OBITUARY:-We record with sorrow, the death of one of our most respected citizens, Mr. Wm. I. Loggie, of Black Brook, which took place at his residence on Tuesday morning 25th Aug., 1891. Deceased had been in poor health for several years, but till within a short time of his death, did not give up personal attention to business. With great courage he bore up against the depressing weakness produced by his disease, never complaining, but always thinking for the comfort af others.

He leaves his wife and three children to mourn the loss of a loving and devoted husband and father. His remains were followed by a large procession of friends from his residence in Black Brook to the place of interment in St Andrew's cemetery, Chatham, on Tuesday, 27th Aug. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do rudder must have struck bottom and been follow." Rev. 14: 13. -Com.

PERSONAL:-Rev. Richmond Shreve, D. D., of Albany, N. Y., who, with his family, has been spending a part of his summer vacation with Miramichi friends, took part in both morning and evening services at St. Mary's church, Chatham, on Sanday, preaching very interesting and instructive sermons on both occasions.

D. T. Johnstone, jr. Esq. formely of Chatham, but a resident of Charlottetown for some years, is paying a visit to Chatham, where Mrs. and Master Johnstone have been visiting for a few weeks. A host of friends are glad to welcome them,

Rev. Douglas Chapman, a former pastor o the Methodist Church, Chatham, conducted the service in St. Lukes on Sunday. As pastor and also as a citizen Mr. Chapman was very highly esteemed, and a hearty welcome from everybody greeted him on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Marshall, St. Luke's DEAR ADVANCE :present pastor, occupied Mr. Chapman's pulpit at Marysville on Sunday.

Dr. Murray Maclaren of St. John and Asst. Paymaster Black-Barnes, R. N., turned from the Tabasintac Club's waters on Friday last. They had excellent luck. Mr. Chas. Harrison-another of the party-returned a day or two before. He also was much pleased with his trip!

Mr. W. C. Stikeman, formerly of the Bank of Montreal here, and now of the same institution in Brantford, Ont., is visiting Chatham friends, of whom he has many.

Mr. Liddell of Halifax, representing Mr. James Morrison's well-known Tea and West India produce house is in town. He is ac companied by Mr. Adolphus Halstead of Antigua, W. I., who is interested in an extensive sugar plantation there, and comes north to further his business interests with Mr. Morrison and also to make enquiries with regard to possible lumber and other shipments to Antigua.

We are informed that Mr. C. Bruce Mac-Dougall. late of the Restigouche Pioneer, is to take charge of the Albert Maple Leaf in few days. Mr. MacDougall made the Pioneer quite a lively paper and will, doubt, be able to maintain the Maple Leaf in a leading place amongst our provincial

Mr. R. Barry Smith, barrister-at-law, Moncton, who was stricken down with paralysis of the tongue and throat while addressing a jury in that city a few days ago, is able to be about again. For a short time he lost the power of speech, and his mind was deranged. Dr. E. B. Chandler, who diagnosed his case, found the patient healthy in all respects, save that he smoked too much tobacco. Mr. Smith is an able lawyer and his many friends will be glad to learn that he is restored to his usual good

Bathurst Notes.

The R. C. Bazaar opens to-day under very favourable circumstances. The weather fine, the Campbellton Band will be in attendance and the sports and amusements, particularly the base-ball match to-morrow will be very interesting.

On 10th the fall meeting of the Bathurst Driving Park Association will take place as mentioned in last week's ADVANCE. There will be a purse of $250 divided into three classes, as follows:-1st, open to horses that never won public money-$24 to first, $12 to second and $4 to third. 2nd, 3 mioute class-$48 to first, $24 to second and $8 to third, 3rd, Free-for-all-$72 to first, $36 to second and $13 to third. members of the Order of Hibernians." The Gleaner has since endeavored to ward off the public indignation raised by its unmerited assault upon the Hibernians by explaining that it intended to say there were 50 instead of 450 of the Fredericton Hibernian excursionists drunk, but even that will not go far towards concealing the miserable class prejudice which inspires it and those for whom it speaks. The country is becoming too much enlightened for such intolerance to find many sympathisers.

We like to listen to a good speaker, whether we agree with what he says or not, but the Doctor labored very hard. He felt that the audience was apathetic and critical. He would stop at times, impressing one with the idea that he had no more to say. He would pull out his watch and look at Mr. Phinney, who would make signs for him to go on, and Phinney would look at his friends with an expression that said "You see, these big St. John guns don't amount to much, after all."
