Peter's, Church, Derby, met together on the 14th inst. to present her with a very handsome lady's workbox, as a small token of their appreciation of her devoted services. The gift was presented on behalf of the friends, by the Rector, Rev. R. W. Hudgell.

BLACK BROOK is to be highly honored, as we are informed that the great ejector s been running around telling his friends that they have telegraphed for another non-resident who lives even further from us than Montreal, and he is coming to turn all the Black Brook voters over to Mr. Mitchell. These managers are "high for non-residedts."

Poor THING! The little Gleaner is in terrible state of excitement. It published the exploded story in reference to the alleged understanding between Mr. Adams and our four members of the local legislature respecting Mr. Adams' present candidacy as if it were true, and builds a house of cards upon it. The Gleaner has made a laughing-stock of itself in both Local and Dominion politics for some time, and its rapidly decreasing constituency of readers have learned that any man or policy condemned by that paper are pretty sure to be right and on the road to success.

Brutality Rampart.

A remarkable scene was witnessed in the upper part of the town of Chatham on Monday. It was an ejectment, attended with all the most rude, even brutal incidents which have caused people abroad to execrate events of the kind in Ireland. Mrs. Helen Dickens, a widow, having two children, a boy of 11 and a girl of 6 years, was in occupancy of a house which was owned in her lifetime by her mother-Mrs. Millerwho died some ten or eleven years ago. The property was never divided and Mrs. Dickens occupied it with the consent of the other heirs, Mr. Thos. Miller and Mrs. Peter Dickens, sister of the vicin of the ejectment. As Mrs. Dickens was about her usual chandler, went to her door and demanded an entrance. She refused to let him in, whereupon, after sundry threatening demands which were unheeded, he battered in the door with an iron bar. Policemen Gillis and Lawson were witnesses of Mr. Watt's doings, but Gillis save the verbal invitation of Mr. Watt. Having broken the door open Mr. Wast proceeded to remove the sashes from the windows and this he followed up .ones deprived in this high-handed manner of their home surcoundings-took shelter watte Mrs. Dickens' sister. It seems a fortunate thing that they could do this, for it was bitterly cold. Before the outrage was fully consummated Mrs Dickens' brother appeared upon the scene, do so, and also that it is not a creditable but seeing the policeman apparently act- thing for a man of his position to commit ing with Mr. Watt, he was restrained himself to a statement so palpably at vari- principles of civil liberty and equal rights from defending his sister's and his own sace with the facts. The only defence Mr. Wa't offers for his conduct is, we understand, that expoliceman Ross, who is out of the country was in debt to him and gave him some kind of a claim on the property in question, either as security or in satisfaction of the debt.

Ross' wife, who died a month ago, was a sister of Mrs. Dickens who was so brutally turned out of the house on Monday, but as she left no children it does not appear that Ross had any rights whatever in the property. Northesk and Southesk will give large majorities for Mr. Adams. Those parishes were largely for Mr. Mitchell in 1887, but will reverse their vote of that occasion, on 5th March. Meetings in both parishes have given unmistakeable signs of the change, some of Mr. Mitcheli's most effective supporters of the former election being now outspoken in Mr. Adams' favor. The reasons are principally because of Mr. Mitchell's manifest indifference to the interests of the County during the last four years, his mixed adherence to the Liberal and third parties, and the adoption by the Liberal party of the impossible and impracticable policy of Unrestricted Reciprocity. An elector of Southesk, with whom we had a conversation a few days since, said Mr. Mitchell's canvassers seemed to think the people in his locality were ignorant, and, they, accordingly, talked "bosh" to them. He said that the Dominion Government's proposals "THE PIONEER" could not expect us to for reciprocity in fish, lumber, coal, etc., know that it could not take certain anti-Mof- were just what were wanted, while everyfat paragraphs out of its forms before they body knew that Unrestricted Reciprocity were locked up for its issue of 14th, and must | meant the destruction of our revenue, as well not, therefore, be surprised over our criticism as the industrial interests we had been twelve years in building up, so that we would not be able to pay the country's bills, him as a candidate in other columns. Why which would lead to national dishonor and a helpless and inglorious drift into annexation, which no true British subject or Canadian could contemplate without contempt for the promoters of such a scheme.

A sample meeting was held at Redbank on Friday evening. Mr. James that in vogue in other offices. We hope our | Somers, a life-long independent liberal and one of the leading lumbermen of the County, was Chairman. He, like many of his neighthe news of Mr. Moffat's election on 5th bors, realises the great mistake the County would make in longer supporting Mr. Mit chell, and he is an outspoken supporter of PERSONAL; -We had a pleasant call this Mr. Adams. More than one hundred electors were present, and amongst the speakers were J.P. Burchill and Jas. Robinson, Esqrs., Balm, as a cure for catarrh and cold in the M. P. P.'s, B. Fairey, C. S. Ramsay and Rev. Jas. Murray the well-known Presbyterian minister of Redbank. The last named gentleman made the speech of the evening. His ringing words, as he handled the Liberal party's trade proposa's, by which they were practically attempting to beggar a prosperous section of the empire in order that it might be handed over to another flag and nation, stirred the audience to the highest pitch of enthusiasm. Referring to the denominational cry he declared himself ready to fling aside the black coat and, if necessary, don the red one to fight against annexation, which was the evident object of the Liberal party. The "Esks" may be relied upon to do credit to themselves and the County on 5th March.

The Unrestricted third party men held a meeting in Hon. Mr. Mitchell's interest at the Douglasfield School House on Saturday evening, and a number of Liberals including Messrs. J. P. Burchill and D. G. Smithas well as some conservatives-attended for the purpose of exposing the absurdity of Mr. Mitchell's position. Those present who were acquainted with the facts were treated to a surprise by Mr. Hennessy, who is still president of the mortal remains of the liberal Association of the County of Northumberland. Mr. Burchill, in the course of an admirable address, challenged the correctness of the asertion that Mr. Mitchell was the candidate of the Liberal Association of th County, and claimed that he had been nom inated by a clique composed largely of men who were not Liberals, but had always fought against the Liberals in their hardest Special services in connection with the | contests, and only connected themselves with the Association in 1887 for the purpose of promoting Mr. Mitchell's election on that St. Luke's Church, Chatham, at 11 a. m. occasion. Mr. Burchill referred to the fact ald Smith's meeting in Montreal West the There will be a special sermon by the that by the rules of the Association it was other day. "No," was the reply. A few of Mr. Mitchell's heelers went around, soon after the dissolution was announced, and asked others, whom they thought could, by their childish strategy, be made to commit themselves to their plans, to attend an informal meeting of the "party" in Newcastle. They were told by the old members that if a meeting of the Association was properly called they would attend. No such meeting was called. No notices for such a meeting were ever issued. Before the time when the Assochousehold duties, Mr. Geo. Watt, ship have brought it to its present dismantled selves seriously whether this country condition, there was no hole and corner work. The notices were printed bills circulated generally and they invited not only members of the County Liberal Association but also "ail those longed to her and the other heirs of her make intelligent and self-respecting mem- through a community of liking and opinmother, including a cooking stove, three bers of the Association believe that they lons, in which case Sir Richard may fairly tables, wash stand, bedstead, feather bed, ought to have responded to such a call? Does He own Restigouche?

Restigbuche Pioneer, in which that gentleman manifests undue asperity over a few lines which appeared in last week's ADVANCE in reference to the Pioneer's attitude towards Mr. Moffat. We have not the privilege of a personal acquaintance with "H. F. Mc-Latchey, Esq.," who appears to think so little of "Geo. Moffat" and "Moffat," but believe he is the Police Magistrate of Campbellton, as well as a lawyer, There is, therefore, all the more reason why he should set an example of that courtesy and good breeding which generally characterise gentlemen of the bench and bar, and not write as if he were catering for the plandits of hoodlums, who we do not believe form any appreciable proportion of the population of either Campbellton or any other part of the County of Restigouche. By a pretended quotation from the ADVANCE, H. F. McLatchey, Esquire, squarely misrepresents what we said, and if his deliverances in his magisterial capacity are made up from such distortion of evidence as he thus proves himself | Empire. capable of making, it is Campbellton's misfortune to have the important machinery of its police court in rather dangerous and unreliable hands. We charitably assume, however, that, in this case, Mr. McLatchey is not following his usual practice, but has been drawn aside therefrom by political excitement, which, sometimes, unhinges even great minds in small communities. We assure Esquire McLatchey that we do not desire to go beyond our right in manifesting an interest in Restigouche affairs, but we have, for s'xteen years, had many friends in that county with whom we have endeavored, as far as possible, to keep in touch and we believe we are still in line with them in the course we are pursuing in regard to Mr. Moffat. It is unreasonable, for Mr. Mo-Latchey to claim that the ADVANCE ought not to "medd'e with the politics of the county," and although we may know as little of the subject as that gentleman claims we do, we shall continue, either with or without his leave, to express that little, whenever we think there is occasion to do so. There is ample room for us all in this world. The ADVANCE took an interest in Resti-Police Magistrate attempted to take charge of the county, and, however great may be his influence and desire to have the place all to himself, we shall humbly, yet firmly contique to exercise our right in that respect, notwithstanding his overshadowing and objecting presence. We beg to say that we are not at all awed by the frowning mien of 'Squire McLatchey, for there is in his letter, evidence of a pretentious and ostentatious assumption of proprietorship in the County of Restigouche, which appears so ridiculous as to suggest that he is unduly impressed with an idea of his own magnitude, which, after all, is not so great as to prevent modest men and modest papers from even "meddling" with the politics of that fine section of the Province.

CARD

To the Electors of the County of Northumberland:

GENTLEMEN: At the request of a large number of gentlemen who have presented me with a Nomination paper numerously signed by the electors of the different polling districts of the County, I have decided to allow myself to be put in nomination as the Candidate of the Liberal-Conservative Party at the ensuing election to be held on the 5th day of

To my friends throughout the County who have thus promised me their support and influence, I return my sincere thanks for this expression of their confidence in me, and I beg to assure them and the whole of the electorate of the County that in accepting the nomination so kindly presented I shall use every endeavour to win for our party a grand victory and place our County in line with the government.

For many years important interests touching our County's advancement and progress have been neglected, with the result that North-UMBERLAND TO-DAY REQUIRES, MORE THAN ANY OTHER COUNTY IN THE Province, a Representative in thorough accord with the Government and in touch with the important interests of the County.

Our late Representative, being a Non-Resident, is not immediately interested in the further advancement of the County, and this, together with his open hostility to the administration, has left Northumberland in the unfortunate position she occupies to-day. As your representative I will take every occasion to press upon the notice of the government the fact that our interests have not alone been neglected in the past, but they must be attended to in the future-I will demand from the Government that a fair share of the public moneys be expended on such important works as-THE CONSTRUCTION of the ESCUMINAC BREAKWATER— THE BUILDING OF NECESSARY WHARVES ON THE NORTH AND SOUTH SIDE OF OUR RIVER from Chatham downwards for the convenience of the travelling public-THE ERECTION of a PUBLIC BUILDING in the TOWN OF CHATHAM, for Postal, Customs and Revenue purposes, better adapted to the wants and importance of the Town than the present unsightly and unsafe one-THE OBTAINING of GOVERNMENT AID for RAILWAYS as feeders for the

I. C. R., and the COMPLETION and EXTENSION of the Indiantown Branch—and generally such other matters of importance as our public necessities require.

In view of the short space of time between this and polling day, it will be impossible for me to visit each one of you. I therefore request that the Electors of the County will give their earnest support and cooperation, and work earnestly for me from now until the close of the polls. In the meantime, I will address such public meetings throughout the different sections of the County as time and opportunity will I am yours most respectfully

M. ADAMS.

Newcastle, 9th February, 1891

THE BALLOT AND HOW TO USE IT.

Following is a representation of the ballot to be used at the different polling places in Northumberland on Thursday, 5th March, should Mr. Mitchell contest the election. It will be, in form, size and general appearance, as shown below, with exception of the cross mark, (X) which each elector is, himself, to put upon it after the presiding officer has given it to him, and he has retired to the private compartment for that Election for the Electoral District of Northumberland, 1891.

ADAMS.

Michael Adams, of Newcastle, in the County of Northumberland, Barrister at Law.

MITCHELL. . Hon. Peter Mitchell, Journalist, of Montreal, Province of Quebec.

The business of voting will be conducted as follows:— The polls will be opened at nine a. m., at the places in each electoral district announced in the Official Proclamation issued by John Shirreff. E.q., Returning Officer.

Excepting in districts where there are a large number of voters on the lists, only one voter will be admitted to the polling booth at a time. There will be present in the place where the poll is held the return-entatives or agents of each candidate. The Voter, after giving his name, and it being ascertained that he is entitled to vote, will receive his ballot, on the back of which the returning officer shall have put his initials, together with the voter's number on the counterfoil, or bottom part. The Voter will then retire to the private room and place the crossmark on the part of the ballot containing the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote (just as the cross-mark above is placed for the guidance of all friends of Mr. Adams.) McMillan. James McCarthy, David Lyons, P. Saunders, Geo. T. Murphy, John Campbell. Moses J. Pond, C. R. Whalen, James A. Meagher, Robert McKay, D. H. Gunter. ing officer's initials may be seen without its being opened, and hand it to the returning officer, who, on examining the initials and number on the counterfoil, shall tear off the latter and deposit the ballot in the box. If a Voter accidentally spoil a ballot, he will be entitled to a fresh one

> Should the voter not be able to read, or should he be otherwise incapacitated so as to need assistance in marking his ballot, such assistance will be rendered by the Returning Officer in the presence of the sworn agents of the respective candidates, and no others.

> Returning Officers and their clerks are empowered to act as Justices of the Peace and peace officers for the maintenance of good order. Every voter is expected to obtain his ballot, mark and deposit it and leave the booth as expeditiously as possible. The polls will close at 5 p. m.
