DON'T FORGET the grand picnic at Moody's Point, Bartibog, next Tuesday.

The "ADVOCATE" was invited to a festival. In what capacity could a newspaper go to a festival?

$30 REWARD is offered for the recovery of a number of articles stolen from a trunk that came to Chatham from Fredericton last week.—See advt.

ARM BROKEN.—While adjusting a bell on a revolving pulley at the Palm Mill on Monday, Mr. John Ross had an arm broken near the wrist.

FURNITURE, ETC.—Intending purchasers of furniture are interested in Mr. Fairley's advertisement, which appears in another column.

SERIOUS LOSS.—We regret to hear that Mr. Jas. Gillis' residence, Southwick, was burned last Sunday afternoon, and that he also lost the greater part of his furniture at the same time.

ACCIDENT.—Mrs. P. DeRly, met with a sad accident last week. In stepping from a chair to the floor she fell, breaking one of her thigh bones it is said in two places. She is under the care of Dr. W. A. Wilson.

ADVOCATE.—A "FOR A WALK" announcement is thrown away in the "Advocate" because nobody knows who the advertiser is. The "Advocate" put a bull in a church festival the other day. What's the matter with the good little paper of late?

BARN BURNED.—Mr. Jas. Marlock's barn near Black Rock—together with a calf and some other property of considerable value—was burned on Monday morning. It is supposed that the fire of a tramp who slept in the barn the night before caused the fire.

THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL REPORT, as published in two local papers, is not the report, as furnished to them by the council through its official reporter, both of the papers having abbreviated it, although the reporter sent it to the papers in as condensed a form as possible.

SUCCESSFUL HUNTING TRIP.—Henry Braithwaite, the veteran trapper, and his chum, Arthur Pringle, returned last week from a two months trapping cruise on the head waters of the Upsalquitch and Tobique rivers. They brought nearly a thousand dollars worth of furs to Fredericton, the larger number being bear skins.—Gleaner.

MR. J. C. BROWN the popular and efficient representative of Messrs. T. Milburn & Co., Toronto, was in town last week looking after the interests of Burdock Blood Bitters, and Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberries, and etc. Mr. Brown is one of the most experienced traveling men in his line and is so well known to newspaper men that their best side is always towards him.

THE TWELFTH—"No Surrender" Orange Lodge, of Newcastle, marched on Sunday morning last from their hall through the streets of the town of St. James' Church, where Rev. Mr. Atkins preached a sermon suitable to the occasion. Over fifty members were in the march and the lodge made a most creditable turnout. Last night the lodge with a number of guests spent a very pleasant evening at a strawberry festival.—Advocate.

BARTIBOG.—At a meeting of the Bartibog Fishing Club held at Col. R. R. Call's office, Newcastle, on Friday, July 10th, Hon. J. J. Adams of New York was elected President; E. Hutchinson, Vice-President and Lieut. Col. R. R. Call, Secretary-Treasurer. The Club decided that, owing to the promiscuous poaching practiced by residents and others, it will have to prohibit any fishing whatever by outsiders. Mr. John Connell is guardian.

CAMP ADAMS' records since 16th June is sixty salmon, besides the usual quantities of trout. Hon. Judge Hemphill and Messrs. T. Marshall, Francis Jacobs and Capt. R. T. Cornwall of West Chatham, Pa., are there now with Mr. H. Armstrong and Master Clay Adams. The place is gay with bathing and the party are enjoying themselves most thoroughly. There is no salmon record in the country superior to Camp Adams and however many fish may be taken there are always a few more left for the next day.

PERSONAL.—Thos. Robertson, Esq., ex-M.P. for Shelburne, N. S., was in town on Tuesday.

Messrs. Thos. Peters, Ams Goslow, John V. Ellis and J. H. Leonard of St. John's and Camp Adams, are there now with Mr. H. Armstrong and Master Clay Adams. The place is gay with bathing and the party are enjoying themselves most thoroughly. There is no salmon record in the country superior to Camp Adams and however many fish may be taken there are always a few more left for the next day.

OBITUARY.—The death of Mrs. Benson wife of Dr. John S. Benson—removes a highly esteemed lady, whose bereaved husband and family have the sincere sympathy of the entire community. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon in St. Andrew's burial ground, the funeral being very largely attended by friends from far and near. The burial service was conducted by Rev. Neil McKay, of St. John's church, assisted by Rev. Wm. Aitken, of St. James' church, Newcastle.

KINGSTON RACES.—At the races at Kingston, Kent, on Thursday last, two Newcastle horses were entered, Harry F, owned by John Ferguson, and Excelsior Chief, owned by Mr. John Russell. There were three entries, the above named and Gray Vane.

First heat was won by Harry F, in 2:46, Chief second.

Second heat was won by Chief by a length Harry F, second, time 2:40.

Third heat was won by Harry F, in 2:46, Chief second.

Fourth heat was won by Harry F, by a length, Chief second.

We understand that Mr. Russell has sold Chief, the price being $300.—Advocate.

Confirmation Service in S. Mary's Chapel.

The episcopal rite of Confirmation was administered by His Lordship Bishop Kingston, in S. Mary's Chapel, on Wednesday evening last at half-past 7 o'clock.

Notwithstanding the very unfavorable weather there was a large congregation present, and the Bishop was accompanied by the Rector and the following clergymen, viz: The Revs. A. Prime of Brighton, Wm. U. S. S. R. Murray of Stanley, York Co., W. J. Wilson of Bay Vin, and R. W. Huggell of Derby. The service began with the Processional Hymn "March, March Onwards, Soldiers True," &c., the candidates having previously taken their places in the front seats of the nave near the chancel. The Bishop addressed the candidates both before and after the laying on of hands, and His Lordship's instruction and counsel were attentively listened to throughout. Thirty-two persons were confirmed at the service, one by illness and another by the storm, the former was confirmed privately on Thursday morning. The offerings at the service were for the Incapacitated Clergy Fund, and the service closed with the Hymn "O Lord, I have Promised," &c., as a Recessional, while the Bishop and clergy followed by the candidates led the church. The whole service was very interesting and solemn and will be well remembered. On Thursday morning the Bishop, accompanied by the Rector, visited St. Paul's (Parish) Church with the late improvements in which His Lordship expressed himself as highly pleased. In the afternoon the Bishop and his family proceeded to Dalhousie where Mr. Leachy informed us, we understand, to remain for one month.

Dedication of the Baptist Church at Lyttleton, South East.

To the Editor of the Advance.

DEAR SIR.—A little more than two years ago I spent a few days at Lyttleton, South East, and, impressed with the great need of a place of worship for the community, I urged the people to make arrangements for building. They promptly acted upon my advice. A building committee was then appointed who have nobly accomplished the work entrusted to them. The building has been completed, and is centrally and pleasantly located on the south side of the river. It is 26 feet by 32, with 15 feet posts, capable of seating about 200 people—a neat comfortable and respectable structure. A visit to the manufactory of Messrs. I. Harris & Son shows plainly that there is a reason for the excellence of these favorite brands of cigars. The factory is an extensive one, giving employment to 60 or 70 hands, mostly journeymen, not apprentices, is well lighted and every facility afforded the hands to turn out good work. It is under the immediate supervision of Mr. R. Cohen who has served a life-long apprenticeship as a cigar manufacturer and is thoroughly acquainted with the business in its every detail. The stock used by the Messrs. Harris & Son is selected with the utmost care in the Havana market, well bought, and treated in the factory in every respect as it is in the best factories in Cuba. Consequently, as was justly remarked by one of the proprietors "having the best Havana cigars made in Cuba, why should our goods not equal Havana goods in every respect? There is no reason why they should not and the universal opinion of the merchants of this Dominion seems to prove that Messrs. Harris & Son's cigars are fully equal to any imported goods. Their whole aim is to give quality and they do it. The senior partner is well known as a quiet, genial enterprising man, who has built up his own fortune and he is ably assisted by his sons, who divide the different branches of the business between them, and whether as financier or commercial traveller, are deservedly popular. The success of the firm of I. Harris & Son is assured, especially as they intend to carry out the principle of giving the best possible value in their cigars.

Young Men's Christian Association of Chatham.

Meetings held every week in their rooms up-stairs, Barry's Building, as follows:—Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, for Prayer and Praise.

Monday evening at 8 o'clock, for Bible Study.

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, for Training Class.

All young men are most cordially invited to any or all of these meetings.

Hon. Messrs. Tweedie and Pugsley at Ottawa.

An Ottawa despatch says: The dining-room of the Ottawa club presented a festive scene last Friday evening. The occasion was a dinner given by Hon. Mr. Costigan, Minister of Inland Revenue, and Mr. P. Victor N. B. in honor of two of the honorable members of the New Brunswick Government at present in the city, Messrs. Tweedie and Pugsley, surveyor-general and solicitor-general respectively for that province. At the head of the table was seated Hon. Mr. Costigan, having on his right the Hon. Mr. Pugsley, Hon. Senator Howland and Dr. Bergin, M. P., and on his left Sir John Thompson and Messrs. Wood and Skinner, M. P.'s. The vice-chair was occupied by the Hon. Mr. Tweedie and on his right the Hon. Mr. Foster, Minister of Finance. The other gentlemen present were: Messrs. Mackintosh, Hazen, McLeod, Walton, McAllister, Adams, Legor, Temple, M. P.'s; Hon. Senators Potier and Walsh. Mr. Burns, M. P., sent an apology, as urgent business obliged him to leave the city. After the cloth had been drawn Hon. Mr. Costigan proposed the health of her majesty the Queen, which was drunk with all the honors, the company joining in singing God save the Queen. Mr. Costigan again called for full bumpers, and in a few well-chosen words, in which he referred to his own long connection with the representation of New Brunswick and his pleasurable acquaintance with them, proposed the health of the two distinguished guests of the evening.

Messrs. Pugsley and Tweedie replied, and the course of their remarks gave expression to the pleasure with which they on all occasions have enjoyed the presence of the Hon. Mr. Costigan, and the pleasure with which they on all occasions have enjoyed the presence of the Hon. Mr. Costigan, and the pleasure with which they on all occasions have enjoyed the presence of the Hon. Mr. Costigan.

The present management of the Courier (it would be a misrepresentation of the most libellous kind to call it the Editor) is cross. So much of truth was stated in your correspondent's view of the escape of prisoners from goal and extradition of the gaoler (the gaoler sheriff) that it became necessary that the sheet should descend to personalities as untruthful as they are unworthy of any journal. Not much was expected from the paper after it had passed out of the hands of the former owners and editors, but it was at least thought that some of the advertiser's friends, more wily and better versed in schemes the most likely to secure patronage, might have held his sensational back under the new regime had got a fair start. Not so, however. It is so to be delighted to see, and there it ends. The personalities are simply "obscenities," not worth noticing, and peculiarly characteristic of the late proprietor and his friends. There will probably be found one who will call it "a good piece in the Courier." The public must perceive however that the escape is not accounted for. Neither is it denied that a "good-natured grand jury" saw fit to say, "that the sheriff gaoler did anything to prevent Beathie's escape, but that the gaoler was not supposed to have in their possession, while in goal, any tools or implements by which an escape could be secured, it is not sought to show that the gaoler ever knew whether they had or not. Nothing of importance is elicited from the journal (as it is most libellous to call it) except it be the fact that two constables thought they had their men, but were mistaken. Where was the sheriff? Do his friends want to know if he is in the jail, or where he was when he had been for some years, viz. behind his store counter in town, out of which he has not moved to do an office duty (personally). I also know of cases where he was asked not to appoint a deputy but to go himself to execute papers, but he did not see fit to do so. The fact is that he is beginning to trade on the sympathy and good nature meted out to him in the past, and now he simply laughs at the idea of an escape from goal. Perhaps I was wrong when I stated above that he had not moved to do an office act of late. I remember that he was where he had been for some years, viz. behind his store counter in town, out of which he has not moved to do an office duty (personally). The fact is that he is beginning to trade on the sympathy and good nature meted out to him in the past, and now he simply laughs at the idea of an escape from goal. Perhaps I was wrong when I stated above that he had not moved to do an office act of late. I remember that he was where he had been for some years, viz. behind his store counter in town, out of which he has not moved to do an office duty (personally). I also know of cases where he was asked not to appoint a deputy but to go himself to execute papers, but he did not see fit to do so.
