mrs. J. Nicholson, Mrs. E. Elliot, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. C. E. Fish, Mrs. Watt, Miss Davidson, Miss E. Robinson, etc.

A Horrible Christmas Tragedy.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 26. —A horrible Christmas tragedy happened in south-western Manitoba yesterday. A farmer named A. J. Halford lived at noon for his home near Norway, carrying liquor. His wife and three small children were with him. He had been drinking and was very excited. He drove on to Norway, returning home this morning with a neighbor to find the children at a neighbor's house and his wife lying face down in the snow. He then only fully realized the horror of the deed when he found the children dead. He has been placed in custody at Norway and the coroner wired for. His wife had always been a very violent temper when in liquor.

FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE AFFAIR. Dec. 27: Halford, the wife murderer, has been sent to Winnipeg to await his trial. Mrs. Halford was in a fort night of confinement, and warned by previous experiences fled as he approached on the fatal night. The nearest neighbor, a man named Elder, on returning home Christmas night found Halford and his children there in bed, but as the family had taken refuge with them before, and he knew the father had when the husband and father was drunk, his only son, he came to Elder's at daylight in the morning and asked the children to go home, but they begged to be left where they were. Halford was down spirited and started for home. Elder followed him and on reaching Halford's, Elder asked him where his wife was, but his husband apparently didn't know. Elder passed on to make a search for her, when Halford excitedly called "I've found my wife and she's dead." There was the poor woman a few yards from her own door, with her arms outstretched and her face smashed into an almost unrecognizable pulp. A pitchfork handle was broken in three pieces, and blood with blood. Elder accused Halford with murdering his wife, and Halford replied, "Yes, I struck her with my hand."

Halford remained there in the night, and Elder went for authority to arrest him. There being no coroner in the locality the culprit was brought to Winnipeg this evening and confined in goal.

Hardwick Notes.

PRESENTATION TO A TEACHER. DEAR ADVANCE.—The pupils of Dist. No. 4, Parish of Hardwick at the close of the present term, presented their teacher with a handsome Lady's Companion accompanied with the following address:—MISS MCDONNELL, TEACHER OF SCHOOL NO. 4 DISTRICT, HARDWICK.

Dear Teacher and Friend.—We, your pupils, cannot allow the pleasant relations which have existed between us for the last two years to be broken, without thanking you for all the pains and trouble you have taken with us during that time in conveying to us not only secular knowledge on week days, but also religious instruction on Sundays. The great interest you have always taken in the school as evidenced by the present state of the building and grounds, in addition to your well known ability in imparting instruction will long cause you to be remembered as a teacher in this district.

We beg of you to accept this little gift as a slight token of the esteem in which we hold you, and we hope that wherever your lot may be cast for the future, you will sometimes think kindly of your former pupils in Hardwick.

Lillie A. Dickerson, Katie B. McDonald, Hubert H. Williston, Leslie G. Gagnon, Charles McLean, Mary Jane McLean, James A. Mills, and others.

Hardwick, 15th Dec., '88. The teacher thanked them warmly and said it was an unexpected kindness. Circumstances over which she had no control, compelled her to resign her position as their teacher. She would always think kindly of them, and would be glad to receive their letters. She wished to be remembered kindly by them, and that they would sometimes remember her in their prayers.

Miss McDougall has had charge of this School for the past two years, and was an efficient and painstaking teacher, and the parents regret very much that she has given up the situation.

ECUMENICAL SCHOOL.

Miss Perley, the popular teacher of this School, has decided to still retain charge of the training of young Ecumenical.

RAY DU VIN.

Miss Gjerdt also remains at this school and if what every one says is true, she is the right teacher to tame the young Bay du Viners, as they need a firm hand to guide them, if they are anything after the style of their respected parents.

A CHRISTMAS GOOSE.

A middle-aged lady, Mrs. Magg: McIntyre, captured on the Eel River ice, Christmas Eve, what she thought was a large wild goose. The battle which she had with him was decidedly warm, but his goosehood had to succumb to her. The bird, however, was a very large one, and the goose was examined it was found to be a very large loon which somehow lost the use of his wings. Magg: McIntyre for her Christmas dinner to put up with loon. She says that it did not make a bad roast at all.

SMEETS.

The fishing day in Hardwick this year was fair with good wind. At the present time the fishing is poor, with the exception of Bay du Vin Island which, up to Christmas Eve, was very good. No ice out of Fox Island and very little inside the Bay.
