

Dominion Election!

Nomination Paper of Hon. M. Adams.

The undersigned, Electors of the Electoral District of Northumberland, hereby nominate MICHAEL ADAMS, of Newcastle, Barrister-at-Law, as a Candidate at the Election now about to be held, of a Member to represent the said Electoral District in the House of Commons of Canada.

- List of names and addresses of electors supporting Michael Adams, including Hon. L. J. Tweedie, Sarvevor-Gun, M. P. P., James Robinson, M. P. P., John O'Brien, M. P. P., etc.

That "big" Mitchell Meeting.

The Transcript says that the "Liberal Convention" of Northumberland has ratified the nomination of Hon. Mr. Mitchell. The statement is incorrect. As many of Mr. Mitchell's supporters as could get together held a small meeting in Newcastle. It was not a Liberal party gathering, but was composed exclusively of Mr. Mitchell's friends and led by gentlemen who were not associated with the Liberal party until 1887.

Young Men's Christian Association of Chatham.

Meetings held every week in their rooms upstairs, Barry's building, as follows:— Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, for Prayer and Praise. Monday evening at 8 o'clock, for Bible Study. Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, for Training Class. All young men are most cordially invited to any or all of these meetings.

Odd Fellows' Entertainment.

The entertainment given by Chatham Lodge I. O. O. F., on Tuesday evening, was a decided success. The programme opened with a selection by the orchestra composed of young ladies and gentlemen of Chatham, under the conductorship of Mr. Collinson, as follows:—

- Miss Winslow, first violin. Lena Goss, second violin. Fannie Gillespie, violoncello. Jennie Shier, bass viol. Gillespie, piano. Mr. Walter White, first cornet. Wilson Loudon, second cornet.

day. "No," was the reply. "I am here as a Liberal, but I can't vote for unrestricted reciprocity. I would sooner vote for annexation." TORONTO, Feb. 18.—The Empire returns to Blake's letter this morning, and says the refusal of the agitators to let the public know the contents of the letter in which Hon. Edward Blake intimated his refusal to be a candidate in the liberal interest in West Durham and his retirement from the present public life, is one of the most extraordinary as well as significant things which the political world of Canada has witnessed for a long time.

A WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.—An effectively-planned and successfully carried out surprise was an "even" last evening at the residence of Mr. W. C. Whittaker, Deputy Post Office Inspector for the New Brunswick Division. Mrs. Whittaker, was out spending the evening, and when her husband brought her home they found the house filled with their friends, who had quietly congratulated them on the twentieth anniversary of their wedding. There was a presentation to Mrs. Whittaker of a pretty chocolate service, a valuable parlor lamp, a valad bowl, and other accompaniments, and Rev. Mr. Macneil made the presentation and congratulatory address to the satisfaction of everybody. Mrs. Whittaker replied very happily. Then the night was filled with music and most pleasant enjoyment. A sumptuous supper was served at midnight, and the well-planned arrangements resulted in a most enjoyable party. The very large company that assembled here testified to the esteem and regard in which Mr. Whittaker and his amiable and gentle wife are held by a wide circle of friends. Globe of 17th.

Hon. Mr. Laurier's Speeches, edited by Mr. Ulrich Barthe, of the editorial staff of L'Espresso, of Quebec. English edition—published for sale by Messrs. J. & A. McMillan, St. John. The Toronto Globe says:—"The English edition of Mr. Laurier's speeches have not only the interest which naturally attaches to the utterances of a statesman, but by such discerning opponents as Hon. Thomas White and J. C. Curran, Q. C.—gives his style a peculiar charm, but that his English is not only pure, but is a model of the classical writers and English of the streets or of the most advanced of Parliament. It bears the stamp of having been acquired by the learner, and the best books rather than by a matter of force merely. It proceeds largely from the sincerity and the frankness of the man who never uses words for the purpose of concealing his thoughts. We fancy that all Reformers and not a few Conservatives, who are interested in Canadian literature, will be anxious to obtain a copy of the work."

An Alleged Whopper. A correspondent writes that Mr. William Mitchell has been telling people in Blackville that Messrs. Ritchie of Newcastle and Mr. William Richards—foremost men in the great business of the country—are not in favor of Mr. Adams' election. We can hardly believe that Mr. Mitchell would make such a silly and untruthful statement and hope he will be able to personally contradict it. The gentleman named is said for Mr. Adams.

A Great Meeting. There was no mistaking the significance of the political meeting held in Masonic Hall, Chatham, on Tuesday evening. Notice was given of it only on Monday, and no special courtesies were shown to all the country with its meeting of the preceding Thursday, but it was just called as a little local affair. But the big hall was packed to the doors, with one of the most orderly and enthusiastic audiences that has ever been in it. Although the call was only to the supporters of Mr. Adams, there were, perhaps, twenty-five or thirty, who professed to be hearers of Mr. Mitchell's protest. Whether they really desired to see the speaker they fully intended the disloyalty to their country of their former position and had recanted, or were sent there by their leaders to inform them of what was going on, is not known, although we were told yesterday of three of them who said they could no longer endorse either unrestricted reciprocity or Mr. Mitchell's candidature.

Mr. John Galloway who is a well known, sturdy, and able representative of our farming interests was the first to have the same intimation, and he, too, was a well-expressed opinion of his party's position. The meeting was addressed in turn by Mr. J. Clark president of the Liberal Conservative Association, Newcastle; John Burdick, M. P. P., J. S. Miller, D. G. Smith, Hon. L. J. Tweedie, M. P. P., M. E. C. and Sarvevor-Gun and Wm. W. Wye, the latter for the purpose of conducting a canvass started by Mr. Mitchell's agent, to the effect that Mr. Adams had promised to get an extension of a fortnight after the close of the season for Messrs. A. & E. Loggie's parties to fish for smelts. Mr. Wye, speaking as overseer for the district, said the report was absurdly false. The other speakers addressed themselves mainly to the great trade questions at issue in the campaign and the necessity for resident representation in the House of Commons. Mr. Burdick mailed another Mitchell canvass. He said some of Mr. Mitchell's friends had reported that their speakers were refused a hearing at the recent political meeting in Nelson. He, Mr. Burdick, was Chairman of that meeting and he had, some time before it was held, called notice of it to be sent to Mr. Mitchell's committee room in Newcastle, intimating that their speakers would have a fair hearing. After the opening of the meeting he gave the same intimation, but some of Mr. Mitchell's friends seemed desirous of speaking. Had they appeared they would have been fairly treated, as all speakers were in Nelson, and in behalf of the place he repelled the slanders of Mr. Mitchell's friends against it.

We observe that the local organ of the wampump party attacks the editor of the Advance who, being in the audience, was respectfully called upon by the Chairman to speak in behalf of the Liberals of the County who had been driven out of their organization by the party's adoption of the Unrestricted Reciprocity policy. The representative of the paper referred to was not present until the last speaker had closed his remarks. When he came he sought information for the most part from all who were supporting Mr. Mitchell, which, no doubt, accounts for the venom he displays towards those whose independence and readiness to assert it at all times, invite his envy. The wampump president is a dangerous and a very harmless enemy.

What Many Liberals Would Like to Know. NISBURN, N. B., 17 Feb., 1891. Dear Sir:—Would you be kind enough to inform me and the enquiring public through the columns of your paper by what authority certain parties, proclaim Mr. Mitchell as the Liberal candidate at this election. Has any convention been held or any effort made to ascertain the feelings of the Liberal party throughout the County? I have been a Liberal all my life, assisted in forming, and attended the subsequent meetings of the Liberal Association in this County, and yet I never saw the prominent Liberals who are now announcing Mr. M. as the Liberal candidate, at any of the meetings. It is only fair to the rank and file of the Liberal party in Northumberland that they should know by whose or what authority these things are done.

Agricultural Society Show. Northumberland Agricultural Society held its annual winter exhibition of root, grain, dairy-produce, poultry and domestic manufactures, at Masonic Hall, Newcastle, on Thursday last. Owing to a slight indisposition, the President, B. Stapleton, Esq., was prevented from being present, but the vice-president, John Galloway, Esq., assisted by the committee and the officers of the Society, and yet I never saw the prominent Liberals who are now announcing Mr. M. as the Liberal candidate, at any of the meetings. It is only fair to the rank and file of the Liberal party in Northumberland that they should know by whose or what authority these things are done.

Conspicuous Curd. An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested it on thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-creatures. Actuated by this motive and led by the promise of the cure, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this receipt, in German, French or English with full directions for preparing it, and will be mailed by addressing with stamp, naming this paper.
