CHATHAM, N. B., 1 - SEPTEMBER 3, 1891.

Kent County.

Mr. Hanington, the leader of the Opposition, has evidently had his usua experience, in addressing Kent meet ings in the interests of Mr. Gogain. The policy of his party seems to be not to seek the people's favor by reason of a more excellent programme for the management of public affairs than that with which the Government is before the country, but by malignant abuse and misrepresentation to impress the 300,000 electors with the idea that the Government is so bad that any change would

The Government party is carrying on the canvass with great force and effect throughout the County. The Attorney General's able, earnest and convincing addresses at Richibucto and Harcourt have added numbers of recruits to the ministerial ranks. He appears a perfect master of the situation, and it is conceded, on all sides, that it would be both a pity and a blunder to weaken such a man's hands, and crime to aid and abet his inveterate enemies in their attempt to destroy him. In the face of his accusers he has appealed to the people to judge him for his cause. There is, after all on which we pay all charges, and we prepay Express Charges on Tickets and Lists of Prizes for- in the great heart of the people a supreme love for fair-play. On hearing the man whom the "Times" has so basely and meanly slandered, acquit himself so frankly and so nobly, pointing to his record for approval or condemnation, bidding prejudice be still, and asking only that he be intelligently judged, the people will give no uncertain answer. Mr. Blair spoke at Cocagne last night. To-night speaks at Buctouche and he will speak s FIVE YEARS LONGER, at Kingston to-morrow night. Other meetings may be arranged later on; for the fair-minded electorate of Kent WILL FAVOR CONTINUANCE. must and will hear him.

On Friday last the Hon. D. Hanington held a meeting at Buc-Melanson made short addresses, prelim ary to the great effort expected from the leader of Her Majesty's loyal opposition. Hr. Haninington lost his head and became very abusive, directing his ill-considered remarks at gentlemen in the audience who were there 11.66 per cent, will take it | simply to hear him. Amongst the rest he had a nasty fling at Mr. McInerney, whom he several times alluded to in a most insulting fashion. No sooner had he closed his tirade than the Mr. McInerney. It was a genuine and 1881, has gained only 61 in the last than ever determined to support the treat while the speaker, for over twen- ten years. The New Brunswick countres government candidate, Mr. Legere, who $250.00 IN PRIZES. $250.00 ty minutes, held Hanington up to the which show increases are :riducle of the audience, quoting Stevens and Powell, Stockton and Alward against Hanington, and then, in turn. giving very pointed quotations from Hanington against them, in a time not so very remote, when they were not the happy family they now pretend to be. As the lash fell, each cut more keen than the preceding, it began to dawn on the Goliath from Westmorland that he had awakened the wrong passenger. The audience fairly scream ed with delight, for every man felt that the man from Dorchester was getting what he sweetly deserved. Passing on to a discussion of the questions raised by the previous speak-500 Bbls. Standard, Ex. C. and ers the tables were neatly turned against them. Mr. Phinney had asked the audience to condenin Blair because he had passed the Highway and Registration of Births, Marriages and Deaths Acts, and because he had declared that the country must soon face direct taxation. The answer was complete. "Why should Phinney ask you to condemn Blair for an utterance made in 1887 and for two measures enacted, one in 1886, the other in 1887, when he (Phinney) knowing these things, actually ran on a ticket with LeBlanc in Kent in 1888 in support of the Blair Government?" It was a bad night for the opposition, and when, after an hour and a half, Mr. McInerney asked the audience to show Mr. Hanington just how the government stood in a meeting Winslow is authorized to issue renewals of existing called by Mr. Hanington's hand-bills, they rose en masse and cheered again and again for Blair, retiring from the hall with loud cheers for the govern ment, leaving just eight men behind to hold a post mortem on Hanington's

It is this predisposition to indiscrewhat is a paying and successful against the character or acts of his opponents are too vile for him to indulge in, and, unfortunately, he is so often convicted in the legislature of bearing from competent and experienced false witness in this respect, that when anything defamatory of character, is said in Fredericton, and not believed. it is referred to as having only been said in a Haningtonian sense.

Dr. Stockton, Dr. Alward and M. Powell had a meeting advertised for the Temperance Hall, Richibucto, on the 31st August. Dr. Stockton alone materialized. It is said Mr. Powell kicks against travelling in double harness with Professor Stockton. At the end of the opposition speeches Mr. McInerney was called by the Government supporters present who were at least 3 to 1 of the meeting, to take up the cudgels against the oppositionists. He did it in fine style and carried the jumping from side to side as he is direct-

The North Shore now stands 9 to 1 in the House for the Government. We have two important portfolios. Shall we throw them up and allow the high stumpage men to run the Province?

The census entitles Kent to at least three representatives. The Government is willing to give that County justice in this matter. Kent will consult her own interests by strengthening Blair's hands at this time, so that he may, prompted by fair-play and gratitude, see his way clear to increase her representation in the Assembly. Let the electors of Kent vote for the Government, because it is proven to honest and economical, as well as because the County's interests unmistakeably demand it.

The people of Kent are fortunate in | not fit Mr. Smith, but we leave it to those being visited by Mr. Blair as well as who know Mr. Phinney to observe how Mr. Hanington, and in being thus afforded the opportunity of seeing the leaders of the respective parties in the present campaign. They will form their own judgment as to which of them appears to be the abler man and safest guide-which has the most respect for his position and also for that of others, and is the better disposed towards the people of the country gen-
