however, simply drawn on their imaginations in furnishing him with information. His realistic descriptions of certain forest regions, in the press, from alleged personal explorations, are said to be sources of amusement to many camp cooks and logchoppers, who have allowed their imagination wings when being interviewed in town by the old gentleman, although he is given the credit of finding out more respecting forest tracts by his system of interviewing intelligent woodsmen than cruising, as he performs it. A man who, when sent to report upon a tract of land, contents himself by simply lying in camp, enjoying the society and culinary art of the cook, while he sends his assistants miles and miles away to do that which he, himself, is supposed to perform, may be counted upon to take it for granted that others discharge similar duties in a similar manner. There is, therefore, no more substantial foundation for Mr. Jack's slander upon the methods of our government scalers than the morbid centeging of his mind upon recollections of h. n practices. He may be "able to survey lines dividing leases correctly, as well as to keep a common field book," from his old habits, he would never travel fifty miles a week and do any scaling, although he might be relied upon to keep the right side of the cook and stand by the operator while good "grub" held out, and present also a cook-ed or other apparently satisfactory report. ese qualifications are, however, not Lued as highly by either the department or operators as by Mr. Jacks, so the department is satisfied with the men who possess those required by the official examiners, from the list of whom, it is one omitted. There is much in Mr. Jack's letter taken from the writings and public statements of gentlemen who have given time propriations from these sources, his recomsome portions of it, however, he displays astonishing ignorance of common law, as well as existing Crown Land regulations-so much so that one is led to wonder whether the old gentleman has taken any pains to inform himself of departmental matters, even as they are set forth in the public reports, since his memorable Young Men's Christian Association of connection with the Crown Land Department ceased. We need hardly lengthen this letter by referring, in this connection, to the provision in recent Crown Land leases respecting distinctive marks for logs obtained in joint operations on Crown and adjucent granted lands, which he puts forward as an original and untried proposition of his own. In fact, there is so much of his weary epistle that is ancient history to those well informed on the subject of the Crown Lands, as to cause one to wonder why the Sun wastes space by publishing it. It may be assumed, however, that as both Mr. Jack and his publishers desire to lose no opportunity of berating the Government and its several departments, the compiling of the letter, as well as its publication have been labors, not of love but its autithesis, and it is given to the people in the hope that some who read it may share the pretended views of the great"D.sappointed"-the eracle of the forest primeval, Edward Jack, C. They restore wasted vitality, build up the nervous system, enrich the blood, and transform pale and sallow complexions into glowing, rosy cheeks that alone follow perfect health. In a word they are a certain cure for all these distressing complaints to which women and girls are peculiarly liable. A trial of these pills will convince the most sceptical of their wonderful merit. For suffering men Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are equally effacious. Mr. Blair objected to the motion that necessary information was in the hands the public accounts committee.

This announcement was a direct challenge to the opposition and forced a division; and Mr. Melanson's motion showed the province that the government was strong as last session. The resolution was lost on the following division:- in the year of $70,764.04. Of this amount $40,000 was for railway debenditures. The remainder is made up of the amount overexpended by the board of works and the over expenditure on current revenue count for the year. The total receipts on of the Privy Council. current revenue account for the year amounted to $646,079.37; the total expen diture to $651,735.07, leaving a deficit for the year's operations of $5,655.70. Of that over expenditure $4000, comprised in the sinking fund. Turning to the estimated receipts for 1891. Mr. Mitchell stated that he placed the dominion subsidy at $497,000. It was thought by the government that the | few feet only. census to be taken this year would show an increase of population for New Brunswick of 10 per cent, or 32,000, which would entitle the province to receive the half of cents per head-say $12,200. The estimate for territorial revenue was $$130,000, a considerable reduction upon recent years, owing to the extremely unfavourable character of the present winter for lumbering operations. From the agricultural department the estimated receipts were $6,500: from lunatic local bills $750, and from miscellaneous sources $1,000, making a total estimated income of $645,050. As to the estimated expenditures Mr. Mitchell said that it was thought that $13,-950 would meet all demands for the administration of justice; for agriculture $21,600, including $5,000 for maintenance of horses. A certain rental would have to be met for would be sufficient for the blind asylum, for maintenance. In other provinces and maintained by the government and the con-

The estimate for public works ordinary was $118,350 and for bye-roads $70,000. Refunds crown lands $200; surveys and railway expenses $1,000. Stumpage collections had been placed at $7,500, it was thought owing to the reduced cut, that the cost collection would be less than last year. For unseen expenses the same amount was asked as last, $2,000. Dr. Atkinson delivered the "Gregory Mr. Baird has been awarded damages for speech," which did questionable service in Carleton and Victoria counties, in printed form, some months ago and, then, as nobody detected anything new or interesting in it, the motion of the Provincial Secretary that the Speaker leave the chair was carried, and the House went into committee of supply,

About Mr. Mitcheil.

Anonymous writers in the local papers references to Mr. Mitchell, in connection with the singularly inaccurate statements made by him to press-representatives in the upper provinces, when explaining his defeat in the recent election in Northumberland. The situation was just this :- Mr. Mit -against the advice of many of his best friends, personally-in putting the constituency to the trouble of having an election contest, when there is reason for believing he realised that he had no chance for success. So far as the ADVANCE was concerned, friends are glad to welcome him amongst it treated him courteously and even rebuked the Advocate and other papers for making personal references to him. Mr. Mitchell, in some of the few addresses he made, returned the ADVANCE's courtesy by retailing gossip invented by some of his low-grade supporters to the effect that the editor of the ADVANCE was supporting the Government candidate because it was promised that he should supplant the present Collector of Customs at Chatham. Mr. Mitchell, also, lost no opportunity for making rude and contemptuous references to a number of our leading men who opposed him, but not one of them replied in kind, for they had determined to leave that sort of warfare to Mr. Mitchell and the speakers on his side, Before declaration day Mr. Mitchell, met the Returning Officer on the street in Chatham and addressed him in violently offensive language. Then, when he reached the upper provinces he made ridiculously absurd assertions concerning our people and the cause of his defeat. We might refer to other matters in connection with Mr. Mit chell's late candidacy, which those who are so thin-skinned would, perhaps, not like to Hon. Sir John C. Allen, Chief Justice, hear, but the truth of which they would not venture to deny. We are of those, however, who desire to see any unpleasant feeling created by Mr. Mitchell's ill-advised visit to the County forgotten as soon as possible, but we would not be performing the duty we owe to the community if we permitted him to run a-muck as he has been doing, without an attempt to apply the check which he seems to require. Neither Mr. Mitchell nor those who speak or write for him shall be allowed to assail and cast unjust reflections upon those who have treated them with a forbearance beyond their Music Box, such as we now have much deservings, without a partial attempt on our part, at least, to let the public know that they are not in a position to indulge themselves in that direction.
