Mr. Melanson is one of the most intelligent members of the house, almost always in his place and paying close attention to the proceedings of the house. He had followed the various discussions apparently with great care, and his vote on the question does credit to his good judgement and manly independence. There are others who, from their associations, have felt themselves constrained to vote with the opposition, who are becoming disgusted with the petty warfare which is being carried on by the leaders of that side, and who are impressed with the complete and successful way in which the government have met their attacks. The leader of the opposition is continually making sneering references to the government supporters as being followers, sometimes descending so far as to speak of them as serfs. When that hon. gentleman has used this and equally choice language with regard to the supporters of the government, your correspondent has heard persons remarking that it would not be very long Lefore the leader of the opposition will have but few followers to boast of. The evidence of want of cohesion and dissatisfaction with the tactics of their leader are becoming stronger every day.

About Her Majesty.

It is now said, on what is claimed to h the highest official authority, as well as being a matter of common gossip in Parliament and at the clubs, that the Queen is seriously considering the step of abdicating the British throne. The recent reception of the Prince of Wales by the German Emperor has had a great effect on the aged Queen, who is now convinced that her son ought to have a chance to play the leading role in Ergland during the rest of her life, which is certain to be short. The Queen's bodily infirmity is increasing and she is so rapidly running to flesh that massage is necessaay to assist her breathing. One strong objection the Queen has to abdicating is the contingency of being called ex-queen. She wishes to assume the title of Queen Regent for the rest of her life. A special bill will be

TEMPERANCE WORKERS AGAIN TO THE FRONT.

IFTH ANNIVERSARY OF "HOLD FAST LODGE, NO. 159, INDEPENDENT ORDER O GOOD TEMPLARS, NEWCASTLE. Following the brilliant display of Temfollows erance work presented by the W. C. T. J. of Chatham at their first anniversary meeting last week, and which it was our pleasant duty to report, comes another demonstration of a similar kind-the fifth pendent Order of Good Templars, an Organization which, small in its incipient days, like everything else, has, nevertheless, since its advent in the County five years ago, steadily developed into a successful agency for good, increasing the number of its lodges from 1 to 12, and swelling its membership of 15 to a compact phalanx of upwards of 900 members. Such is the encouraging statement presented by "Hold Fast" Lodge at their fifth anniversary meeting, and which we ecord with the more pleasure that this time, it is Newcastle, with its time-honored, philanthropic associations, and its old reterans in the Temperance cause, that has been made the rallying point for the members of the Order, gathered from all parts for the occasion, which was one of unusual interest, enhanced, as it was, b the presence of a large representation of Sons of Temperance, who had come to give their brothers and fellow-laborers in the cause the brotherly accalade, and the amicable shaking of hands. It is from Newcastle, if we mistake not, that the pioneers of the Temperance movement sent out their appeal for organization of all the Temperance forces. in order to counteract, by such means as were then available, the demoralizing influences of the liquor traffic, then in its

You will make easier work for your horses too, if instead of using a cast iron wedge plough you use a steel screw form plough which sticks its point into the soil and lifts and twists and turns the land so that the sun and air will have a chance to fructify and streng-.then it.

If you make your team pull hard and strain over the work of hauling a poor plough, or go over the land twice as often with an old fashioned wooden harrow as is needed if and improved Flexible steel or spring tooth harrow is used, you will have to pay for it in extra oats and hav and time, that is sure.

In the last ten selling seasons or years we sold ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS worth of steel mouldboard ploughs. Our sales keep up to a steady average and do not decrease in any district where once fairly introduced and compared in working trial and results with cast iron ploughs.

Steel mouldboard ploughs haul easily, scout clean in any soil and leave the land in the best position and condition. Steel ploughs are the lightest, strongest and most durable of any kind made.

The steel ploughs we sell are made by Wilkinsons, who have the largest factory in Canada devoted to plough maufacture. Geo. Wilkinson is the oldest steel plough maker in Canada. Wilkinson's ploughs have taken more first prizes at fairs and ploughing matches than all others. They are sold in every province in Canada and in all the Territories of the North West,

We offer Wilkinson's steel ploughs at from ten to fifteen dollars according to size and weight. An extra share and wrench goes with each plough without extra cost. More shares may be bought at thirty-five cents each, genuine Wilkinson.
