News and Notes.

The attachment proceedings against Judge Steadman in the contempt matter, pending for some time in the Supreme to cure all summer complaints. Court, terminated a few days ago in the discharge of the defendant, and the recognizance entered into some days ago. The motion was made by Geo. F. Gregory Q. C., Mr. Baird not having exhibited the interrogatories as required by the rule of court obtained on the opening day of the term. Mr. Gregory also moved that Mr. Baird be ordered to pay the costs of the application for attachment.

It has been ordered by the Boston Police Commissioners, with the approval of the Superintendent, that policemen on duty shall keep their clubs out of sight of the public, shall carry them thus in a special pocket, and shall use them only in cases of emergency. The Boston guardians of the peace will no longer grasp, or twirl, or swing their clubs as they march through the streets in the new uniforms which they have donned. It was held by the Commissioners that policemen with clubs constantly in their hands are under appetite for food. Use it and try your emptation to use them unnecessar ly.

A cloud burst at Leichburg, Penn. a fortnight since. At eight the heavens grew black, and peals of thunder shook the town. Just outside Leichburg is a deep ravine, through which Anderson's Run flows. A collection of houses on either side, occupied by about 200 people, is known as Georgetown. Suddenly rain poured down in torrents, the streets of Leichburg flowed like rivers, while down Anderson's Run the water poured in huge waves, carrying everything before it Fifteen dwellings, many outbuildings, stables, fences, etc., were carried away and jammed against the railroad bridge, at the foot of the run, which, unable to stand the terrific pressure, gave away, The occupants of the houses fled to the hills. John Frank fell from the bridge as it went down and was fataly injured. The damage to property is very heavy. Marks on the hillside show the water rose in the stream to the depth of 30 feet.

INDIA'S POPULATION. The gross results of the census of India taken last February have been given out, and demonstrate the rapidity with which its teeming population grows. British India had according to the census of 1881, in round numbers, 198,790,000 inhabitants. The recorded population found by the enumerators four months ago was 220,500,000 a gain of about 22,000,000 in ten years. Iu the India feudatory states, which preserve a nominal independence, there are 65,000,000 people, so that the population of all India reaches the enormous aggregate of 285,000,000 souls against 253,982,595 in 1881. THE LARGEST FARM IN THE WORLD.

The largest farm in the world is one in the southwest of the state of Louisiana, measuring 100 miles north and south and twenty-five miles east and west. The 1,500,000 acres of which it is made up were purchased seven years ago from the state of Louisiana and from the United S:ates government by a syndicate of northern capitalists, by which it is now farmed. At that time it was a vast grazing ground for the cattle of the few dealers in the neighborhood, there being 30,-000 head of cattle and horses upon it. This immense tract is now divided into convenient pasture stations or ranches, the fencing alone costing $50,000. The land is best adapted to rice, sugar, corn, and cotton. All the cultivating, ditching, etc., is done by steam power, a tract of about half a mile wide being taken and an engine placed on each side. The engines are portable, and work a cable attached to four plows, the area plowed in this way, with the labor of only three men, being thirty acres. Harrowing, sowing, etc., are done in the same way, and there is not a single draft horse on the estate. Horses are, however, used for the herdsmen, who look after the 16,-000 head of cattle upon the property, which is traversed for thirty-six miles by the Southern Pacific railway. The company has three steamboats upon the 300 miles of navigable waters which traverse its immense estate, and also possesses a shipyard, a bank, and two rice-mills.
