An Unedifying Spectacle.

John McGinnis, a young man who appears to think it is not improper to get frunk and create a disturbance, indulged his propensity in that way on the Muirhead wharf on Tuesday evening while peacably disposed people were assembling there for the purpose of going on board of St. Luke's church excursion boats. The Salvation Army.

REV. JOHN MCLAURIN CRITICISES SOME THEIR TACTICS.

[Toronto News.]

Rev. John McLaurin writes as follows to the Canadian Baptist :-Commissioner Tucker is now in Canada with some whom he calls "saved Hindus." His purpose is to raise money to send out more Canadian officers to India. He exhibits these men as the fruits of Army methods in India. While doing so. glorifies Army methods and depreciates missionary methods. Abdul Aziz is represented as a Salvation convert-the son of a Mohammedan sheik. Abdul was for two years a member of our mission staff in India. He was brought to Christ under a Methodist Episcopal missionary, whom we know well in Bangalore. That he was the son of a sheik is news to us. He is represented as laboring under Majo

Capt. Kantahello is the son of a native Baptist preacher in Ceylon. It is possible he was converted through the Army, but not from heathenism. Two years ago, Major Musa Bhaia with several other Hindus visited Canada. I saw and heard them in Woodstock, He was represented as a converted Brahmin. Said he had been seeking a knowledge of Christ in vain for years from the missionaries in India. I was then confident : (1) That he was no Brahmin : (2) That he was an unprincipled adventurer, and (3) That what he said of missionaries in India was a bare-faced falsehood. Later information from India and from Commissioner Tuckthe country, er confirms my suspicions in every particular: (1) He was a low caste Tamil; (2) He had passed himself off as an Eurasian, was a Roman Catholic, a Hindu, a Mo-

One of the strong points of the army is that their officers come down to the level of the people and live among them and like them. But in Canada, Oh, no! the staff-captain comes to the best appointed Christian house in the place and beseeches them to put up the great man, the major, you. etc., while there. He eats the fat and drinks the sweet and takes his eastern siesta on the seft lounge of his host. "Twenty-five dollars will keep one of their officers for a year." Yes! it will along with what the rich merchant or government official deals out to the "poor luggar," or, in addition to what the much despised missionary often gives, to prolong a half-starved existence. Yes! it keeps them till they die or leave the army, or, better still, get up so high they can reach the dish from which Gen.

Do I need to say that this system is neither scriptural nor reasonable-neither will it be successful. It is but a half-Gospel at best, and it is brimful of halftruths which are often more hurtful than whole falsehoods.

The official report of the salmon fisheries of England and Wales for 1889 is very interesting, but far from satisfactory. Only 5012 boxes of 112 pounds each, reached Billingsgate, as against 21,101 boxes of Scottish salmon and 7892 boxes from Ireland. The take of salmon from the Tyne has seriously fallen off, and last year only 15,020 fish were captured, against 25,916 during 1888. The Severn is the most productive English river, but even in its best years the take is enormously below that of the Tay. Nearly all the salmon rivers in the North of Eng. land did badly last year, and in the South the Hants Avon was the most productive stream after the Severn.

A despatch of 1st inst. to the London

Times from Buenos Avres states that

President Celman has issued a manifesto to the people of the Argentine Republic. After speaking of the demand for his resignation, which was made by the leaders of the revolutionary movement, the President refers to the prosperity and liberty the country enjoys under his rule. He ignores the gravity and what his own journal terms "the horrors" of the recent events in Buenos Ayres. The manifesto attributes the sole cause of the insurrection to the insensate ambition of the local party in Buenos Ayres, which, it says, wished to impose itself upon the entire republic, while prosperity, peace and security are represented by the Celman Government. Even Celman's own party, the despatch says, is aghast at the President's callousness and his incomprehensible and vain ignorance of the real gravity of the situation. The manifesto concludes with an expression of eternal gratitude to the supporters of the President's authority, and adds that a patriotic people blesses them as the saviours of the Gov-

Take Notice. Remember that the present charter of The Louisiana State Lottery Company which the Supreme Court of the U.S. has decided to be a Contract with the State of Louisiana and part of the Constitution of the State does not expire until the First of January, 1895. The Legislature of Louisiana, which adjourned on the 10th of July of this year, has ordered an amendment to the Constitution of the State to be submitted to the People at an election in 1892, which will carry the charter of The Louisiana State Lottery Company up to the year Nineteen Hundred and Nineteen.
