

RE-OPENING OF S. PAUL'S CHURCH :- S Paul's Church which has been undergoing repairs will (D. V.) be re-opened on Sunday morning next at half-past eleven o'clock. The Holy Communion will be celebrated and the offerings will be for the expenses of repairs.

MR. R. S. MURRAY has had a new plate class front placed in his dry goods store of Prince Street. Mr. Murray is to be con gratulated on now having one of the most handsome places of business in Truro, and Truro has the most handsome stores in Nova Scotia,-Truro Guardian, 26th.

A HORSEBACK TOUR :- A Fredericton report in Monday's Globe says: Leonard Tilley, Emest Turnbull and Fred Daniel, of St. John, who are making a tour of the province on horseback, arrived from Gagetown last night. The two former left for Chatham this morning, and from there will go to Richibucto and Shediac, then home. Mr. Daniel went back to St. John from here.

LA GRIPPE : -- Hon. Surveyor-General 'Tweedie has been laid up for a fortnight with la grippe. He ventured, on Monday, as far as Newcastle, intending to have an outing on the Str. Laura of the Miramichi Yacht Club, but had a turn for the worse before leaving Newcastle and was brought home at once. He is still confined to the house, but convalescing.

TRACADIE MILLS : - On Saturday, Mr. W. A. Lockhart, sold the Tracadie River steam saw mill, with 200 acres of land, to the Bank of Montreal. The mill, formerly be-Junged to the Sweeney estate, but was mortgaged to Messrs. Stewart, and on their failure the mortgage was handed over to the Bank of Montreal. Mr. C. W. Weldon bought the property for the bank at $7,000. -St. John Telegraph.

DROWNED AT BLACKVILLE :- At Black ville, last Saturday, two young men named Porter started for Cain's river in a canoe loaded with a barrel of flour and other articles. The current is very swift there at this season, and the men failed in two attempts to get round the pier. At the third trial the canoe upset. One of the men swam ashore, and missing his brother returned to look for him. He had, however, been drawn un ler by the current and drowned. The surwivor swam safely back to his shore again.

PERSONAL :- Mr. Gordon M. Blair, of th Bank of Montreal, Moncton, and Messrs. Rupert and Fred. Blair spent the holiday at home.

A good many people in Chatham would have attended the meeting had they known it was to be held, and one of them asked on Saturday why we did not announce it. It was explained to him that we were not afforded an opportunity to do so. For the information of the many who are not aware of the fact, we may state that we have always-when requested to do so-cheerfully published announcements of such meetings, without making any charge therefor, but, for some time, the local W. C. T. U. have not male use of our columns in that way, and we were not aware that the meeting of Friday evening was to be held until after it had taken place. It would have een much better and more fair to the ladies who took the trouble to come long distances to attend the convention had the public been properly informed of both the convention and the intention to hold the meeting. We think we have, before, heard the exression. He might have done so and thus permitted his audience to judge it for themselves, but, then, he could not have justified his extraordinary intimation that it was calculated to insult anyone. LIVERPOOL, May 19 :-- The police of this city are at present engaged in the investigation of a mysterious "find." Early this morning some dock laborers saw a newly painted black bag, similar to those u ed by sailors to hold their blankets, oilskins and other parts of their sea wardrobe, floating in the Handon deck in this city. The dockmen proceeded to haul the bag out of the water, but after landing it they saw that upon its outside were painted, evidently by a sailor, the British and Norwegian ensigns crossed. Beneath these emblems were the
