The death of George Whittaker, Esq., which took place at his residence here on Thursday last, removes one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Chatham. He was formerly engaged in business in Fredericton, but came to reside in Chatham more than twenty years ago, and was, for a time, an active and promiuent business man here. He retired from business ten or more years ago, although continuing to take a deep and effective interest in matters connected with the Methodist church here, of which he was a trustee and member of the Quarterly Board. He leaves two sons and daughters-W. C. Whittaker, Esq., Deputy Post Office Inspector for New Brunswick. and E. L. Whittaker, Esq., the well-known St. John Insurance agent, and Mrs. W. B. Howard and Mrs. Jas. Nico', both of whom

The funeral on Saturday afternoon was very largely attended. Messrs. E.A. Strang. John Haviland, Lemuel Abbott and F. O. Petterson, fellow-trustees, with deceased, of St. Luke's church, Chatham, acted as pallbearers and Messrs, H. S. Miller, D. Chesman and W. B. Thomas McGreevy had received Larkin, Connolly & Co. for the influence, $200, J00, He also alleged $40,000 additional had been received by him out of the Bay Chaleur railway subsidies. It is also set forth that Mr. McGreevy has for many years occupied the same house at Ottawa as Sir Hector, for the purpose of creating the impression that he has great influence over the minister.

After reading his charges, Mr. Tarte concluded by moving for a select committee with power to send for papers, take evidence and submit a report, said committee to be composed of the following members: Wood of Brockville, ex-Speaker Kilpatrick, ex-Speaker Ouimet, Weldon of Albert, Prior, Hon.
