

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

MAID-SERVANT WANTED:—See advt.

Pink's cure for Consumption and Pilo's remedy for Catarrh are sold by J. D. B. F. MacKenzie, Druggist, Chatham.

PROVINCIAL APPOINTMENTS:—Henry F. McLatchy, Daniel Murray, M. D., and Victor A. Veaner, M. D., to be members of the Board of School Trustees for Campbellton, in the County of Restigouche. Henry F. McLatchy to be chairman of the board.

SMOKE THE OTELLO, the best ten cent cigar in the market. For sale wholesale and retail at Z. Tingley's, Chatham.

ALL SAINTS DAY:—Tomorrow, Friday being the Festival of All Saints, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.30 a. m. in St. Mary's church, and morning and evening prayers at the usual hours.

THE SCHOONER "JOHN McLAGGAN" owned by Edward Sinclair, Esq., of Bridgetown, is reported lost with all hands on 19th September, at or near Laguna, Mexico.

Mr. G. W. Cooke of Dunlop, Cooke & Co., Merchant Tailors, Amherst, is in town, and will be at the Adams' House for a few days to receive orders from his firm's customers in Chatham and vicinity.

THEFT FROM THE DEAD:—Hugh McGovern, of Ohio, Kent Co. whose wife died recently, claims that parties who prepared the body for burial stole a purse containing a sum of money, also a gold ring and dress. He has obtained legal advice and will take action against John Bowser, McGovern's wife's step-father, and Mrs. Bowser. Telegraph.

INSURED AT ONCE:—Mr. WALTER C. WINSLOW has been authorized by the British America Assurance Company to accept all classes of fire risks, issue policies and make endorsements, without delay or reference to the head office.

MRS. ROBERT SWIM'S DEATH:—Mrs. Swim, wife of Robert Swim, Esq., died at her residence in Daughton on Monday, 21st inst. The deceased, who had been ill for some time past, was in the 58th year of her age.

SUNFLOWER SEED:—The Richibucto Review says: One bushel of the Russian Sunflower seed has been raised by Gordon Livingston this season. From some heads over nine hundred seeds were broken; and from the champion blossom twelve hundred and fifty-two seeds were counted.

SUDDEN DEATH:—Mr. Patrick Kirby, an old and respected resident of Chatham, who had been at work at his trade—shoemaking—on Saturday morning last, complained of feeling unwell and lay down in the afternoon in his bedroom, where he was found dead a short time afterwards. His funeral, which took place on Monday, was very largely attended.

A SMASH:—On Monday night about two o'clock the breaking of an iron strap connected with the engine at the electric light-station caused the smashing of the cylinder-head and the complete disabling of the engine. A number of machinists, under Mr. Charles Johnston, succeeded in making repairs, so that the lights were all right again last night.

THE FISHERIES:—Fisheries Inspector Chapman of Moncton, was in town on Tuesday, accompanied by Overseer Hogan. We understand that he is now visiting portions of the Northwest and will go down river to-morrow.

Messrs. T. W. Crocker and Geo. Watt left for Ottawa on Saturday to present the remonstrance of this community against the recently-made smelt fishing regulations.

SPECIAL:—All subscribers will please take notice that the terms of the ADVANCE are as advertised in our regular business notice for years, viz:—$1.50 a year, if paid in advance and $2 a year if not paid. When subscribers do not choose to pay in advance, but take credit for the paper, they do so with the understanding that they are to pay at the rate of two dollars a year. Any subscriber who does not wish to pay $2 a year for the paper must pay in advance.

"BETTER BORN" is to be presented by the Boston Comedy Company at Masonic Hall, Chatham, on Wednesday evening of next week for the benefit of our Public Square. We are quite sure that Mr. Webber and his deserving company will receive a warm welcome and be greeted by a full house.

The company is to appear in the same place at Newcastle on Tuesday evening, 5th.

KILLED ON THE I. C. R.:—On Saturday morning last James Sutton, a brakeman on a special, bound north, fell between two cars while the train was running, about a mile south of New Mills. He was run over and instantly killed. Deceased was only about seventeen years old and a son of Captain Michael Sutton, Kingston, Kent county and nephew of Mr. John Sutton of the Railway office, Moncton. He was making his first trip as brakeman and had been on the job less than three hours before his death. The inquest was held at Campbellton on Saturday. The remains were interred on Monday at Kingston.

LEADER OF THE FLEET:—Capt. McMorty of the British barque, City of Adelaide, has put his ship in the position of leader of the Miramichi fleet this season by making three trips between Belfast and this port in shorter time than any of the other three-trip vessels. The three trips are the City of Adelaide, Capitan Norman and Lothian—the latter being yet to arrive. The City of Adelaide's dates are as follows:—

Left Belfast:—April 12, July 1st Aug. 23d. Arrived at Chatham:—May 17, July 23d, Oct. 2nd.

Left Chatham:—June 5, Aug. 9, Oct. 22. Arrived at Belfast:—June 23, Aug. 25.

RESIGNATION OF THE COLLECTOR OF RICHIBUCTO:—Mr. John Ruak, collector of customs for Richibucto, forwarded his resignation to Ottawa, Thursday. The affair has created much surprise and not a little condemnation when the means resorted to to secure the desired end became known. Two outside custom officials aided by a local officer who wants to be collector, performed the job to their satisfaction. Mr. Ruak has been and still is very ill. Gordon Livingston, who did the work of the office during the collector's regime, is spoken of as the best man to succeed him, but it is doubtful if he would take the office if it were tendered him. F. Gallagher, of St. John, is now in charge.—(Globe.)

We understand that Mr. Livingston would not reject the office. He is a very capable man and ought to be offered it.

FIRE AT CAMPBELLTON:—Campbellton had a narrow escape on Thursday last from a sweeping fire. As it was, two buildings owned by J. E. Miller and one by A. E. Alexander, situated on Water street, were totally destroyed. It was only by the most strenuous efforts on the part of the citizens that the fire was prevented from crossing the street to a solid block of wooden buildings. Had it done so, the result would have been most disastrous, as the town is lamentably deficient in water appliances. Now that it has recently received incorporation a move in the right direction is looked for. The buildings are supposed to be insured.

DEATH OF MISS GERTRUDE WILLISTON:—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Phineas Williston of Bay du Vin, sincerely sympathize with them in the loss of their only daughter, Gertrude, whose death took place quite suddenly at the residence of Mr. Edward Archibald, Chatham, on Friday evening last. It is only a few weeks since she came to pay Mrs. Archibald a visit and, being taken ill, had medical attendance. She was not considered in danger until a few days before her death, when her mother was sent for and with her when she died. Mr. Williston, who could not be acquainted with his daughter's danger in time, only reached town after her death. The remains were accompanied to the steamer, en route for Bay du Vin, on Monday morning, by quite a large number of friends of the afflicted parents, the interment being at that place the same day.

Death of Miss Snowball. The community heard with much regret yesterday, the announcement of the death of Miss Maggie Snowball, which took place at Wellington Villa at an early hour yesterday morning. She had not been in full health for a year or two, but serious results were not anticipated by anybody. She was somewhat indisposed on Sunday morning last, and the family suggested that she remain in-doors, but she said she was quite able to go to church and did so, morning and evening, besides taking charge of her Sunday-School class as usual. On Tuesday morning, however, she was unable to take breakfast and, late in the forenoon, went to her room. Dr. J. B. Benson was called in the evening, but did not think there was any immediate danger, nor did Mr. or Mrs. Snowball, for who were at her bedside all night, do so until within two hours of the end. Shortly after three o'clock on Tuesday night Dr. J. B. Benson was again summoned. He arrived promptly and at once sent for Dr. J. S. Benson, but the end had almost come before the latter arrived. Miss Snowball passed away very quietly. She was in her twentieth year, the eldest daughter of J. B. Snowball, a young lady of most amiable qualities, having a very large number of friends here and elsewhere to whom the news of her death will be a sad shock.

The funeral will take place tomorrow, Friday, afternoon at half past two.

Mrs. Sinclair's Help and Kindness. The following resolutions and acknowledgments are self-explanatory:—

CHATHAM, N. B., 22nd Oct., 1889. Mrs. Janet Sinclair, Chatham, N. B.

DEAR MADAM:—At the weekly meeting, Oct. 21st, of the Girls' Own Society, the following resolutions were adopted:—

Resolved, That, in consideration of Mrs. Sinclair's unflinching kindness to us in many ways during the past, and especially for her sacrifice of personal interests to aid us in our late "Social" in the Rink, the earnest and hearty thanks of this Society be tendered to Mrs. Sinclair with the regret that it is only in words the appreciation of her invaluable services can be shown.

Resolved, That Misses Gillespie and Brown be a committee to draft and present this resolution.

SAIDA GILLESPIE, (Com.) ANNIE L. BROWN, (Secy.)

On behalf of the members of the Young Men's Christian Association we cordially endorse the above resolution and beg leave to couple with it the sincere thanks of the Association to Mrs. Sinclair for the valuable assistance she has so often and so kindly rendered.

F. O. PETERSON, D. P. McLACHLAN, President. Secretary.

CHATHAM 28th Oct., 1889.

DEAR GIRLS OWN:—I thank you for the kind feeling that prompted the vote of thanks you have tendered me. It has always been a pleasure to me to assist you in any way, for to me a society of girls such as yours appeals strongly. Knowing all a girl's difficulties and temptations, all her possibilities for good or evil, my sympathies are always with those who are engaged in the Master's work, and if through your efforts others are influenced to a better life, I shall regard it as a privilege in the future, as in the past, to render you any services in my power. Yours sincerely,

JANET SINCLAIR. CHATHAM, 28th Oct., 1889.

D. P. MacLACHLAN, Esq., Secy. Y. M. C. A., Chatham.

DEAR SIR:—Please say to the members of the Young Men's Christian Association that I have been deeply touched by the tribute paid me in their vote of thanks. I feel much obliged to you for that while I do not consider anything I have done for the Association in the past worthy of such warm thanks, it has always been a great pleasure to me to render any service to those who are striving to help others to live for Him who died for us.

Yours in Christ's service. JANET SINCLAIR.

CHATHAM, 28th Oct., 1889.

DEAR SIR:—Please say to the members of the Young Men's Christian Association that I have been deeply touched by the tribute paid me in their vote of thanks. I feel much obliged to you for that while I do not consider anything I have done for the Association in the past worthy of such warm thanks, it has always been a great pleasure to me to render any service to those who are striving to help others to live for Him who died for us.

Yours in Christ's service. JANET SINCLAIR.

CHATHAM, 28th Oct., 1889.

DEAR SIR:—Please say to the members of the Young Men's Christian Association that I have been deeply touched by the tribute paid me in their vote of thanks. I feel much obliged to you for that while I do not consider anything I have done for the Association in the past worthy of such warm thanks, it has always been a great pleasure to me to render any service to those who are striving to help others to live for Him who died for us.

Yours in Christ's service. JANET SINCLAIR.

CHATHAM, 28th Oct., 1889.

DEAR SIR:—Please say to the members of the Young Men's Christian Association that I have been deeply touched by the tribute paid me in their vote of thanks. I feel much obliged to you for that while I do not consider anything I have done for the Association in the past worthy of such warm thanks, it has always been a great pleasure to me to render any service to those who are striving to help others to live for Him who died for us.

Yours in Christ's service. JANET SINCLAIR.

CHATHAM, 28th Oct., 1889.

DEAR SIR:—Please say to the members of the Young Men's Christian Association that I have been deeply touched by the tribute paid me in their vote of thanks. I feel much obliged to you for that while I do not consider anything I have done for the Association in the past worthy of such warm thanks, it has always been a great pleasure to me to render any service to those who are striving to help others to live for Him who died for us.

Service was held in St. Mary's, which was handsomely decorated. An appropriate Harvest Sermon was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Collier.

On Wednesday morning the Rural Dean was obliged to return to Chatham, but the Rural Deanery service, on the evening of that day. The Service was a hearty one, and an instructive and forcible sermon was delivered by the Rev. E. Hooper, Rector of St. Paul's, Weldford.

St. Mary's church, Dalhousie, has been greatly improved during the past summer by much needed repairs, and is now quite comfortable.

AND HAD TO CARRY HIS WIFE to look after him." It would seem that the fishery union appeared to be such a financial success that a few individuals were having a good time on the money collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

two years about every one of our vessels going to the banks has procured a Canadian license, including most of Mr. Steele's vessels as well. Capt. Babson, in speaking before the meeting quoted the following Secretary Bayard's treaty and free fish ideas, and present the claims of the fishermen to the senators, and in order to do so, had to board at a first-class hotel where he could be near the senators and representatives of Congress, and at great cost to him. Also he had the rheumatism.

AND HAD TO CARRY HIS WIFE to look after him." It would seem that the fishery union appeared to be such a financial success that a few individuals were having a good time on the money collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this gigantic convocation met February 23, 1887, at the Pavilion hotel in this city. By this time Luther madocks, of Boothbay, who had got firmly cemented to the party, was present, and distinguished himself as being the committee on resolutions. Mr. Steele collected from the fishermen which they had earned in their hazardous calling.

Soon after it was arranged by the leaders for a grand convention of representatives of the various fishing industries of the country, and circulars were sent out in all directions, and this