Dominion Parliament.

Since the Governor-General opened Parliament at Ottawa, there has been, practically, nothing done in the way of legislation, the principal business being to meet and adjourn. The Senate, being composed of gentlemen who are appointed for life, is not impressed with the need of even pretending to transact public business, so it has adjourned for a fort-Famed for Twenty Years, night. A good many members of both houses are absent on leave and, of course on pay -which amounts to about $75 a week each,

The Situation

The forces that are in array after the Assembly contest, still stand, so far as we can judge, as stated by the ADVANCE last week, viz., twentytwo on the Government nineceen opposition, chances in favor of several least pronounced of the latter party becoming disatisfied with would-beleaders in their own ranks. many of the more independent positionists have, all along, admitted that there was not much to be urged against Mr. Blair's general adminis-Pres. Union National Bank. ex-Solicitor-General Ritchie to police magistracy of that city. was, there, practically, a square issue between Catholics and Protestants, the opposition perceiving its advantage in the fact that two-thirds of the electors of that constituency are Protestants. It was a desperate course to take, but nothing else could have defeated Provincial-Secretary McLellan. Messrs. Stockton and Alward-backed by the Sun the Liberal - Conservative machine-have whatever advantage they may be able to reap from victory won on such a cry. Messrs. Stockton and Alward are also publicly pledged to turn Mr. Ritchie out of office, and Mr. Stockton is fully committed to a further subsidy to the St. John Dry Dock. Northumberland's chief-opposition planks are a demand for a portfolio in the Government and a concession in the matter of stumpage. We have had no greater op onents of our claims for justice in the stumpage matter than the St. John politicians of both parties, and as Mr. McLellan, who was our chief enemy in that respect, has been defeated, together with all his colleagues on the Government side, we have, remaining, only the Stockton-Alward forces, with their Dry Dock claims, anti-Ritchie cry and opposition to stumpage concessions. It is rumored that Mr. Blair is willing to give us some concessions in the stumpage matter, together with a portfolio. But Mr. Ezekiel McLeod-ex-Attorney-General and a Liberal-Conservative man- In certain other counties the opposition ager-has been on a mission to Northumberland, followed by Mr. H. T. Stevens, M. P. [F'ton Herald] THE GENERAL RESULT.

The government comes out of the elections with a good working majority. A great many wild statements have been made. Men have been classed with the opposition notwithstanding their well known leanings, and even in some cases against their pronounced declarations. There is not now and there has not been at any time good reason to anticipate the defeat of the administration. The election of the full opposition ticket in St. John was a surprise and was due to an appeal to prejudices and the raising of the religious cry. The defeat of Mr. McLellan was quite un expected. He was a painstaking, intelligent officer, of more than ordinary executive talent, and St. John loses the services of an excellent representative. In Northumberland the high stumpage party carried the day, as was generally expected; but it is well understood that the representative elect from that county have less sympathy with the St. John opposition than with the govern-In Westmorland the two straight opposition candidates were successful. Declaration Proceedings.

A hundred or more electors assem bled at the Court house, Newcastle, o Thursday last to witness the declaration proceedings. The ballot-boxes containing the returns from the different polling places in the County were opened and the official count made, the figures being as given in the corrected table which appears on this page. The Sheriff announced the result and declared Messrs. Robinson, Burchill, Tweedie and O'Brien duly elected.

Mr. Tweedie moved a vote of thank to the Sheriff, in behalf of the electors of the County and the candidates. H said that the Sheriff-as in all other elections-had discharged his duties with the greatest impartiality and fairness towards all parties and that Northumberland and its Sheriff stood in the front rank in this important parti-

It was gratifying to him to know that the election had been fairly fought by both parties and that no bad feeling existed after the contest was ended. Mr. Tweedie said he wasn't a bit sick and was sorry that Messrs. Robinson and Burchill were, but they might be sicker. It had been said that the people of the County were tired of tickets, but it didn't seem so, for the people voted the opposition ticket as squarely as they did three years ago. It was an honor to represent a County like Northumberland that could not be swayed by appeals for support of a government, simply because it was a government nd regardless of the treatment accord ed to the County; and it was gratify ing to find the people and press of the province pointing to Northumberland as the banner independent county of New Brunswick, in both local and federal politics. This was his third time of election and he felt that his course as a representative was approved by the people. The relative strength of parties in the Assembly was not yet known, but he felt that the people might rely on himself and colleagues being ready to take advantage of the situation, whatever it might be, to promote the welfare of the County and conserve the interests of its people, They had fair opponents, and while he regretted, on personal grounds, that some of them were not elected, yet a principle had to be fought out and the party in accord with the sentiment of the County won. The County was now n a better position, in regard to the government, than it had been for years and he hoped that his colleagues and nimself would be able at the end of their term to show that the confidence reposed in them was well placed. Mr. O'Brien referred briefly to his previous contest, his promise to be in the field again, his having kept his promise and been elected, although some prophesied his defeat. He said he was young in politics and had no sins to answer for and hoped his more experienced colleagues would not lead him astray at Fredericton, Mr. Morrissy said that, like Mr. Tweedie, he felt fresh as a trout and quite well, though the contest had been a hard one. He thanked his friends and said that if the Government ticket had been elected the County would be in a most advantageous position. He had good authority for saying that the Government was sustained, so there need be no uneasiness on that score, as it had a majority of seven. He regretted that it had been charged against him that he had made certain statements affecting the private reputation of one of his opponents, and he would ask Mr. Robinson to say whether he had done so. Mr. Robinson :- I think you know all about that yourself. Mr. Morrissy said he had made no entertained to-night at Watson & had expected. They might rely upon would, he thought, say he had fought that the election be voided.

A Voice: How does the Government

stand? Mr. Hutchison: 18 to 23 Mr. Adams returned thanks for hi large vote, which he said was quite unexpected on his part. He had been taken on ten days' notice, trotted around the County before the electors and expected to make speeches on the political questions of the day, without due preparation. He believed that had he been given time to consider the responsibility of the position he would not have allowed himself to be offered up as a sacrifice on the alter of his political ambition. He would be much better prepared in future and ready next time, if wanted. He was going to hang on to the County and its people's interests. He hoped the position the County was in to-day would worked to its advantage and if the four men elected did their duty for the next four years, they would find Anthony Adams at their back. The battle was over and he could say with Jacob C.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Council reassembled at 2 p. m. A petition from Mr. T. W Flett Nelson, asked for exemption of his new Factory from taxation, was read, setting forth the loss by fire of his former mil and the erection of a new one for the manufacture of Shingles, Shooks, Barrel Heads, Staves, etc. giving employment to 60 men and requiring a large outlay for machinery, much of which he had obtain on credit.

Referred to committee on petitions. Coun. Campbell stated that a large number of members wished to be present at a funeral this afternoon and there was also considerable committee work to done, he, therefore, moved an adjournment until four o'clock, which was Coun. Adams moved that it be accept-

Coun. Campbell thought it could not be accepted, as the election returns from that parish were in dispute.

The Secy. Treasu er said he did not think Coun. Baldwin could resign, the election being in dispute, and if it turned out that the election was an illegal one the Councillor would have no seat to Coun. Coleman said the Council could not deal with the matter now as it might forestall the committee, which was to report, almost at once.

people of Nelson parish and they would willingly have secured him in his seat if they could have done so under the law. But the validity of the whole election proceedings having been attacked, and shown that the irregularities were such as to void the election the committee were in a strait between their desire to do justice to Mr. Gill and, at the same time, maintain the integrity of the law. It seemed that the law relating to the conducting of Municipal elections was not sufficiently understood, as the poll clerk there declared before the committee that he had no instructions to guide him and there was no list of electors furnished him at the opening of the poll. also appeared that the ballots were returned to the Chairman of No. 1 polling place in a cigar box secured by a tack and unaccompanied by any tally of the voting. Thos. Flett, the Chairman of No. 1, could not be expected to accept such a return as that from No. 2, and that was why he declared the election on the vote of No. 1 alone. In the absence of instructions and the list at the opening of No. 2 poll, he could not see that the clerk there was altogether to blame. On motion of Coun. Campbell the Nelson election was declared void by the Coun. Gill said it remained for him to take leave of the Council. It was at the solicitation of the people generally that he had offered, as there was a recognised demand for a representative from the upper end of the parish, owing partially to dissatisfaction in reference to the division of the by-road money. The people elected im at the head of the poll and if any man reared in Nelson was mean enough to come forward and take his place from him he did not envy him. Coun. Gill then retired.

Coun. Baldwin said he had no desire to sit in the Council if he had no legal right to do so, but being returned by the proper officer he felt it to be his duty to take his seat lest the parish should be unrepresented and its business neglected. Twenty illegal votes were polled in No. 2 and there was unlimited bribery and corruption, notwithstanding which candidate Hayes had beaten him by only six vote in the whole parish. If a new election took place Gill and Baldwin would be returned.

Coun. Baldwin now retired. Coun. Swim presented the resignation of Dr. F. J. Desmond as a member of the Board of Health for the County of North umberland, which was, on motion, accept-Coun. Morrison suggested that last year's councillors for Nelson be notified that they were required by law to continue to represent that parish uptil their successors were chosen.

The Warden said the Council would no doubt, be glad to see Couns. Burchill and Hayes in their seats.

Coun. Morrison referring to the farewell remarks of Coun. Gill, said they might deter the old councillors from re turning, but it should be remembered that they had no choice in the matter, and he . 2,675 | felt they would not wish to take any public position to which they were not fairly

Coun. Burchill's name was added to the Parish Accounts committee. The Secretary read petition of Messrs.

Thos. F. Gillespie, John Sadler and Dan' Crimmin of Chatham, praying for a renewal of their lease of the Public wharf property, Chatham, which adjoins the Ferry slip. The Secretary read the lease in ques tion, which was made in Sept. 1871 for a term of 20 years from January of that year. It shows that in consideration of the lessees having built the Wharf the property was leased to them for the term named at a rental of $1 year, the lessees being at liberty to remove any buildings they might erect should they determine to do so at the expiration of their term, or the Sessions. (now represented by the Council) should they so determine, to purchase said buildings at a fair valuation.

The petition was referred to the comnittee on petitions. Coup. Morrison presented and read the petition of Charles Barnett of Douglastown for relief from alleged over-taxation. and also a similar petition from James Yeoman, of Newcastle, both of which were referred to committee on petitions Coun. Tozer, on the ground of ill health, was relieved of duty on the County Accounts committee, and Coun. Morrion was named thereon instead.

Coun. Morrison submitted the report o the County Accounts committee to the ffect that such accounts were found fairly correct, although there were some over charges, which were duly noted in the de tailed statement; the auditing of the ac counts had been delayed because of their not being sent in in time and the committee recommend that the County Secretary be instructed to take such action as the law provides, against the public officers who fail to do their duty in this particular. Swim said the Committee divided as to whether they should deduct $14.45 or $6.45 from it. He could not understand why it was thought necessary to bring a constable from Ludlow to Blissfield, thereby incurring unnecessary expense upon the County. He observed that two lunatics were taken from Newcastle to the Asylum for $20 each and, while it could hardly be expected that two could be taken from Blissfield at the same rate, $27.00 each seemed to be excessive. That was why the committee had finally agreed that $24 each was Coun. Kerr expressed his opinion that > the time allowed the County Accounts Committee in which to do their work was not sufficient to admit of it being thoroughly done. For his own part he had been engaged on the Nelson protest committee and would feel that there had been no adequate examination of these accounts, but for the close attention given to them by Coun. Betts of the committee, who was an old member of the Council and thoroughly competent. But for that he would not have signed the report. Considering our every day experiences we should be suspicious of every man. The accounts were too hurriedly gone through and the audit did not seem to be perfect for, in some cases, the accounts of parish possible for the Auditor to do them jus tice. The law on the subject should therefore, be enforced against these officers. Perhaps he was cranky, but these things required looking into. It was possible this might be the last time of his having a seat at the board and he wanted to start things right. He would ask the Secretary-Treasurer who audited his

Scratched 28 Years

Body covered with scales. Itching terrible. Suffering endless. No relief. Docto s and medicines fail. Speedily cured by Cuticura at a cost of $5.

Cured by Cuticura.

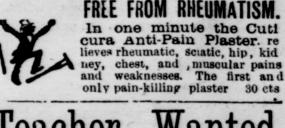

If I had known of the CUTICURA REMEDIES twenty eight years ago it would have saved m $200 00 (two hundred dotlars) and an immense amount of suffering . My disease (pseriasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than cent. It spread rapidly all over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of e all the time, and my suffering was endless not tempt me to have this disease over again what some of the doctors said was leprosy, some ringworm, psoraisis, etc. I took... aparillas over one year and a half, but no cure went to two or three doctors, and no cure. cannot praise the CUTICURA REMEDIES too much rom scales as a baby's. All I used of them were hree boxes of CUTICURA, and three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and two cakes o CUTICURA SOAP. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $200,00, you would have the money. I looked like the picture in your book of psoriasis (picture number two Cure Skin Diseases') but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am al well. I scratched twenty-eight years, and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times

Newcastle roads, in account with Secy. Freas., balance on hand, $10.58. Wm. Mason Col. Justice, $142.23. Report of Newcastle firewards was read by Coun. Morrison as follows:-

To the Municipal Council of the County of Northumberland-The Firewards of the town of Newcastle beg leave to submit the following

We congratulate the inhabitants of Newcastle on the fact that during the past year no fires have taken place. The sum of $150 and interest, being the balance of the money borrowed from the County, has been paid, and the property of the Fire Department of the town is now entirely free from debt. The engine and hose are in good condition and are still under the charge of Mr. Robert Beckwith. There is now a balance in the Treasarer's hands of $471.04, which with rents to be collected, will be sufficient to meet the necessary requirements for the ensuing year. The Board, therefore, at ts last meeting, did not deem it advisable to ask for any assessment for fire purposes. As this is a fact which has: probably, never before happened in the istory of the Town, and will likely never occur in the future, we avail our selves of this opportunity of further congratulating the ratepayers. While the lower portion of the Town is well supplied with water for fire purposes, the Board feel that, on the hill, or back part of the Town, there should be some better means of providing a supply of water than there is at present, and in bringing this to your notice, we beg to refer to another matter, which, while it does not come within the scope of our duties as firewards, is of such importance to the inhabitants of the Town, that we feel it our duty to arge it upon the consideration of the Council. As a sanitary D. M. Savoy, Col. Rates, lower dist. precaution it is important that there the sower from the new gaol, to the river. This could be obtained by boring an artesian well in the vicinity of the Jonathan Harper, Com. Highways- | gaol, which would not only supply water for the sewer, but could also be used for tire purposes in that vicinity. The Firewards, therefore, bring this matter to the notice of the Council with a view of cooperating with the County authorities and sharing the expense of carrying out the above suggestions; and we would respectfully ask the Council at its present session to state what proportion of such expense would be borne by the County, in the event of our proposal being favorably received. Annexed hereto is a statement, in detail of the receipts and expenditures. during the past year.

Respectfully submitted. R. R. CALL, Chairman, W. A. PARK, Secretary. Newcastle Firewards, in account with W. A.
