

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

Maid servant wanted. See Miss Hutchinson's Advt.

Hon. Mr. Snowball is at home, the Senate having adjourned until Tuesday next.

LAW PARTY.—A very pleasant law party, under the auspices of St. John's Church, was held on the grounds of John Shirreff, Esq., Chatham on Tuesday evening.

St. John's.—Send 25 cents in coin or stamps to J. Y. Mersereau, photographer, Chatham N. B., and receive by return mail a cabinet photograph of the late Sir John A. Macdonald.

The McLeod Will Case.—A cablegram from London announces that the appeal from the judgment of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia in the McLeod (Halifax) will case has been dismissed. This settles forever the long contested case.

An interesting swimming match is to take place at Newcastle on Wednesday next. The contest will be between two teams of boys, one from the Miramichi and the other from the North Shore.

Grave and Carriage Mill Burned.—The great and existing mill of Rev. F. Richard, on the Aldoune River, near Richibucto, was burned on Tuesday evening of last week. A quantity of grain and wool was destroyed. The property was insured for $100,000 by Quebec and Western companies.

In Lynn.—Alfred B. Stapleton, who graduated at Mr. Raddock's machine shop, Chatham, and went away a few weeks ago, is now employed in the Thomson-Houston shops, where he has been for more than a month. He writes a very interesting letter to a friend here and is evidently going about with his eyes open.

The Drives.—The heavy rains of last week have brought on the logs hung up in the streams earlier in the season, and there is no doubt now that all will reach the booms. The last to get out will be Richibucto's. The logs are being driven on the north of the Rocky Mountain, on account of its being so much obstructed by a slow process, but it is expected they will come out all right.

Shingles.—The Canada Lumberman quotes a lumber dealer who says the present activity of shingle mills in the Dominion, said to be quite unusual, is caused by a strong American demand for shingles. He explains that people in the east have for years been using tin and galvanized roofs to a large extent, which they have found will stand the weather; consequently they have gone back to shingles.

Miss Shirreff at St. Luke's.—Miss Anna Shirreff, of Boston, who is visiting Chatham friends, delighted a large congregation at St. Luke's Methodist church on Sunday evening by singing two solos during the service. She has the gift of a magnificent soprano voice, cultivated to artistic control and possessing the power of captivating those who listen to it. We hope she will afford her friends the pleasure of hearing more of it during her visit.

Lower Gloucester Mails.—Post Office King returned from the North yesterday evening, where he made arrangements for the despatch of letters, for Carleton Place, Shippagan, etc., to these places without delay. The custom has been to deliver the mail for these places at Bathurst and after remaining in the morning office all night, to be forwarded next morning. Now the post office will put the mail off at Gloucester Junction, with the result that Carleton and other places will be reached early in the evening.

A New Mining Enterprise.—A number of Monctonians, including Messrs. J. Benson, C. E. Northrup, P. S. McManus, W. Watson and W. A. Hildes, have secured a license to prospect for coal on an area of five miles on the Cocagne River. If coal is found in paying quantities it will no doubt be a rich thing, for besides the nearness to Moncton the opportunities for shipping to P. E. Island and North Shore ports are unequalled. The area is about five miles from the B. and M. Railway.—Times.

The Military Camps.—Following is the programme of military camps for this season: Military district No. 8.—At Sussex, 22nd September to 2nd October. This will comprise D company Infantry School Corps, four troops 8th Princess Louise New Brunswick Hussars, the Newcastle field battery, the Woodstock field battery, the 9th and 71st batteries, Military District No. 9.—At Aldershot, N. S., 15th to 25th September, and to include the 68th, 75th and 93rd battalions.

Killed by Lightning.—Miss Keefe, daughter of John Keefe, of Skinner's Pond, P. E. I., was killed by lightning on Sunday night, 19th inst. She was engaged to be married in a very short time, and was spending the evening in the front room with her lover, when she was struck dead by the fatal fluid. Her lover was struck senseless and had a marvellous narrow escape from death. All the other inmates were made insensible by the stroke and the house was wrecked. Miss Keefe was a fine girl, 25 years of age.

A Serious Accident happened in the I. C. R. yard at Moncton, last Friday morning. A flat car loaded with stone broke down, and in the process of being uncoupled, it struck the engine, which was engaged to be coupled to the car with the stone on it, and the car to do some repairs. The shunting engine came along and struck the car, knocking the jacks from under it. The body of the car fell on to the wheels and in some way caught Bourne's legs. His right leg was badly injured, the thigh bone being crushed and broken and the flesh and muscle badly bruised. The left leg was also bruised.

Large Profit.—The floating of a raft of 3,500,000 feet of lumber by ocean from St. John, N. B., to this port will revolutionize the lumber trade. Mr. H. E. Hennessey engaged in the lumber business, and he continued: "The profit on this one raft will be from $40,000 to $45,000 when all expenses are paid. Its value here is about double that amount. So you see we can afford to risk the lumber at sea, and even lose one raft in three or four and still make tremendous profits by this new means of transporting it here from the cheap forests above us."—New York Press.

Hymeneal.—A number of friends were present at the residence of Jas. Brown Esq., on Wednesday evening, when Miss Adams witnessed the marriage of Miss Adams to Mr. Gordon Hubbard of Carleton Place. Miss Ebbel Young acted as bridesmaid and Dr. R. Nicholson as groomsmen. The presents were handsome and numerous. The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony for a tour to Quebec, receiving the usual send off of a heavy shower of rice. They will spend a week or ten days touring and then settle down at Point Macrel, Gloucester Co., where Mr. Hubbard is engaged in business. Miss Adams' many friends here wish the happy couple every happiness in their journey.—Advocate.

An Indian Burial.—Yesterday a very peculiar procession wended its way through the streets of Gtison. It was an Indian funeral. A little child two years old had died and was laid out in a neat wooden casket. Over this was thrown a bright scarlet cloth, and wreaths of flowers and crosses of violet work reposed upon it. Bowers of red and white roses, with loops forming the handles, and by the loops four little girls carried the corpse. There were about twenty young people in the procession, the most peculiar thing being the entire absence of the full grown or aged. They deposited their burden at Sunny Hill, each one taking a flower from the coffin returned to their homes. There was no ceremony at the grave.—Gleaner.

Killed by a Falling Tree.—James Little, sixty-five years of age, while chopping at Coal Branch, Kent Co., on Thursday last, was struck by a falling tree. The tree had lodged, and while Mr. Little was endeavoring to get it clear it fell upon him breaking his arm near the shoulder, cutting his head badly and bruising him terribly. Not coming home to see Mrs. Little started out to look for him, finding him a short distance from the place of the accident. Help was immediately summoned, and a doctor despatched for but he was dead before the doctor reached the house. He only lived about an hour after getting to the house. It is thought from appearances that he had been struck shortly after dinner and had lain in bed until evening. Much sympathy is shown for the bereaved and family of two sons and three daughters.

The Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company.—This old and reliable company was established in 1836, and is now represented at Chatham by Mr. Warren C. Winslow. The risks, amounting to over thirty millions of dollars, carried by this company for the Canadian public, are large investments in Canada. The assets of the company amount to over forty-two millions of dollars, together with the fair and prompt settlement of all claims under a policy of insurance issued without any conditions calling for 60 days or any other delay in payment, combine to place it in the front rank of insurance companies.

In the Curling Ring.—The annual sale and tea, to be held by the ladies of the Guilds of St. Mary's church, in the curling ring, Chatham, on Tuesday next, will be an attractive and interesting affair. The tea to be offered are all of excellent kind, and the tea and refreshment departments promise to be very inviting, while the music will also be a great attraction. The building is spacious and comfortable and with its tasteful club room offering of the main body of the rink and reached from the public square, seems to be especially adapted for the purpose for which it is to be used on Tuesday evening for the first time.

Miss Shirreff at St. Luke's.—Miss Anna Shirreff, of Boston, who is visiting Chatham friends, delighted a large congregation at St. Luke's Methodist church on Sunday evening by singing two solos during the service. She has the gift of a magnificent soprano voice, cultivated to artistic control and possessing the power of captivating those who listen to it. We hope she will afford her friends the pleasure of hearing more of it during her visit.

A Popular Lecture.—A great treat is in store for the audience here that is to attend the proposed lecture of Rev. Theodore E. Dowling, Domestic Chaplain to the Anglican Bishop of Nova Scotia, on the subject of "Daily Life in Palestine." Everybody is interested in the historic land from which he comes, and will, doubtless, be eager to hear from one so capable as Mr. Dowling, facts upon which a comparison may be made between its past and present. The lecturer exhibits a copy of the Torah (from Bagdad) Jerusalem photographs; photographs of the Holy Land and Syria; photographs of the Patriarchs of Constantinople and Jerusalem; a large assortment of carved mother-of-pearl Bethlehem shells.

An Important Case.—A little more than two years ago the Steamer Silvio of Newcastle-on-Tyne was loaded with deals by Mr. Snowball at this port. When the time came for signing the bills of lading the captain wanted Mr. Snowball to insert "deckload at shipper's risk." This was refused and the captain kept the steamer here two days on demurrage of $30 a day against the shipper. The steamer had formerly been a school mate at Chatham, under the Christian Brothers, of the new Pastor, Father Wallace, and of Father Knight, who assisted the Bishop as Arch-deacon at the ordination, this was a happy occasion which united these three friends of boyhood. Father Wallace, the new Pastor, had made his theological course in the Grand Seminary of Montreal, and the learned and holy Subprior, Father Knight, had spent six years of his clerical studies at the celebrated Propaganda College, Rome, and Mr. Wm. A. Lawlor, who was to be ordained, had passed the last three years of his theological course, with marked distinction, at the Laval University, Quebec.

The pleasure to the people, was enhanced by the ordination to sub-deaconship of the first advance in Holy Orders—of a young ecclesiastical student, Mr. Wm. A. Lawlor, son of Mr. Wm. Lawlor, builder, of Chatham. This ordination would have taken place in the Pro-Cathedral, at Chatham, had the Bishop, having decided to be at Barnaby River for the installation of the new Pastor found it more convenient to bring with him the young layman to ordain there. Mr. Lawlor, who is a young ecclesiastical student, was a school mate at Chatham, under the Christian Brothers, of the new Pastor, Father Wallace, and of Father Knight, who assisted the Bishop as Arch-deacon at the ordination, this was a happy occasion which united these three friends of boyhood. Father Wallace, the new Pastor, had made his theological course in the Grand Seminary of Montreal, and the learned and holy Subprior, Father Knight, had spent six years of his clerical studies at the celebrated Propaganda College, Rome, and Mr. Wm. A. Lawlor, who was to be ordained, had passed the last three years of his theological course, with marked distinction, at the Laval University, Quebec.

The following report:—The annual meeting of the Association was held in Chatham, in the Masonic Hall, on Thursday evening last, at which were present a number of Liberals from various parts of the county. The President, Mr. William Murray, took the chair, thanked the meeting for the honor they had conferred on him, and briefly stated the objects of the meeting. The Secretary, Mr. Warren C. Winslow, read the minutes of last meeting which were approved and confirmed. Among other matters discussed was the establishment of a newspaper to advocate the Liberal party and to take the place of the "Advocate" which had deserted the Liberal party and gone over to the Conservative party, and a committee was appointed to take the matter into consideration and to report at the next meeting of the Association to be held on the 20th of August next.

Matters in connection with the revision of the electoral lists were thoroughly discussed and the best means suggested for a thorough revision. His first aim will be to point to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused interest. They will perceive that the chief object of the gentlemen who hold these lists is to have names added to the list and to see that those disqualified are taken off. The suggestion was made that the revision of the lists should be conducted in the parishes of the county, or at any rate in Chatham and Newcastle, which would greatly improve a proper list being made. The editor of the "Advocate" did not care to put in an appearance. The Liberals of Northumberland will, no doubt, read the foregoing "official" report of the meeting referred to with an amused