feeling very badly over the report that he administered the poison to his wife, which was not the case. He went to Mr. Windsor's store and asked for some Peruvian Bark, Mr. Cook, one of the clerks said they had none, but kindly offered to send for it. Accordingly, the order was sent to Messrs. T. B. Barker & Sons', St. John, for two ounces of Peruvian Bark. The parcel arrived in course of a few days accompanied by invoice. Mr. Windsor judging everything was right sent the parcel by mail to Mr. Connors, a distance of three miles. Mr. McNair, postmaster at Black Point sent the parcel to Mrs. Connors, who was visiting her mother. She opened it and saw it was not what had been ordered, but supposing it to be quinine, mixed a portion of it with some wine, and drank a small quantity of the mixture, immediately she was taken ill and lived nine hours in a state of unconsciousceased at their advent, The lazaretto was ness, but seeming to suffer the most horformerly a prison from which escapes rible agonies.
